COTTONSEED OIL—The market again showed an upward tendency, and at the close values were not unchanged to 10 points higher. Sales aggregated 17,900, an improvement over recent trading. The demand seemed to come principally from the local talent, while, aside from profit taking sales, offerings were not large. The condition of the cotton crop and the comparative steadiness in lard were the sustaining factors. Range of prices:

Manitoba's Wheat Outlook Dark.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 15.—"Manitoba's wheat crop will be smaller than the lowest estimates made early in the season," Valentine Winkler, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, said to-day. "In several districts the wheat will not be worth cutting owing to black rust and insects, and in the Morden and Clearwater districts probably will be burned." Manitoba will have a bumper yield of oats, however, Mr. Winkler added.
