WONDROUS SPECTACLE!!!

The Management beg to announce that this grand theatre, after being elaborately and tastefully beautified under the liberal auspices of the A. T. Stewart estate, will be opened for the season on

NEXT THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 28, 1879,

the initial attraction to be a new and superb grand Operatic Spectacle, many months in course of careful preparation, with the experienced supervision of the celebrated KRALFY BROTHERS, authors of the charming fairy story so magnificently illustrated, entitled

ENCHANTMENT,

which will have the several elements—
DRAMATIC! MUSICAL!
TERPSICHOREAN!
PANTOMIMIC! SPECIAL!
and PICTORIAL!
presented by leading artists of the world in their several spheres, the whole forming a combination of attractions that the American stage, so familiar to excellences, has not yet anticipated.

THE MUSICAL features are most pronounced. The selections have been made to accord with the present unmistakable popular fancy, and will be interpreted by artists of distinction, notably Miss ROSE LEE, prima donna soprano, from Covent Garden Theatre, London; Miss JESSIE GREVILLE, prima donna soprano, from the Alhambra Theatre, London; Miss EUGENIE NICHOLSON, prima donna, from the Crystal Palace, Sydenham, and Mr. C. J. CAMPBELL, tenor, from the Royal Princess Theatre, London. These excellent British singers will make their first appearance in America, and will have the aid of a GRAND CHORUS OF 100 TRAINED MIXED VOICES, the Grand Orchestra led by Professor CHARLES PUERNER.

THE DRAMATIC company has been judiciously formed and will comprise such recognized sterling actors as Mr. J. B. STUDLEY, Mr. SAMUEL HEMPLE, comedian, of the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia; Mr. GEORGE EDISON, &c.

THE TERPSICHOREAN organization will be instantly acknowledged the most extraordinary ever seen in the United States. The premiers assoluta are the world famous ROSSI! CORALBA! and CAPPALINI! and the premiere danseuses, Miles. CAMIS, ZATTIO and ORTORI, from the principal Italian theatres, aided by a grand European corps of 40 coryphees, and a special company, 100 in number, of American dancing girls. The ballets are all new, by the principal French and Italian composers.

THE SCENERY is from the studio of the renowned WM. VOEGTLIN, formerly with Messrs. Jarrett & Palmer, of Booth's Theatre, and more recently the principal artist of the California Theatre, San Francisco, under the management of Mr. John McCullough. Contributions to the wonderful series of stage pictures have also been made by Sig. MAGNANI, of the Royal Academy of Arts, Florence; Sig. FERARIO, of La Scala, Milan, and Mons. ROBELIN, of the Grand Opera House, Paris.

THE SPECIALTY acts incidental to the story of the new piece will introduce novelties calculated to create a marked sensation. Among those are LES FANTOSHES VALOTTE, marvellous human automatons; LES OCCARINISTE, a band of accomplished foreign musicians that play upon an entirely new instrument, and a peerless gymnast, whose youth, beauty, grace and skill charmed and captured all Paris.

THE COSTUMES are entirely new, of the richest material and made in France. THE PANTOMINIC MACHINERY is from models designed by London Christmas Pantomime civil engineers. The ELECTRIC and CALCIUM lights will offer new effects, and the tout ensemble of the display, from the rising to the fall of the curtain on the FOUR ACTS and TWENTY TABLEAUX of must gain for it the distinction of being the most wondrous of all spectacular plays.
