McGraw's Pacemakers Record First Victory in Dozen Days---Yanks and Dodgers Lose Outfielders in Mishaps

GIANTS BEAT PHILS, GO BACK INTO LEAD

Tesreau Outpitches Lavender in Frigid Encounter —Score Is 2 to 1.

KAUFF HEROIC WITH BAT

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

After their column of victories had remained unchanged for twelve successive days the Giants yesterday nosed out the Phillies on the Polo Grounds in a frigid encounter. Again McGraw's legion moved to the top floor in the National League, displacing the Cardinals, who had occupied the apartment for only twenty-four hours. The Phils, with Jimmy Jinx Lavender pitching, were subdued by a score of 2 to 1 in one hour and forty-seven minutes. As the last two games of the Giants had run fourteen and ten rounds respectively, that was a decided relief. Gosh, it was cold!

Some of the boys managed to cheer themselves up with the fact that it was even colder at the Braves-Brooklyn game on Braves Field, Boston. It was so cold that Harry Stevens threw all restraint to the winds and served hot coffee in the press stand. The thermometer must sink to a low ebb to produce such a phenomenon.

In stopping the Phillies the Giants put over their first victory since they knocked Alexander out of the box in Philadelphia on April 25. The home victory also put a crusher on a little winning streak which the Phillies had been nurturing. It was five games long.

Tesreau Disproves Theory.

At one time there was a theory hereabout that if Jeff Tesreau could not perspire he could not pitch. If Jeff had perspired yesterday he would have been covered with icicles. Jeff certainly did pitch. His spitter was covered with frost by the time it reached the Philadelphia tossers and they smacked it back for only four hits. Better still, "Tess" could make it go just where he wished. He bestowed only one pass on the enemy and that was a sort of chivalrous complimentary to his pitching rival, Lavender.

Montezuma Jim was about as effective against the Giants as he usually is, permitting only five hits, while only twenty-seven Giants went to bat in eight rounds. Only one employee of the National Exhibition Company was left. However, Jim had nothing on Benjamin Mickey Kauff. Just about a year ago Benny prevented Lavender from pitching his second no hit game against the Giants by outrunning an infield tap. Benny hit no infield taps yesterday, but he smashed three line hits to the outfield, which were 60 per cent. of the Manhattan hits. Benny knocked in New York's first run and scored the other.

The Phillies scored a hitless run in the second inning. Dave Robertson contracted cold fingers and Cravath's high fly dropped through his outstretched digits. The California home runnist took second base on the muff. A land sacrifice by Whitted moved Cactus to third, whence he ambled home on an air sacrifice by Luderus.

Giants Win in Fourth.

In the fourth inning Stock, the former Giant, opened the inning with a clean single to centre, the first Philadelphia hit. He was sacrificed to second by Cravath, where he was left by Whitted and Luderus.

The Giants won in their half. Burns opened with a low liner to centre on which Paskert attempted a shoestring catch. The sphere hit the ground before Dode had calculated and hopped past him for a triple. Kauff whacked a double past Luderus, scoring Burns with the tying run. This was said to be Benny's first extra base hit of the year. There was a time when Benny despised singles.

Kauff meandered to third while Niehoff threw out Robertson and slipped home with the winning run while Bancroft tossed out Zimmerman. Lavender having first slowed up the ball, prevented a play at the plate.

A clever play by Tesreau and Fletcher saved off a Philly rally in the seventh and prevented extra innings or a home defeat. Cravath opened the inning by rolling a grass sizzler between Zimmerman's legs. Heinie never touched it and a spirited debate followed whether it was a hit or an error. The jury found Heinie guilty of a fielding misdemeanor.

Cooper Goes to Sleep.

Whitted, next batter, slashed a hit to right, placing Cactus on second. Deciding faster legs would be more helpful to his cause on second, Pat Moran excused Cravath for the afternoon and Lord Byron announced "Cooper was running for Philadelfee." Cooper did not run long. Tesreau made a hurried peg to Fletcher and Claudie was out.

This angered Pat Moran, especially as Luderus, the third man up, dropped a Texas League single into left which would have filled the cushions with none out. Niehoff's fly to Robertson would have scored Cooper had he not taken a snooze. Killifer was thrown out by Kilduff and the big Phil chance was lost.

Gilhooley Is Injured as Yankees Beat Athletics

Diminutive Outfielder Breaks Collar Bone Trying for Difficult Catch — Mogridge Easily Downs Falkenberg by 9 to 4 Score.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, to-day took the blanket off his new veteran recruit, Cy Falkenberg, who at the age of 37 is making his third debut in the big leagues. The human darning needle made a lot of errors, and so did his support, and despite the fact that he permitted only one earned run Falky was bruised up to the extent of 9 to 4. George Mogridge, the lean Yankee left hander who opposed him, won his third straight game of the season.

The game was rather an expensive victory for the Yankees, as they lost the services of Frank Gilhooley, the team's fast little right fielder. In the second inning Stuffy McInnis, the Athletic first baseman, rapped a low liner to deep right centre. Gilhooley made a long run for the drive and threw himself at the ball to make the catch. Gilhooley hit the ground heavily and broke his collar bone on the left side.

An examination of the injury by a local physician revealed the fact that the collar bone was fractured and Gilhooley was sent to New York on an afternoon train and will go to the St. Vincent Hospital for treatment. Gilhooley put in a long stay there last spring after he broke his right ankle, which kept him out of the lineup for the greater part of the season. To-day's accident will bench the little outfielder for a month at least.

Hendryx Improves Chance.

Tim Hendryx went to right field in Gilhooley's place and did mighty well. He made a double and a single, twice reached base on errors and scored three runs.

The Athletics were the first to score, batching a pair of runs for Falkenberg in the second inning. Strunk walked and took second on Thrasher's sacrifice. He scored on McInnis's double, the ball on which Gilhooley was hurt. Schang's single to centre brought in Stuffy.

Six Yankee runs in the third made the debut of Falkenberg rather sad. All started with two out, as Nunny breezed and Mogridge tapped to Falkenberg before the explosion occurred. Hendryx then singled and High walked, and Maisel's single filled the bases. Falky made a wild throw to get Maisel at first and Hendryx scored, High taking third. Maisel stole second and Pipp walked, filling the bases. Baker was safe when Falkenberg muffed McInnis's assist at first base, High and Maisel scoring. Miller then put the crusher on the ball game with a home run into the left field bleachers, scoring Pipp and Baker ahead of him.

High Completes Squeeze.

The Yankees got two more runs in the fourth. Nunamaker singled and was forced by Mogridge. Bates made a two base wild throw on Hendryx. Mogridge going to third. He scored on the squeeze play with High, who beat out his bunt at the same time. Hendryx took third on the play and scored when Maisel forced High.

The Athletics got these two back in their half of the fourth inning. Thrasher singled and was forced by McInnis. Bates also singled, and came home with Stuffy on Schang's triple. Philadelphia made only one hit off Mogridge after this inning, McInnis's single in the ninth.

SEATON SUDDENLY RETURNS TO FORM

Threatened With Release by Chicago, He Holds Pirates to Three Hits.

CHICAGO, May 7—(National).—Tom Seaton, whose imminent release to the minors was announced several days ago, suddenly appeared in the box for Chicago to-day and allowed Pittsburg only three scattered hits. The Cubs won by 4 to 1.

The locals bunched hits behind Grimes's wildness and took a lead in the second inning which the Pirates could not overcome. Cooper replaced Grimes and the game resolved itself into a pitching duel between Seaton and Cooper. Cooper was touched for two hits in six innings.

YANKEES RELEASE TWO.

Enright Goes to Richmond and Ferguson Heads for Utica.

The Yankees shaved down to within one of the American League limit of twenty-five players yesterday when the club announced it had released Pitcher Jack Enright to the Richmond club of the International League and Pitcher Alex Ferguson to the Utica club of the New York State League. Enright recently was sent to Toronto, but was returned.

The only Yankee now slated for release is Catcher Julian Olsen, the former Pensacola, Fla., semi-professional. He probably will be sent to a New York State League club.

McLaughlin struck out nine men and allowed only one hit. This was made in the fifth inning, in which Morris scored its tally. Scally made the longest hit of the game when he knocked the ball over the fence in the seventh inning, scoring two men. The score:

MYERS BADLY HURT; BROOKLYN BEATEN

Superbas' Centre Fielder Injures Right Shoulder; to Be Out a Month.

BRAVES TRIUMPH 7 TO 0

BOSTON, May 7.—Old Hard Luck landed squarely with both feet on the Superbas to-day. Besides being beaten by the Braves, 7 to 0, the National League champions lost the services of Centre Fielder Hy Myers for a month at least. In an endeavor to stifle a Boston rally with a shoestring catch of Konetchy's two bagger in the fifth inning Hy pitched head first to the ground, injuring his right shoulder and dislocating his collarbone.

At St. Elizabeth's Hospital an X-ray examination showed that there was no fractured, but that Myers's shoulder muscles were badly torn.

Myers to-day played a prominent part in the only rally which threatened Rudolph. With one down in the fourth inning Daubert singled through the box and Myers planted Jake on third with a double to right. When Wheat grounded to Konetchy Daubert was killed at the plate. Brooklyn's hopes went glimmering when Wheat was nipped stealing.

Rudolph Is Supreme.

With the exception of the fourth frame Rudolph held the Dodgers in the hollow of his hand. The Boston bludgeon wielders hammered Smith, and also got to his rescuer, Wheezer Dell. The Braves shelled Smith off the peak in five innings.

Red Smith launched Boston off on its first bombardment of Sherrod Smith with a single to left in the second inning. Konetchy walked. Magee singled to centre, scoring Smith, but on Myers's relay to Smith Konetchy was nailed at third. Gowdy fouled to Daubert, and Fitzpatrick forced Magee.

Twombly walked in the fourth and was sacrificed to second by Red Smith. Fabrique muffed Konetchy's high pop fly, Twombly taking third and Konetchy going to second on the error.

Fitzpatrick's Big Hit.

Magee fouled to Miller. Smith then purposely passed Gowdy to take a chance on Fitzpatrick, filling the bases. Fitzpatrick crossed Smith by cleaning up the paths with a double to right, scoring Twombly, Konetchy and Gowdy. He was left when Rudolph fanned.

Massey singled in the fifth and took second on a balk. Maranville died to Wheat. Twombly walked. Smith died to Wheat. Konetchy doubled to centre, and here Myers suffered his mishap. Massey scored, and Twombly took third on Konetchy's clout. Johnston went to centre in place of Myers. Twombly languished when Magee fouled to Miller.

Boston scored two runs on Dell in the seventh. Maranville walked and took second on Twombly's single. Red Smith hit to right, scoring Maranville. Twombly took third. He scored while Konetchy was being retired.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 7.—Although Buffalo gained a two run lead on Newark early in to-day's contest, owing to Callahan's muff of an easy fly, the Bears overcame this handicap and defeated the Bisons 4 to 3 in an eleven inning battle.

Both Tyson and Ross, who was farmed by the Yankees, were free with passes, but the latter's pitching was far the better of the two. Mowe featured at short, Haas in the field and Callahan at bat.
