DECEASED JURISTS.

While the Supreme Court, Judge Barnard presiding, was in session in the Brooklyn Court House, shortly after noon, yesterday, several judges of the local courts and members of the Bar of Kings county entered and took seats within the enclosure. Ex-Senator Henry C. Murphy rose in his seat, and delivered a brief address in eulogy of the public life and virtues of the late Judge John A. Lott, formerly of the Supreme Court and of the Court of Appeals of this State. Mr. Murphy briefly reviewed some of the more prominent facts in connection with the life of the eminent jurist, with whom he had been associated as law partner for twenty five years. He moved that a minute of the death of ex-Judge Lott be entered on the records of the Supreme Court. General Philip S. Crooke seconded the motion and spoke feelingly of the deceased, with whom he had been intimately acquainted for forty years. A few appropriate remarks were then made by Judge Barnard, who granted the motion and directed the entry to be placed on the court records.

A motion was made by ex-Judge Onderdonk, of Queens county, that an entry be made on the records of the court of respect to the memory of ex-Judge William T. McCoun, who died a few days ago in the ninety-third year of his age. The motion was granted and the court then adjourned.

A meeting of directors of the Brooklyn, Flatbush and Coney Island Railway was held in the afternoon at the office of the company, in Montague street, when an address of respect to the memory of ex-Judge Lott was made by Mr. H. C. Murphy, and appropriate resolutions were adopted. The flags of the city and county were displayed at half mast from the public buildings throughout the day. The funeral of ex-Judge Lott will take place this afternoon from the Dutch Reformed Church, Flatbush.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

According to the statement of City Chamberlain Tappan the balance in the city treasury for the past week was $2,358,548 02.

The interest on city bonds and stocks to be paid by Comptroller Kelly on August 1, amounts to $222,518 87. The sinking fund will receive $100,316 87 of this sum.

Alderman Bennett performed the marriage service yesterday between Miss Dora Scop, of Germany, and Philip Harris, of England. The bride gave her age at seventeen and the bridegroom twenty. This is the third couple tied together by the Alderman since his advent at the City Hall.

Mayor Ely has signed the Aldermanic resolutions tendering a reception to the Columbia crew on their arrival home. He has also approved the resolution giving the Sixty-ninth regiment permission to occupy the Seventh regiment armory over Tompkins Market when these headquarters are vacated.

President Roberts officiated as acting Mayor yesterday in the absence of Mayor Ely.
