MONDAY, June 30—6 P. M.

Business continued rather slow in nearly all departments of trade, yet there was a good feeling abroad and no little casting about for bargains. On 'Change the interest centred on the new "corner" for wheat, and prices again advanced, or rather were "put up" by the speculators. Shippers were out, and no business done for export. Corn was firmer. Oats firm. Whiskey nominal. Pork quiet. Lard quiet. Cotton on the spot was 1-16c. higher; futures closed from 4 to 12 points lower. Coffee was steady and sugar remained firm. Oils were generally steady. Petroleum was firm. Naval stores were dull and nominal.
