STEEL MILLS CAN'T FILL HOME DEMAND

Delays Costly to Domestic Manufacturers Who Held Back for Lower Prices.

GAIN IN EXPORT TONNAGE

Allies Still in Market for Shell Bars, Rails and Non-war Material.

Domestic manufacturers who delayed covering their full steel requirements for the next six months in anticipation of a recession in the market are now actively and urgently placing contracts for as large tonnages of finished shapes and for as late deliveries as the mills will accept.

The huge orders of shell steel, nearly 750,000 tons, bought for export in the last six weeks and 300,000 tons bought by domestic manufacturers of war munitions in the last three weeks for delivery over the first quarter and the first half of 1917 have made such heavy inroads upon the available mill capacity as to indicate an inadequate supply for home consumption unless deliveries are extended several months beyond the time of contracts already booked. Not a few mills are now several months late in making deliveries and many consumers are being pinched by short supplies.

Notwithstanding the large export sales of shell bars the Entente Allies are still negotiating for nearly 250,000 tons more, and the same foreign Governments want 130,000 tons more rails, while there are numerous inquiries for so-called peaceful forms from both the belligerent and neutral countries.

Aside from shell bars the greatest pressure is for steel plates and the Pennsylvania mills after selling 50,000 tons to shipyards at home and abroad at 2 cents to 2¼ cents are now being pressed to sell additional large tonnages. Chicago mills are in much the same position after selling 25,000 tons for shipment to the Pacific coast.

Car builders have placed orders for 80,000 tons of steel bars, shapes and plates and the additional car orders just taken call for nearly 50,000 tons more steel.

A revival in steel building and bridge work makes a demand upon the structural mills for a heavy tonnage of plain shapes that they are reluctant to meet. Some Pittsburg mills are now demanding 2¾ cents to 2.80 cents for shapes.

The anticipated buying movement in pig iron is rapidly developing, with sales of 75,000 tons in all sections and new inquiries for 100,000 tons out in the eastern territory. In the interior probably as much more is under negotiation.

Hotels on Cape Ann Were Never So Crowded

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Aug. 19.—Gloucester day, the big midsummer carnival of Cape Ann, which was celebrated last Wednesday, marked the most interesting event of the season to summer and native folk alike.

The hotels of the cape are enjoying the best season for many years, and it is now next to impossible to find accommodations in the leading houses.

Late arrivals from New York city at Hawthorne Inn are Mrs. C. H. Betts, Mildred and Lillian Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Cook, Miss Elsie Dufore, Mrs. Bentley Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Kelley, Mrs. F. W. Leggett, Felix C. Malby, B. P. Scholl and Alice Tabib.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Marix are visitors at Hawthorne Inn.

Arthur Row is being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William Steele Gray of New York at their charming bungalow 1.1 Mile at Eastern Point.

TEXTILES RISE AS DEMAND INCREASES

Jobbers' Fall Business Is Heavy, but Mills Can't Supply All Orders.

Anticipation of a high cotton market has been leading buyers of cotton goods to contract ahead for many of the supplies they will require. Some converters and printers are buying gray cloths for delivery through the first quarter of next year, and some jobbers are buying bleached and brown cottons and colored cotton lines for delivery to the end of this year. This will carry their stocks into the spring trade.

Prices of bleached and brown cottons are rising, the advances on standard 4-4 jobbing bleached fabrics being a full half cent a yard. Print cloths are up ¼ cent a yard in some of the finer counts, and ⅛ cent a yard on the narrow goods. Reports of fall distribution are optimistic, jobbers complaining principally at the delays in delivery of goods due from mills, and not at all of the volume of business tendered.

Reports from mill centres show that the labor scarcity is serious and continues to restrict the output in many places. Nor does this seem to be offset by the increased operations at night in many Southern centres where the help problem is less troublesome than in the northeastern section.

Prices quoted at the end of the week were as follows:

Print cloths, 28 inch 64x64s, 4⅝ cents; 64x60s, 4⅜ cents; 38½ inch 64x64s, 6¼ cents; brown sheetings, Southern standards, 8½ cents; denims 2.20s, indigo, 18 cents; tickings, 8 ounces, 15½ cents; prints, 7 cents; staple ginghams, 8 cents; dress ginghams, 10½ cents.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 19.—The coronation of Miss Gruzilla Taylor as Queen Titania XVII. of the Asbury Park carnival period, which took place in the Beach Arcade on Wednesday evening, formally inaugurated the annual festival season. The ceremony, always a brilliant one, was marked by a large attendance.

The crowning took place with the entire court assembled on the Arcade stage, while an orchestra led by Arthur Pryor played the royal march. A feature of unusual interest was the appearance of Miss Mary Wolston, a barefoot dancer.

The queen and her court have already entered upon a busy round of social affairs, attending nightly dances in the hotel and cottage quarter and appearing at lawn and numerous other day time fetes.

One of the prettiest and most popular of the week end dances to-night was the "phantom dance" held at the New Monterey. It closed a week of enjoyable social activities at that hotel in fitting manner.

More than 150 couples participated in the week end dance at the Lafayette. The feature of the evening was the solo dance by Miss Dorothy Grey.

The first masquerade ball of the season at the Monmouth was held on Wednesday evening. The Allenhurst and Deal younger set as well as society folk from Asbury Park and Spring Lake were well represented on the floor.

There was a large turnout at the community ball held in the West End Tuesday evening to mark the formal opening of the campaign to raise $100,000 for a general hospital in Asbury Park. The entertainment was directed by Mrs. Joseph Savage and Miss Mary Lawson Leech, and the patronesses included Mrs. William Tuane, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Margaret Stevens, Mrs. Carl Huber, Mrs. Arthur Porter, Mrs. William W. Beveridge and Mrs. Samuel A. Metzgar. The ten day whirlwind canvass for the hospital fund began on Tuesday.
