Two Metropolitan Clubs Tie for American Golfer Trophy in Annual Competition on Championship Links

NEW YORKERS TIE IN FIRST SKIRMISH ON MERION LINKS

Flushing and Siwanoy Pairs Share Lead in Contest for Silver Golf Club.

GARDNER AND EVANS ARE TWO STROKES AWAY

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—Two clubs from the metropolitan district, Flushing and Siwanoy, tied for the American Golfer trophy to-day on the championship links of the Merion Cricket Club. Flushing was represented by golfers who learned the game on New York courses, Gardiner W. White and Morel P. Lewis, but the Siwanoy team was composed of former Bostonians, John G. Anderson and Frank H. Hoyt, so New England borrowed some of the day's glory.

Just as at Detroit last year, the score at which the leaders tied was 70, and the example set at Detroit will be followed further by playing off the tie to-morrow morning. Last year the Sherman brothers, Tom and Sherrill, won the silver golf club for the Yahnundasis Golf Club of Utica by defeating Max Marston and C. E. Van Vleck, Jr., of Baltusrol in a Sabbath day play off, but although they tried to retain possession of the trophy to-day, they were unsuccessful and finished well down on the list.

Strangers Close Up.

In third place to-day only a stroke behind the leaders were a pair of little known Pittsburg golfers, G. J. McKee and G. T. Gregg, who represented the Oakmont Country Club. They proved the fact that in a best ball competition the stars do not always show up as well as the lesser known golfers.

Just behind them with a score of 72 were two of the most famous golfers in the United States, the two champions, Bob Gardner and Chick Evans. Both are honorary members of so many Chicago clubs that it was not hard to find one to which they both belonged, so they teamed up. Gardner, whose injured finger still seemed to worry him a little, was the weaker member of the team, and as his individual total was about 81, he left a good deal for Evans to do. They played their round in the morning, and although Evans went out for another practice round in the afternoon, Gardner decided that a rest would do his bad finger no harm and remained indoors.

800 Follow Gardner and Evans.

A gallery of 300 followed Robert A. Gardner, national amateur champion, and Charles Evans, Jr., national open champion, over the west course. The two were paired and represented the Chicago Golf Club in the foursome event. Their best ball was a 72, 39 out and 33 in.

There were eighty club pairs in the foursome which was not restricted to players who are to start in the national championship.

Seventy was not broken by an amateur in to-day's practice, but Ben Sawyers, the North Berwick professional of England, who is here, went over the west course in 36, 33—69, a new record. The summaries:

CAMPFIRE VICTOR IN TURF CLASSIC

canter that brought him to the starter with the first brigade.

There was only a short delay at the post. None of the youngsters was fractious, but it took about four minutes to get them in a perfect line. Then the barrier sprang and all but Tumbler went flying under it. As that famous cry of "They're off!" floated through the stands and clubhouse only a cloud of dust could be seen three-quarters of a mile up the track.

When the first splash of dust had vanished Campfire was carrying Mr. Wilson's famous old gold and green chevrons, collar, cuffs and cap near the front. He was in second position behind that fleet footed filly Madeira, and two lengths ahead of the remainder of the field, which was headed by Vivid. At the quarter post Madeira was still in front, but her lead had been cut down to a scant length, while Vivid had also gained ground and reached Campfire's saddle girths.

Maderia Sets Pace.

Maderia had set a terrific pace against the strong wind, and it proved too much for her, for when the half mile post had been reached she had fallen back from first position to seventh. As she faltered Campfire assumed command and was running two length ahead of his field. Rickety was second, with Vivid third. As they came opposite the old field stand Campfire was leading by more open daylight, and to the crowd seemed like an easy winner.

But before the last sixteenth post had been reached Rickety had made a determined challenge. It carried him to the leader, but not in front of him, for when his head shot past Johnny McTaggart's boot, Johnny raised his whip and cracked it on his mount. With a gameness and courage seldom seen this season Campfire responded.

That one whack seemed enough, for it sent the Wilson youngster along a trifle faster, but faster enough to stall off Rickety's challenge and beat him home in rather easy style.

As this pair were fighting it out for first honors Skeptic, which had been running far in the ruck in the early part of the race, came with a rush and nipped third place from Vivid.

Many Fine Performances.

Besides seeing one of the best Futurities ever run, the crowd witnessed several other good contests. They saw James Butler's sterling three-year-old Spur win the famous Jerome Handicap and old Shannon River capture the Shinnecock, a handicap steeplechase at two miles.

They also saw the Autumn Highweight Handicap for gentlemen jockeys, and for one of the few times in running of this event saw a disqualification. Solar Star, owned by and ridden by Johnny Tucker, finished first in this race, which was at one mile, but was disqualified for fouling, and the honor went to Mr. R. Smith, who had the mount on John E. Madden's Fellowship. Solar Star was the best horse in the race, but when turning into the stretch he ran wide and in doing so carried Fellowship with him.

The race for the Jerome resulted in a stirring finish, Spur sticking his neck home ahead of Ral Parr's imported colt Crimper, which was less than a length ahead of Airman. Spur was much the best in the race, even though he conceded many pounds of weight to the others. That he had a narrow escape from defeat was due almost entirely to bad racing luck. Caught in a pocket soon after the start he was unable to get through until the turn into the stretch. There Jockey Loftus slipped him through on the rail and he had sufficient speed in reserve to stall off a belated rush by Crimper.

LOCAL ATHLETES BEST.

Are Chief Point Getters in Atlas Road Run at Kearny.

Manhattan athletes proved the chief point getters in the annual four and one-half mile handicap road run of the Atlas A. C. at Kearny, N. J., yesterday. Representatives of the Hungarian-American A. C. won the point score, turning in a low card of twenty-five tallies, with the Morningside A. C. in second place with thirty-three points.

M. J. Dwyer of the Bronx Church House was the individual winner. Dwyer, who started from the three minute mark, completed the course in 28:42. C. Mitchell, an unattached harrier, was second, and C. Billingham, Sprague Electrical Club, was third. The summaries:

CUBANS AT RIDGEWOOD.

Long Branch Team to Play Royal Giants To-day.

The Long Branch Cubans, who played two thrilling contests at Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds with the Cuban Stars last Sunday, will again be seen in action at the same field this afternoon. Dr. Henriquez's boys will be pitted against the Royal Giants in a double header. The Long Branch team last Sunday defeated the Cuban Stars, 5 to 4, in one of the best contests seen at Ridgewood this season. With their pitchers in prime condition, the team from Havana have no fear of the best of the local semi-pros.

Munoz, star hurler of the Cuban nine, will be pitted against Stringhean Williams in the feature game, and Ballestores and Harvey will work in the opening tilt.

SIEGEL SCORES K. O.

In the main bout at the Fairmont A. C. last night Harry Siegel knocked out Gene Gilvey in the first round. A right to the jaw gave Gilvey his quietus.

In the semi-final of four rounds Tom Gilligan outpointed Artie Luther.

Scratched—Gloaming, Raconteuse, Kings Oak, Hidden Star, Andrew, Feminist, Old Broom.

True as Steel outbroke his field, immediately assumed command and, though hustled all the way, never left the issue in doubt. Port Light and Gnat, always closest to the pace, had no excuse, the latter outgaming Port Light in final quarter. Others were never contenders.

825 SECOND RACE—The Autumn Cup. Three-year-olds and upward. Gentlemen riders. One mile. Purse, $750. Time, 1.45 2-5. At post, 3.11. Off, 3.12. Winner, br. g., 3, by Fayette—Bohemia. Owner, J. E. MADDEN. Trainer, W. S. Walker. Start good. Won driving. Place same.

*Disqualified. Scratched—Gloaming.

Solar Star followed Doublet closely until turn for home, where latter fell back and Fellowship raced up on outside of Solar Star. Latter carried Fellowship out for the length of the stretch, lasting long enough in so doing to just get the verdict. Ahara saved many lengths turning for home, but was not good enough. Solar Star was disqualified and placed last, while Ahara was moved into second position.

826 THIRD RACE—The Futurity. Two-year-olds. Six furlongs, straight. Purse, $5,000. Time, 1.18 4-5. At post, 3.45. Off, 3.49. Winner, ch. c., by Olambala—Nightfall. Owner, R. T. WILSON, Jr. Trainer, T. J. Healey. Start good. Won driving. Place same.

Campfire assumed command in first quarter, then killed off Madeira, which tried to keep pace with him, was then challenged by Rickety a furlong from home and, under pressure, drew out in last fifty yards to score in clever manner. Rickety had no excuse. Skeptic broke slowly, gradually raced into a contending position, closed with a terrific rush in final quarter, but failed to get up. Vivid, well up throughout, failed to come on at end. Tumbler had scant opportunity, being almost left at post.

827 FOURTH RACE—The Jerome Handicap. Three-year-olds. One mile. Purse, $1,500. Time, 1.39. At post, 4.18. Off, 4.20. Winner, b. c., 3, by King James—Auntie Mum. Owner, J. BUTLER. Trainer, J. McCormack. Start good. Won driving. Place same.

Scratched—Water Belle, Kilmer. *Added starter.

Spur, outrun and in bad racing position until turn into homestretch, slipped through on the inside when Doreas and Kings Oak went wide, assumed command a furlong from home and, under pressure, had enough left to stand off the challenge of Crimper. Latter, outrun to homestretch, closed in resolute fashion, but could not get up. Air Man ran sparkling race from poor beginning. Doreas and Kings Oak raced each other a heads off in early stages. Malachite never, far from the pace, had no excuse, tailing off badly at end.

828 FIFTH RACE—The Shinnecock Steeplechase Handicap. Three-year-olds and upward. About two miles. Purse, $400. Time, 4.16. At post, 4.45. Off, 4.44. Winner, blk. g., 4, by Blankenburg—Tombore. Owner, R. PARR. Trainer, W. Garth. Start good. Won driving. Place same.

Scratched—Ormes Head.

Shannon River forced pace, appeared beaten just previous clearing last obstacle, came again in final furlong and, standing off bids of Vifir and Skibbereen scored in game fashion. Latter was taken off pace in first trip around, then moved toward the leaders in gradual manner, was set down with a rush in final quarter, but failed to get up. Skibbereen, always well up, tailed off in last part and had no excuse.

829 SIXTH RACE—Two-year-olds. Selling. Five and a half furlongs, straight. Purse, $500. Time, 1.08 2-5. At post, 5.16. Off, 5.18. Winner, b. g., by Rockton—Onaga. Owner, T. J. SMITH. Trainer, G. M. Odom. Start good. Won easily. Place driving.

LINCOLN STARS IN L. I. CITY.

Harlem Nine Will Clash With Dognon Grays To-day.

The Lincoln Stars, fresh from a triumphant trip through the middle West, will make their first appearance of the season in Long Island City this afternoon. The Stars will meet the Dognon Grays in the feature of a double header. The game will give Long Island fans an opportunity to test the real strength of the Grays, as the team will meet the Stars as the one of the best colored teams in the country.

Gunboat Thompson or Langford will pitch for the Lincoln Stars. The Grays will work Ancker, former Mackman and an International Leaguer, on the mound. The International League hurler will replace Max Hoelker, who joined the Cleveland club last week. In the preliminary game at 1:30 the St. Mary's team will meet a fast amateur nine.

MOORE SHADES BRANDT.

Pal Moore, the Memphis bantamweight, shaded Dutch Brandt of Flatbush in the star ten round bout in the Broadway Sporting Club in Brooklyn last night. The mill was fast and interesting throughout, Moore gaining the popular verdict by his aggressiveness. Moore weighed 117½ pounds, while Brandt tipped the beam at 120½.

ARCTIC PARK GAMES.

Empires to Play Columbia B. C. and Original Empires.

The Empire City nine will have the Original Empires as their opponents this morning at Arctic Park, Flushing and Wyckoff avenues, Brooklyn. The Original Empires have a strong team that has shown to advantage in games throughout the greater city. In the afternoon the Empires will meet the strong Columbia B. C., the team that was rebooked at the request of many fans because of the fine showing of the team on its first appearance at Arctic Park.

Egan and Smith again will be the battery of the visitors. Both are former members of the in-or-outs.
