

Easter is Soon Here DRESS UP!

The "White Front" Clothing Store is the Dress Up Headquarters of this City

Here you will find a full representation of the latest and greatest fabrics taken from the looms of the world's foremost weavers.

Our Spring Opening Exhibition is now in progress. You are invited to our Spring Dress Up season from now on until Easter

Get your tailor-made suit made in Canton. Just received the finest Woolens for made-to-order suits, and the prices are right.

The Finest Mallory Hat at $2 and $3
John B. Stetson Hats in all shades for Spring

Keep Your Eye on Our Show Windows From Time to Time

ONE PRICE TO ALL

T. T. SEXE

Mitchell home Friday evening, but as neither president or vice-president were present no meeting was called. The evening was spent in games and music after which luncheon was served. The time and place of next meeting has not been decided.

The Mitchell boys spent Sunday with the Millage boys.

La Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Detjen autoed to Sioux Falls, Saturday. Leon Bong commenced her first term of school Monday.

Miss Alma Bellach was on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Barnes returned Monday from Willow Lakes, S. D. where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Barnes' cousin, Alit Nuttbrock. Henry Klinghagen and wife were callers at Harm Wolthuis' Sunday evening.

F. Heeren and daughter, Martha, transacted business in Sioux Falls, Saturday.

Miss Ella Bellach spent the past week at the R. Stroman home.

The Ladies Aid meet with Mrs. Geo. Pensehorn, Thursday.

Mrs. C. Nelson and children visited with F. Heeren's Sunday.

Frank Bellach and family spent Sunday at Robert Musche's. Mesdames John Dickons, Fred Sherman and Tony Bong visited with Mrs. H. Heeren, Tuesday.

Nels Nelson and sisters Mae and Alice were Sioux Falls shoppers Saturday.

Highland

Miss Laura Ainess has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Lier who lives near Lenoir.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Fossum and daughter, Oline attended the Lutheran services at Canton last Sunday, and after services were guests at the home of A. Satrum.

Miss Mauda Brurud is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Christopherson. Milford Crawford is on the sick list at present.

The Ladies Aid met at E. E. Fossum's last Wednesday and on March 22, Mrs. A. Eneboe will be hostess.

Norway.

An advertisement sociable will be given by B. Tollefson and pupils of the Rise or Moe school, Dist. 22 Saturday evening, March 15. Your presence will be appreciated. Your lunch box covered with either your thoughts, wishes, ideas, sentiments or wit, etc. will be sold.

E. I. Gubbrud moved onto his farm again on Thursday, where he will begin farming again. His assistants for the coming year are Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hansen and family.

The Tollefson's spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Nelson.

Mrs. Joseph Romersheim returned from her recent visit at the Thomsson home near Canton on Sunday.

Mrs. I. Husby called on Mrs. Tollefson on Saturday.

Choir practices with Miss Mollie Romersheim on Tuesday evening.

Misses Johnson, Evanson, Berkeson and Tollefson attended teachers meeting at Hudson on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Nordlie and children were amongst the guests at the Overath-Giraffe wedding which occurred last Wednesday in Canton.

The Tredt children spent Sunday afternoon with the Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tollefson took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Eidsness, Sunday.

On Monday evening the Haracas held a business meeting in the parlor of the M. E. church. The following officers were elected: President, Edward Engen; Vice President, George Stanley; Secretary, Homer Thurston; Treasurer, Al. Nordard. Rev. Thurston gave a short talk on matters pertaining to the welfare of the class.

Congregational Church Notes.

Morning worship 10:30
Sunday School 12:00
Young People's Meeting 6:45
Evening worship 7:30
All welcome to all the services next Sunday and every Sunday.

TENDER STEAKS

A good piece of steak always meets with approval. If you want a porterhouse, sirloin, club or tenderloin, or flank or round steak you will find we meet your every requirement and the people are commencing to learn that our market stands for the best meats of all kinds. Our Phone 74.

M. T. Sundvold,
Proprietor.

Rood's Old Stand

Rolling Out The Quality

Is a preference with us. We choose to deal with our customers on a quality basis. That's the way we established our business and have strictly adhered to that method. When you order you never receive any that is tainted or doctored.

C. C. C. VELVET ICE CREAM

It's Easy to Call Up Phone No. 249

Canton Creamery Company

Spring Opening of
Mina Taylor
Dresses

COME AND SEE THE SPRING

MINA TAYLOR DRESSES

The new Mina Taylor Dresses are now in stock, and we invite every woman in this vicinity to come and see them. It is not a question of whether you need a new dress or not—come anyway and see these exceptional garments. You will be well repaid for your time, we promise you.

Mina Taylor Dresses

Are Sold by us at Prices Ranging from $1.25 up to $5.

Here is real economy. These Dresses are so pretty that you will take pride in wearing them. They are so sturdy that you will recognize their economy at a glance. They are so perfect in fit, and so comfortable in design that they will be your favorite home garb, once you try one on.

We have your size, in several styles and colors. It will be our pleasure to show them to you, and prove their economy.

P. S. Puckett Company

RUGS!

Yes, we have the largest assortment in the city.

We have many sizes and kinds.

Our prices are right.

Call and see them.

Taylor Furniture Co.

O. L. Campbell, Mgr.

Refrigerators and Undertaking

CORRESPONDENCE

Pleasant Ridge

Mrs. J. D. Hicks and children spent Friday evening at the Flory home.

Mrs. R. D. Millage and son Earl, spent Friday evening at the Manning home.

J. D. Hicks is on the sick list with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Sheldon took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. S. Manning.

Bert Manning spent Sunday night with Ward Goldy.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eneboe and Miss Emily Varnilla spent Friday evening with Miss Jessie Flory.

Mrs. J. D. Hicks and daughter Margie spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. A. Hunt.

There was a dance at the A. Thompson home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Penniston spent Saturday night at the C. Ekanger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Penniston took Sunday dinner at the R. D. Millage home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eneboe attended the dance at A. Thompson's Saturday night.

Leslie Larson called at M. P. Eneboe's Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson, Feb. 29th, a daughter.

Miss Clara Eneboe spent Sunday at home, returning Monday to her school.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Eneboe visited at the Kittleson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Oakland and John spent Sunday at the Vandmere home.

Myron Millage spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Millage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Stangle spent Sunday with Miss Jessie Flory.

Geo. Ulrickson's baby is quite sick with a severe cold on its lungs.

P. E. Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. E. Penniston for dinner March 17. A cordial invitation to all.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Anderson called at the A. Johnson home one day last week to see the new baby girl.

There are three new pupils at school, the John Stangle children.

Grand Valley.

Ole Strand from Canton moved out on his farm in this neighborhood the first of the week.

Dr. Lewison was called out to the Geo. Thinglum home Friday as Mrs. Thinglum had another attack of the grippe. Her many friends are glad that she is much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Nelson were Sunday guests at the Geo. Ulrickson home.

Ella Daily visited with Sophie Lien Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Mammie Syvertson and Mabel Iverson were among those who attended the dance at Ole Renli's in South Lynn Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hanson visited with Eric Selom's last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Selom was taken to the hospital at Ellendale, Minn., Wednesday night where he will take treatment for rheumatism.

Andrew Syvertson and family and Mabel Iverson were Sunday guests at the Otto Johnson home.

The following officers were elected Tuesday to conduct our township affairs for the coming year: Supervisor, Math Mathison; Assessor, W. L. Millage; Clerk, Ingebreit Holter; Treasurer, Martin Holter; Constable, M. O. Mickelson and Justice of the Peace Andrew Syvertson. As this is leap year all young ladies should make a note of the last named so in case the services of that officer is desired they will know where to find him.

H. M. Hanson was out fixing up some of the phones on the line the first of the week.

Messrs. Andrew Selom and Sofus Jensen and Misses Nellie Mitchell and Ellen Selom called at Henry Hanson's Sunday afternoon.

A few more days like Wednesday and the busy wives of Grand Valley will all be house cleaning.

Who Wants Eggs? Canton Creamery Co. They pay cash.

Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mitchell spent Sunday afternoon at F. Painter's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis and family took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Stauffer and Florence, who had come up Saturday to stay all night with her cousins returned home with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mitchell and daughter, Claire, called at the Dick Husman home Sunday.

Will Kenison and wife drove down to Fairview Sunday morning for a visit with his parents. When they returned in the evening they reported the roads very bad south of Canton.

Miss Nellie Gorman has taken up Miss Eva Phelps' school work in district No. 33, which was interrupted by her illness and operation.

Ed. Pierson and family have moved to the old Tanner place 2 miles west.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thornton went down to the home of Mr. Thornton's parents to visit Miss Lucy who came home from Richland where she is teaching school.

Miss Signa Dahl returned home Monday from Will Scott's where she had been assisting Mrs. Scott with her household duties.

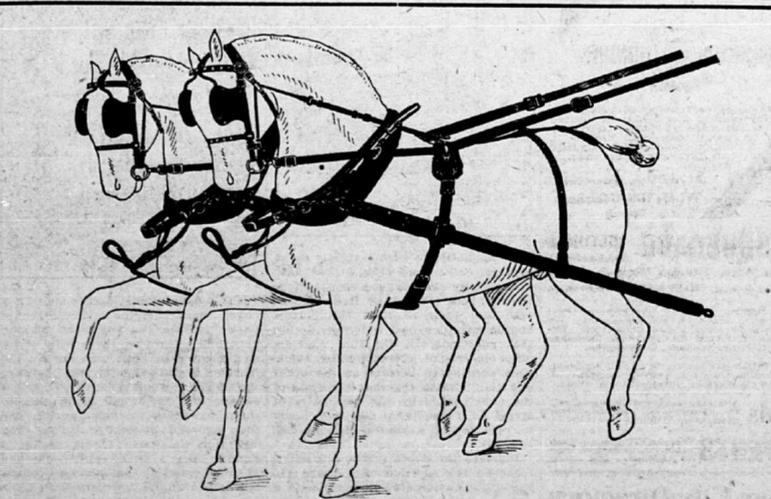

The Philo club met at the W. B.

Mrs. Anna Beck died Saturday, March 4th, at the home of her father, Math Mathison, northeast of Canton, after one week's illness. She was born in Norway and was 63 years, 8 months and 25 days old. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Rasmussen and interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery. Her daughters, Mrs. H. W. Stevens, husband and baby of Hull, Iowa; Mrs. M. W. Nyler and her son, husband of Mitchell, and her son, Harry of Revalia, S. D., were here for the funeral. Mrs. Nyler and husband were in the wreck on the Dakota Central while on their way here and her ankle was injured so that she had to be taken to the hospital and only arrived here in time for the funeral.

Second Hand

FURNITURE
BOUGHT, SOLD AND REPAIRED
Prices very reasonable.

—At the New—
SECOND HAND STORE
across the street from the post office.

This Harness, all complete, for $35.50
And another Harness for $29.50
My very best Harness (that I could make for any money) I sell, either nickle or brass, for $51.50
Oiling Harness, per set, for $1.00

EAST FIFTH ST. A. J. FEJFAR CANTON, S. DAK.