BUY NICKEL PLATE ROAD TO GET A SITE

Cleveland Realty Operators, Backed by New York Men, Swing Big Deal.

CLEVELAND, July 6.—The purchase of 523 miles of trunk line railroad from Buffalo to Chicago, comprising the Nickel Plate Railroad, completed in New York to-day, was to give O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen, Cleveland realty operators, control of the railroad's depot site, which is needed in an extensive terminal plan promoted by the Clevelanders.

A syndicate of Cleveland and New York financiers, including the Van Sweringens, has been formed to swing the terminal project, which contemplates the erection of a large passenger and freight depot in the heart of the city and for the interurban electric lines.

The identity of the Eastern men interested in the deal is not known. In New York to-day the promoters bought from the New York Central Lines the latter's entire Nickel Plate stock holdings for $8,500,000, paying $2,000,000 in cash and the rest in notes.

While the entire terminal project was planned and most of the property was acquired by the Van Sweringens, the new syndicate will take over the property and carry out the Van Sweringen plans, according to financial associates of the Clevelanders. Clevelanders who participated in the purchase besides the Van Sweringens are J. R. Nutt of the Citizens Savings and Trust Company, Warren S. Hayden of Hayden, Miller & Co., bankers, and M. B. Johnson, attorney.

The Van Sweringens began their operations in Cleveland ten years ago, promoting two large allotments in the suburbs. The purchase of the Nickel Plate, which includes the railroad's depot site, forms the last link in the land chain needed for the big terminal.

"BEEF TRUST" HEARINGS END.

Armour Representative Tells House Committee of Small Profits.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—A sub-committee of the House Judiciary Committee concluded hearings to-day on the Borland resolution directing the Federal Trade Commission to investigate an alleged beef trust. Representative Borland, Missouri, filed a supplementary statement charging that the "trust" manipulated prices and controlled banks that lend money to cattle producers.

Mr. Borland also presented a petition from more than 100 members of Congress suggesting that the Federal Trade Commission ought to look into the question of high meat prices.

Arthur Meeker, vice-president of Armour & Co., told the committee that the packing business is one of "a large volume of business and small profits." "Our profit on cattle slaughtered during 1915 was $1.19 a head," he added.

The Department of Agriculture issued a bulletin to-day on cattle production in eleven Western range States. The bulletin holds out little promise of lower meat prices.

MOTOR TRUCK FIRMS UNITE.

Signal and Commerce Companies to Have $3,000,000 Capital.

DETROIT, July 6.—A merger of the Signal and Commerce Motor Truck companies was announced to-day by Thomas Neal of Detroit, recently elected vice-president of the General Motors Company. The companies for the present will be operated by a holding company capitalized at $3,000,000, according to Mr. Neal, with the intention of combining them into one company and possibly operating under one roof. It is said there is a possibility of certain motor truck accessory firms being taken into the new combine later.

The new company will be headed by Mr. Neal as president.

FLAX PLANTED IN GERMANY.

"Vossische Zeitung" Says Prospect of 55,000 Acre Crop Is Good.

BERLIN, via London, July 6.—The Vossische Zeitung says:

"To supply much needed fibrous materials 55,000 acres in Germany this year have been sowed to flax with excellent promise for the crop."

To avoid the long queues of meat ticket holders that have blocked the streets outside the butcher shops, butchers in German cities are issuing, beginning July 6, numbered tickets.

McAdoo Confers With Bankers.

William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, held several conferences yesterday with representative bankers of the financial district. It was understood that the Secretary sounded the bankers as to the sentiment of Wall Street in regard to the Government's contemplated bond issue.

ARRANGE FRENCH LOAN PLAN.

Bankers Confer Here on $100,000,000 Transaction.

It was learned semi-officially in the Wall Street district that negotiations surrounding the French loan were practically completed at a conference of bankers yesterday. Only a few details of the $100,000,000 transaction remain to be worked out.

Wall Street has it that the conference arranged for the organization of a syndicate to underwrite the new $100,000,000 corporation which is to be formed for the purpose of floating the loan. It is understood that among the directors of the corporation are to be Albert H. Wiggin of the Chase National Bank, Charles H. Sabin of the Guarantee Trust Company, Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank and H. P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Co.

Semi-official information reveals that, by agreement, the French Government will deposit either here or in France or in both countries securities of neutral countries of a market value of $120,000,000. Thereupon $95,000,000 in three year 5 per cent. debentures will be issued by the American corporation floating the loan. An announcement is expected within a few days that the terms of the loan have been arranged and that the public is invited to participate.
