A BOOKKEEPER FINDS A BONANZA.

HOW A STROLL FROM WHITE ST. TO 319 BROADWAY REALIZED $4,088 PROFIT.

One crisp morning, early in October, Mr. E. Haight, who has been bookkeeper in the hosiery and fancy jobbing house of Thorne, Caroll & Co., of 58 White st., for the past ten years, was saunteering leisurely down Broadway when the notion came into his head that a great event in his life was about to occur. He was sorely puzzled as he pondered over every possible metamorphosis in his career that he could imagine. "It cannot be that I am about to become a rich man," he soliloquized; "but why not? I only read a few weeks ago of how a lucky shoemaker and an invalid pensioner had been made suddenly happy, and it may be my turn next." Mr. Haight was about to cross Franklin st., and remembered that the Louisiana State Lottery Company had been the great benefactor of these favorites of Dame Fortune whose good luck he recalled. Putting his hand in his pocket and drawing therefrom a two-dollar bill he thought that he could spare it. In the block ahead at No. 319 Broadway the modest business sign of M. A. Dauphin attracted his attention. Mr. Haight did not hesitate another moment, but stepping up to one of the cashiers in the office of the company asked for two half tickets in the next drawing, on October 14. The tickets, which were chosen indiscriminately from the first package, were handed out, and without paying special attention to the numbers on them Mr. Haight slipped them cautiously into his pocket-book.

When the official telegram of the result of the drawing was published on October 15 Mr. Haight consulted his numbers for the first time and found to his gratification that one of them, numbered 07,783, had won half of the second capital prize of $10,000. A reporter called yesterday at Thorne, Caroll & Co.'s store at 58 White st., and, finding Mr. Haight all beaming with smiles behind a labyrinth of open boxes, received the above account from his own lips. Mr. Haight told the reporter that he collected the $5,050 through the Adams Express Company and received the cash in full without deduction. Although a bachelor he thought that he would find good use for this timely gift. Mr. Haight also said to the reporter that he firmly believed that a few dollars invested from time to time in such a fair venture as the Louisiana State Lottery Company conducts would never be missed, and might some day be returned to the investor ten thousand fold.

LA. S. LOTTERY.

The Louisiana State Lottery Company has always drawn in pursuance of an act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, approved 1868, for the benefit of charitable and educational institutions.

The following attractive scheme has always been drawn on the second Tuesday of each month, in public, at New Orleans,

La., under the supervision of sworn commissioners:—

M. A. DAUPHIN,
No. 319 Broadway, New York city.

The particular attention of the public is called to the fact that the entire number of the tickets for each monthly drawing have been sold, and consequently all the prizes in each drawing have been sold and drawn and paid. This has not been the case with any other company.
OPEN TILL 10 P. M.

A.—THE KENTUCKY STATE LOTTERY, SIMMONS & DICKINSON, Managers, has during its existence paid more money in prizes than any lottery, domestic or foreign, whose tickets are sold in this country. No drawings have ever been postponed even for a single day, and prizes have always been cashed without deduction on presentation. Drawings have taken place regularly on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15.

FIRST CAPITALS, $15,000, $5,000, $2,500, AND 1,859 OTHER PRIZES, AMOUNTING TO $59,700. FOR FULL PARTICULARS APPLY TO WILLIAMSON & CO., 599 BROADWAY, NEAR HOUSTON ST., NEW YORK.

The only way of proving the fairness of a drawing. No one can tell what number will be called for. If one is there all are there. Investigation has always been desired. 1,000 Cash Prizes, $112,400. $30,000, $10,000, $5,000, for $2. T. J. COMMERFORD, Courier-Journal Building, Louisville, or SAMS, 163 BROADWAY, NEW YORK; or B. H.
