Two of Father Knickerbocker's College Gridiron Teams Start Home Season With Victories---Columbia Loses

COLUMBIA BEATEN BY HAMILTON TEAM

Morningside Eleven Fumbles Too Often to Keep Slate Clean.

FINAL SCORE IS 14 TO 7

Columbia lost its opening football game of the season at South Field yesterday, bowing to Hamilton College by the score of 14 to 7. Two costly fumbles by the Blue and White in the first quarter paved the way for both of Hamilton's touchdowns. It was the first defeat suffered by Columbia since football was restored at Morningside Heights.

Hamilton played an alert, speedy game, every man on the team being quick to take advantage of opportunities. Two minutes of play found the up-State eleven in possession of the ball on Columbia's 40 yard line as a result of a fumble by Monroe, Columbia's left halfback. In seven plays the visitors scored their first touchdown.

The second score for the visitors provided the real feature of the game. Meola, right end for Hamilton, recovered a fumble when Zychlinski failed to retrieve a poor pass, and raced sixty yards for a goal. In his dash down the field Meola was guarded by several Hamilton players, not a Columbia tackler getting within ten yards of him.

Local Line Excels.

Columbia's lone touchdown was achieved by clever playing on the part of the forward line. With the ball in Hamilton's possession on their own 6 yard line Schwartz, fullback of the visitors, dropped back behind his own goal posts for a kick. Donaldson, at left guard for Columbia, broke through the defence and blocked the kick, while Wilber, right tackle, fell on the ball for a touchdown. Hegeman kicked the goal.

With the exception of the fumbling Columbia played the better game. The Morningside line held well. Columbia was guilty of five fumbles, while Hamilton slipped up three times.

Hamilton outweighed the Blue and White by several pounds to the man, contrary to the general expectation, but the up-Staters were unable to make their weight a big factor. Time and again the Columbia backs tore around either end for big gains or ploughed through holes opened in the centre of the line by Healy and Wilber for consistent successes. Each time the home eleven came within striking distance of the Hamilton goal, however, a fumble would undo the work and force the Columbians to begin their march anew.

Little recourse was had to the open game by either team, though Hamilton made its two successful forward passes count. Both of these were tried in the first quarter. The lineup:

Hamilton (14).	Positions.	Columbia (7).

BROOKLYN PREP VICTORIOUS.

Crown Heights Boys Vanquish St. Francis in Opener.

Brooklyn Prep gridders, all around champions of Brooklyn, administered a decisive defeat to the St. Francis Prep eleven in their opening game of the season at Hawthorne Field yesterday. The sturdy Crown Heights lads scored almost at will, the final count being 33 to 0. A slight advantage in weight was enjoyed by Brooklyn Prep.

The dashing end runs of Capt. Kelly and the spectacular work of the Carlin brothers stood out prominently for the victors. Al Etzel also came in for his share of praise, kicking three goals following touchdowns. Reggie Parks, a newcomer, substituted for Kelly at quarter late in the contest and surprised the Brooklyn followers by his sensational play. The Brooklyn boys found the going so easy that Coach Dolan sent the second string men into the game in the final period. Capt. Joe Smith, McBride and Walsh excelled for the St. Francis team. The lineup:

MEADOW BROOK FOUR WINS CUP

Beats Coronado Team for Hempstead Trophy, 8 to 3.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Oct. 7.—Meadow Brook polo four won the final for the Hempstead cup this afternoon on field No. 1 against the fast riding Coronado team. The game was the one postponed from last summer when many of the players were called to the colors for service on the border.

The lineup was practically the same to-day as it would have been had the game been played at that time, and the home four won by the good safe margin of eight goals to three for Coronado.

Although the score was a little one sided, the game was one of the best seen on the field here in some time. Not for one minute did play lag, and even after the home players had a safe enough lead to feel sure of victory they played hard right up to the time of the end of play. Lineup and summary:

MEADOWBROOK.	CORONADO.
No. 1—Howard Phipps.	E. Hopping.
No. 2—C. C. Rumsey.	Elliott Bacon and H. East.

FORDHAM GRIDDERS TAKE OPENING TILT

Pry Off Lid at Maroon Field With Victory Over Western Maryland, 20 to 0.

DEMPSEY SHOWS SKILL

Fordham defeated Western Maryland College in the first home game of the season yesterday at Fordham Field. The score was 20 to 0. The Southerners could not get beyond Fordham's 30 yard line.

Fordham played in spurts of brilliant offensive football and then lapsed into defensive tactics, being content to let its opponents have the ball and offer battle from their own territory. When the Maryland team threatened Fordham, the Bronx eleven would flash a defense that drove Maroon players into the heart of their charges and would take the ball on downs or force them to punt.

On the offensive Fordham relied wholly on trick formations from which forward passes of every variety were shot over the heads of the visitors. On four occasions passes of thirty yards from Dempsey to Cantwell swept the visitors down the field.

The Maroon eleven never wasted a play in the opening period and scored after the first three minutes. Braney recovered Wingate's fumble on the visitors' ten yard line, and Dempsey fell back for an end run and shot the pigskin to Corcoran behind the line for Fordham's first score this season. On the kickout the catch was not fair and Dempsey lost his chance for the extra point.

Fordham's Unique Play.

Fordham scored for the last time in the third period when the Maroon took the ball on a punt on their twenty yard line. End runs by Dempsey and Cantwell put the pigskin at mid-field. McNamara cut around the visiting end for thirty yards and ducked and dodged nearly the whole visiting team. Here a trio of passes, Dempsey to Cantwell, then from McNamara to Lowe, put the ball in position for a kick on the fifteen yard line. Dempsey fell back, but the ball was shot to Erwig, who hurled it to Cantwell behind the line for a touchdown.

Shortly after this play a unique pass play was declared valid for Fordham. On a long hurl by Dempsey both Cantwell and Nichol jumped high in the air and grabbed the sphere together. Falling to the ground they rolled, and Cantwell broke away holding the ball, which was awarded valid for the Bronx team.

Erwig, who played his first game for Fordham, made some daring and clever tackles in the third period, when he cut down three end runs that looked dangerous. This was the only spurt the visitors made and it was promptly nipped.

Several Players Injured.

While the game was an easy victory for Fordham, it may prove a costly one. O'Connell, Erwig, Connelly and McNamara were severely shaken up. Corcoran's eye was cut and badly injured when he made a flying tackle that stopped Nicholson's run in a clear field. Treanor had a boil on his neck ripped open in a mass play and had to retire.

Western Maryland eleven had a heavy, fast line, and its mass attacks were successful around tackles on several plays, but the dazzling forward pass formation of the Maroon used diagonally across the field more than offset this advantage against the Fordham eleven.

"Billie May" was selected to act as captain for the Fordham eleven for this game only. The lineup:

Ford (20).	Western Maryland (0).
Braney	Left end Kester
May	Left guard Alexander
Treanor	Centre Nicholson
Kendrick	Right guard Hooper
Lowe	Right tackle Langrall
Corcoran	Right end Johnson
McNamara	Quarterback Keller
Cantwell	Right halfback Wingate
Dempsey	Fullback Garrett

Score: Fordham, 20; Western Maryland, 0. Score by periods—

YALE BOAT CLUB REGATTA.

Ellis, Cornell and Princeton Will Race Next May.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 7.—For the first time a big college regatta is to be held here under the direction of the Yale boat club. It will be a triangular race between the varsity crews of Yale, Princeton and Cornell and the race will be held on the Housatonic River just above Derby next May.

The tentative date is Saturday, May 5. Last autumn Columbia defeated Yale on New Haven harbor over a mile and a half course with excellent weather conditions, which are most unusual for the harbor, but the course chosen on the Housatonic affords perfect water on almost all occasions.

ENZMANN TO PITCH.

Will Work for Emperors Against D. S. C. Nine To-day.

Johnny Enzmann, who until joining the ranks of the minor leaguers, was the leading semi-pro hurler in Brooklyn, will be seen in action at Arctic Park, Flushing and Wyckoff avenues, this afternoon. Johnny will work against the D. S. C. nine in the feature of a double header. Enzmann's opponent will be Paddy Martin, leading pitcher of the New London club of the Eastern League. With these stars opposing each other, a pitching duel is sure to be on tap for Arctic Park's fans. The White Wings last Sunday beat the Lincoln Giants in a contest that was replete with stirring features.

In the preliminary game at 1:30 the St. Gabriel's team, East New York champions, will play the Empires. Mullen of Fordham will pitch for the visitors.

COMMERCIAL ELEVEN DEFEATS STUYVESANT

Teleca of Winners Scores Touchdown Following Forward Pass.

In a game marked by considerable fumbling and loose playing at Commercial Field in Brooklyn yesterday the Stuyvesant High gridders went down to defeat by Commercial, 7 to 0. Both teams were comparatively light. Stuyvesant's team has been improved greatly and Coach Mason's boys bid fair to give a good account of themselves this season.

The only scoring was recorded in the first quarter, when Teleca raced over the line following a forward pass from Baldwin. Teleca carried the leather around left end for fifteen yards. Baldwin kicked a difficult goal. Stuyvesant threatened several times, but fumbles proved costly. The Manhattanites once had the leather on the 3 yard line, but loose handling of the ball resulted in Commercial's recovery of the pigskin. The lineup:

RENSSELAER POLY EASY FOR N. Y. U.

Up-Staters Are Vanquished by Violet Eleven at Ohio Field, 22 to 0.

HOWARD CANN STARS

In an exciting but one sided game the New York University football team had an easy time in defeating the Rensselaer Polytechnic eleven yesterday afternoon on Ohio Field. The score was 22 to 0. The result was quite a surprise, as it was the Violet's opening game and the up-Staters already had engaged in two games.

No scoring was done in the first quarter because of an epidemic of fumbles which struck the local backfield. Twice after the line had held the visitors for downs Warman and Cann fumbled the kick and the ball was recovered by opposing players. In the second and third quarters, however, a brace was taken and McKenzie carried the ball across the line once in each period after Weinheimer and Cann had worked the ball within a few yards of the goal.

In the fourth period Cann made all the points. He recovered a fumble and with Egan making interference raced sixty yards for a tally. He also kicked a pretty field goal from the 25 yard mark in the third quarter. Weinheimer proved to be the best ground gainer, especially on the open play and end run formations.

Violet Gridders Surprise.

The Violet line surprised everybody by its fine showing. The locals held Rensselaer to one first down during the whole game and made big holes in the opposing team for the backfield. Savage and Hoffman showed up exceptionally well on the defensive, while Egan and McCulloch at ends made fine interference on the offensive.

Forward passing did not figure largely with either team. The locals made only two attempts and failed in each, while the visitors worked two out of four tries for a total of eighteen yards. There was a lot of penalizing on technicalities and the loss was about equally distributed. However, the game was cleanly played. The lineup:

New York University (22)		Rensselaer (0)
McCulloch	Left end	Robertson
Hoffman	Left tackle	Van Houten
Alvarez	Left guard	Harris
House	Centre	Mackenzie
Savage	Right guard	Firth
Jordan	Right tackle	Morse
Egan	Right end	Perret
McKenzie	Quarterback	Mayberry
Cann	Left halfback	Lind

Wesleyan had the ball on the five yard line in the third period, but Weber's fumble cost a touchdown. Harman tied the score with his drop kick from the twenty yard line in the final quarter. CLINTON PLAYS TIE WITH JERSEY TEAM

Manhattan and Dickinson High Deadlocked in Opening Game, 6 to 6.

LOCALS ARE OUTPLAYED

New York's scholastic football campaign got under way yesterday, after the season twice had been postponed. In the feature game De Witt Clinton's eleven was held to a 6 to 6 tie by the rugged Dickinson High aggregation at Lenox Oval. Followers of the Red and Black team appeared pleased at the result, as the Manhattan eleven was hard hit bit by graduations and it was feared that the Clintonites would get off to a poor start. Last year Dickinson lost to Clinton by a 28 to 0 score.

Dickinson outplayed the local boys throughout the game, but loose handling of the leather proved costly for the Jerseyites. Had the Dickinson boys been able to hold the pigskin at the right moments a victory certainly would have been scored for New Jersey.

Both tallies came in the second period. Clinton ended the first quarter with a short forward pass, Blair to Thompson, and the leather rested on the four yard line. When play was resumed Fred Eisenberg went through right tackle for a touchdown on the first attempt. Gouldowsky failed to kick the goal. Shortly following Clinton's score the Manhattanites were penalized fifteen yards for unnecessary piling up, and Dickinson was given an opportunity to even the count. With the leather on the five yard line, Hill raced around left end for a touchdown.

Johnson Misses Crossbar.

In the final period Box Johnson of Dickinson made an attempt at a drop kick from the twenty-five yard line. With the rival players massed around him, his defence being poor, Johnson missed the crossbar only by a narrow margin.

Fumbling was much in evidence on both sides. Forward passing was attempted only a few times, and when this style was tried it was not with success.

Fred Eisenberg and Hoving were the luminaries for Clinton, Hoving making several spectacular tackles and end runs. Eisenberg was in the thick of the fight throughout. Duffy and Johnson did the best work for the Jersey combination.

The Lineup.

De Witt Clinton.	Pos.	Dickinson.
R. Eisenberg	Left end	Growitz

Carries Off Laurels in Feature Race at Flatbush S. S. A. L. Games.

The Flatbush Sunday Schools made their debut in league athletic competition at Brooklyn Field yesterday. In addition to the seven events contested by the organization, six numbers were open to A. A. U. athletes.

The feature event was the four mile handicap run, which was won by J. McCurnin of the Jersey Harriers A. A. after a hard struggle with Aaron Morris, the star St. Christopher club distancer.

It largely was through the efforts of C. K. Kerby that the St. Mark's team won the point trophy in the events for the Sunday Schools. The winning combination rolled up a total of 40 points, while Vanderveer Park, in second place, garnered 19 tallies. Flatbush Congregational athletes were third with 9 points. The summaries:

Chase and Speaker Are Batting Leaders
