COTTON OF 5 ACTIVE MONTHS ABOVE 20 C.

Advance Carrying Prices to Highest Points in Fifty Years Continues.

FROST ENTERS THE BELT

Liverpool Strong, With Census Report Bullish—Talk of "25 Cent Cotton" Now.

With five active months well over the 20 cent mark and with the sixth—December—within three points of it, cotton yesterday continued the bullish advance that has carried all grades for both spot and future delivery into the highest territory it has touched in half a century.

A number of bullish factors pulled strongly all day. One was a killing frost in the belt, which undoubtedly nipped any cotton in the fields; another was the strength of Liverpool; still another was the bullish tone to the census report on consumption. The swing upward released a lot more "25 cent cotton" talk. It brought back into the market, too, a number of strong old bulls who disposed of their lines just before the election.

Altogether the day was lively, with profit taking frequent, but it was demonstrated that even the day's heavy liquidation could not more than momentarily stop the quotation's climb.

Backed by the bullish facts and figures cotton opened strong in New York at a 10 to 25 point advance. The demand was general, with spot houses and commission houses the leaders. The supply came from Southern interests, Liverpool and Wall Street. There was active covering by shorts, who took fright early and fled in a panic. The supply, scattered at best, was apparently readily absorbed.

Periods of easiness, in which the quotation slipped back from 8 to 12 points, were frequent. This was mainly due to profit taking and local selling. Fear that the reported action of the British Government in requisitioning all British steamship room for metals and grain would curtail the export movement gave rise during the late morning to some selling. It always met strong bull support, however, and the quotations did not waver to any great extent from first to last.

Exports for the day were 22,091 bales, making 2,063,593 so far this season, against 1,627,872 last year.*

New Orleans Cotton Market.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14—Cotton prices advanced on new high levels today, both May and July crossing the 20c. mark to the highest quotations ever registered on this exchange. There were two periods of strength, one around the opening and one around the close. At the best active months were 25 to 26 points up. The close was within a point of the high. Futures:

GRAIN MARKET.

WHEAT—The market experienced a sharp reaction yesterday and closing prices were 1¼@2½c. below Monday's final. Prices were firmer early and at one time showed gains of ⅝@1¼c. on scattered buying, due to strength abroad and reports of moderate offers from other exporting countries in the European markets. On the advance the market appeared top heavy and when selling orders came to light values declined sharply, losing 2¾@4¾c. from the top. The selling movement was due to a feeling of nervousness prevailing price levels and on account of a more general discussion of the probability of legislation in Washington against exports. Rumors of a big German defeat in eastern Europe also had considerable influence, and there was heavy liquidation on account of weakness in Winnipeg, where leading export buyers were selling freely. The export demand proved small, with sales estimated at about 400,000 bushels, practically all believed to be for the Dutch Government. Buyers for the Allies appeared to be out of the market. It was said that British millers were more concerned regarding tonnage than wheat, as they have made large contracts for forward shipment for which they are now awaiting transportation. The weather over the West was cold, but this had comparatively little influence on the market. While crop news from Argentina was bullish, prices in Buenos Aires were lower, all the markets undergoing a period of readjustment with heavy liquidation. In the local cash market No. 1 durum was quoted at $2.27¾. No. 2 hard winter, $2.04¾; No. 1 Northern, Duluth, $2.11¾; No. 1 Northern, Manitoba, $2.14¾, all f. o. b. New York.

CORN—Early strength sent values to new high levels, but the advance was not maintained owing to later peace talk and the severe break in wheat, which led to heavy unloading by commission houses, under which the list closed 2¾c. to 3¾c. net lower and bottom for the day. The country appeared willing to ship corn at these prices, but sellers are still handicapped by the car situation, although it was reported that Iowa points sold some corn early for November shipment. Bullish reports from Argentina in which locusts were said to have covered a large area in the corn zone had a strong effect upon Liverpool, which was 9d. to 1s. higher, but was not reflected at Buenos Ayres, where the opening was unchanged to ¼c. lower. No export business was reported. Cash market here easy, with No. 2 yellow quoted at $1.16¾ c. i. f. New York, ten day shipment.

OATS—Good commission house buying and the early strength in corn gave oats a higher opening and the market was later affected by export demand, which resulted in sales of about 500,000 bushels. There was little offered from the country and receipts have been running lighter than last year. With the decided break in other markets after midday oats weakened also, closing ⅛c. net lower and bottom for the day. Cash oats here are as follows: Standard, ¼c. lower, 62½@63½c.; No. 2 white, 61½@62½c.; No. 3 white, 61½@62½c.; No. 4 white, 61@61½c.; fancy clipped white, 66@67½c.; ordinary clipped white, 64@65½c., all ex-vator.

RYE—Market steady. No. 2 Western, $1.33 c. i. f. New York.

BARLEY—Market quiet. Feeding $1.05 f. o. b. New York.

BUCKWHEAT—Market quiet. Good milling, $3 per 100 lbs.

HAY—Market steady. No. 1, $1.05@1.10; No. 2, $1; No. 3, 90c.; shipping, 80c.

COFFEE MARKET.

After opening unchanged to 2 points higher the market for coffee futures turned easier yesterday, closing at a net decline of 7 to 13 points. Sales were reported of 68,250 bags, including exchanges of December for July at 3 to 4 points, March for September at 1 points and March for May at 11 points. Near months were relatively easy under scattering liquidation, while there was considerable trade selling from both local and Southern interests. The steadier tone at the start reflected a little outside buying inspired by peace rumors. No lower offers were reported in the cost and freight market, but the impression around the ring was that some Brazilian shippers would accept bids below the market. Local spot market quiet, with prices ¼ lower at 9¾c. for No. 7s and 10¼c. for Santos 4s. Range of prices:

COTTONSEED OIL—Market firm early, with more or less buying on strength in cotton and on firmness in crude. Considerable selling on the advance developed weakness, with the close 6 to 13 points net lower. Sales, 15,700 barrels. The West was credited with selling quite freely. Sentiment was influenced by more bearish talk on lard as well as by repeated assertions that consumption of cotton would be materially reduced at present levels. Undertone was steady to firm.
