MATINEES EVERY WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.

TONY PASTOR'S THEATRE, 585 AND 587 BROADway.—MONDAY, September 16, positively for one week only, with the great New York favorites, the justly celebrated Mme. Rentz's Minstrels. The standard novelty attraction of America. The most magnificent minstrel scene ever witnessed and the following gigantic constellation of stars:—Rosa Lee, Sallie Adams, Hattie Forrest, Lulu Mortimer, Kate (McDermott sisters) Nellie, Lida Kenyon, Blanche Meacer, Juliette Pascal, Rosita Leonie, John Gilbert, W. H. Chase, E. T. Chapman, H. Henry, Alfred Anson, A. E. Voss. Explanatory card.—The management wishes the public to distinctly understand that the celebrated Mme. Rentz's Minstrels is the standard and only first class organisation of the kind in America, the source whence all imitators have derived the salient features of this popular class of entertainment, brought to such a high degree of perfection and popularity by this famous company. Our unrivalled success during the past eight years in every principal city, from Maine to California, has induced persons of almost every calling to attempt to copy a performance which from its originality of conception and artistic merit became a perfect mania. The famous Mme. Rentz's company are the only lady minstrels in the world who have the distinguished honor of appearing before intelligent and refined audiences in the principal theatres throughout the United States, and must not, therefore, be confounded with the many so-called "Female" Minstrels travelling about the country in the vain hope of copying our success. The company, as at present organized, is the strongest and best ever under my management, and its well known reputation in the past will be a sufficient guarantee of its excellence this season. M. B. LEAVITT, Manager. In addition to the above the management have at great expense secured for their principal attraction this season the universally popular and unsuccessal Mabel Stanley's famous Burlesque Company, the finest and most distinguished burlesque organization in America, consisting of the following beautiful and unequalled burlesque stars, especially engaged in England:—Miss Mabel Santley, the queen of burlesque and opera bouffe; Miss Sara Nelson, the famous burlesque star, the best in Europe or America, from the Alhambra Theatre, London, her first appearance in America; Miss Kate Raynham, the leading representative of burlesque and opera bouffe, a great artiste, from the Gaiety Theatre, London, her first appearance in America; Miss Marie Pascoe (R. A. M.), the gifted prima donna, the most attractive vocalist upon the lyric stage, from the Royal Alhambra, London, her first appearance in America; Miss Florie Plimsoll, the wonderful skipping rope dancer and topical vocalist of splendid appearance), from the Royal Strand Theatre, London, her first appearance in America; Miss Emily Hudspeth, the very talented burlesque artiste, vocalist and dancer, from the Surrey Theatre, London, her first appearance in America. Absolutely the grandest entertainment in the world. Presenting a brilliant, novel and attractive repertoire of European and American sensations. Seats secured at the box office three days in advance.
