GRANDSON OF CIVIL WAR GENERAL HURT

Corporal John E. Sigel Disabled—Worked in Health Department.

MARINE CAPTAIN IS HIT

James F. Rorke, Bay Ridge Doctor, Wounded as He Recovers From Gas.

Conspicuous among the wounded American soldiers recorded in yesterday's casualty lists was Corporal John E. Sigel, grandson of the famous civil war leader, General Franz Sigel. The corporal's aunt, Mrs. Anna Sigel of the Public Charities Department, Cumberland Street Hospital, Brooklyn, was the first to receive notification that the young man had been disabled.

Corporal Sigel is 25. He was drafted in September, 1917, and was sent to France with Company M, 305th Infantry, Seventy-seventh Division. He was formerly employed in the diagnosis laboratory of the Department of Health. His brother, Reginald Sigel, is a lieutenant in the 308th Field Artillery. A statue of his grandfather stands on Riverside Drive.

Capt. James F. Rorke, Fifth Regiment, Marines, was hit in the shoulder by shrapnel while leading his company into action and is now in a base hospital. He was gassed June 6 and had only been back in action a short time.

Served in Spanish War.

Captain Rorke's home is at 431 Fifty-eighth street, Brooklyn. He is a graduate of the Illinois Medical College and practised medicine in Bay Ridge. During the Spanish-American War he served with the Medical Corps of the Thirteenth Regiment which was stationed at Camp Black. Later he joined the old Twenty-third Regiment, and in 1914 he became a first lieutenant in the Second Naval Battalion. For a time he was in charge of the power plant which supplied the wireless station at Sayville.

When the United States entered the war, Capt. Rorke was sent into training at a Marine camp in Maryland. He sailed April 22. He has a wife and three children. His father is Police Lieut. J. H. Rorke, retired.

Lieut. Phipps Weed, son of Nathan H. Weed, Upper Mountain avenue, Montclair, has been wounded in action. His name was included in the casualty lists only yesterday, but his father received a letter from him recently stating that he had almost recovered from his wounds. Lieut. Weed is serving with Company B, 301th Regiment, Tank Corps. His brother, Ensign Walker Ten Eyck Weed, United States Flying Corps, lost his life at Cape May February 27 in a heroic attempt to save the life of a fellow aviator.

Gassed and Wounded.

Corporal Richard E. Lain, seriously wounded in action August 27, entered the service a year ago and sailed for France with Company F, 306th Infantry. He is 24 and lived with his mother at 194 Crown street, Brooklyn. He attended the Brooklyn College.

Sergeant Edward U. Koch, 1367 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, gassed August 22, entered the service in September, 1917, and trained at Camp Upton with Company I of the 305th Infantry. A brother, Joseph, is with an artillery regiment in France.

Corporal William Chapin, Jr., field artillery, was both gassed and wounded, according to word received by his uncle, who lives at 98 Horton street, Queens.

Dr. C. W. Hoblitzell, 81 Bowers street, Jersey City, has received word that his son, Private Charles W. Hoblitzell, Company L, 107th Infantry, has been wounded in action. Only recently another son, Corporal George W. Hoblitzell, was killed in France.

Ministry Student Killed.

Funeral services for Sergeant Erwin V. Hamilton, who died in France September 25, will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, Bordentown, N. J., as soon as the authorities remove the Spanish influenza ban against public assemblages. James V. Hamilton, father of the sergeant, was notified yesterday of his son's death. Sergeant Hamilton was 22 and had been in the army since the beginning of the Mexican trouble. He went over with the 109th Infantry. Prior to enlistment he was studying for the ministry and his engagement to Miss Catherine Sherman, Montoursville, Pa., had been announced.

Corporal Robert S. Raven, Maple avenue, Bay Shore, L. I., was killed in action September 29. He was 22, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Raven. Before entering the service he was superintendent of the mills of the Leon Ferenbach Silk Company, Wilkesbarre, Pa. He went over with the 107th Infantry (the former Seventh New York). Two brothers are in the service.

Private James L. Dooley, 106th Infantry, transferred from the Twenty-third New York, enlisted the day war was declared. He was a clerk in a Manhattan engineering office and lived with his mother, Mrs. Marie Dooley, at 125 East Tenth street, Brooklyn. An official notice from Washington yesterday said he had been wounded August 27.

Joseph Riley, formerly a jockey at Belmont Park, who made his home with the family of Charles Mutter in Hempstead road, Queens Village, died on September 19 in France as the result of an accident while serving with the Seventy-seventh Division. He had no relatives in Queens and the official notice came yesterday to the Mutter family.

SIX BILLION ARMY BILL READY

Senate and House Conferees Agree Upon Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Agreement was reached to-day by Senate and House conferees on the six billion dollar military appropriation bill passed yesterday by the Senate and last week by the House. The conference report will be submitted to the House to-morrow and to the Senate Monday.

The provision in the House draft giving the Secretary of War the authority to acquire land for the construction of hospitals, eliminated by the Senate, was compromised to give the Secretary power to construct hospitals, but not the authority to condemn land. Appropriations for the purchase of land for rifle ranges at Fayetteville, N. C., and near Louisville, Ky., eliminated by the Senate, were not reinserted.

MINERS DENIED MORE PAY.

Garfield Holds Bituminous Diggers Are Sufficiently Paid.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Fuel Administrator Garfield refused to-day to grant bituminous coal miners an increase of wages sought in connection with the plan for stabilization of wages worked out for the anthracite miners.

He held that the bituminous situation did not require wage increases.

BROOKLYN SOLDIER GETS VALOR CROSS

Corp. R. S. Storrie, Though Wounded, Led Men Against Machine Gun Nests.

PRIVATE ALSO HONORED

Alfred Shimonoski Was One of Five Who Killed 22 Germans and Captured 40.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Commander in Chief, in the name of the President, has awarded the Distinguished Service Cross to the following officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after their names:—

Lieut. THEODORE E. BOYD, Seventh Field Artillery, observer attached to the Eighty-eighth Aero Squadron.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Conflans, France, September 14, 1918. This officer, being detailed for the protection of a photographic mission, with five other planes, proceeded on his mission when three of the escorting planes failed to join the formation. While flying near Conflans the formation engaged in combat with five enemy pursuit planes. Wounded in both legs, the left foot and the right elbow, he displayed exceptional tenacity and courage by continuing to fire his gun until the enemy was put to flight. Home address: G. Boyd, Ashland City, Tenn.

Corporal ROBERT S. STORRIE, Company E, 325th Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Eply, France, September 4, 1918. Under heavy fire from machine guns and although seriously wounded, he continued to advance within the enemy's lines. By word of encouragement he urged his men to follow. By his brave leadership an enemy outpost defended by two machine guns and six riflemen was captured. Home address: Mrs. Eileen Storrie, wife, 47 India street, Brooklyn.

Corporal FRANK SADKOWSKI, Company E, 325th Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Eply, France, September 4, 1918. Under heavy fire from machine guns and although seriously wounded he continued to advance within the enemy's lines. By words of encouragement he urged his men to follow. By his brave learership an epemy outpost defended by two machine guns and six riflemen was captured. Home address: Mrs. Helen Conoski, sister, 206 Florence avenue, Keyport, N. J.

Sergeant HARRY J. ADAMS, Company K, 353d Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action at Bouillonville, France, September 12 and 13, 1918. Sergeant Adams followed a retreating German into a house in the town of Bouillonville and ascertaining that the enemy had entered a dugout fired the remaining two shots in his pistol through the door and ordered the surrender of the occupants. By his bravery, coolness and confidence he captured single handed approximately 130 prisoners, including seven officers. Home address: Miss Mayme Hunter, friend, 1831 Crytania street, New Orleans.

Private MILTON C. SUNDIN, Company L, 353d Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action in the St. Mihiel salient, France, September 12-13, 1918. Private Sundin, while advancing through wooded territory with four other men, was surprised by the fire of six machine guns. Though two of the party were wounded, Private Sundin, with great daring, worked around the flank of the position and succeeded in routing the enemy machine gunners in time to permit the advance without casualties of two pieces operating near by. Home address: Charles Sundin, father, 461 Delaware street, Denver.

Sergeant JEROME BUSCHMAN, Company G, 9th Infantry, home address Martin J. Buschman, brother, Saint Charles, Mo.; Private WALTZLAW VINIARSKI, Company G, 9th Infantry, home address Joseph Viniarski, brother, 167 Main street, Glendon, Pa.; Private ALFRED SHIMONOSKI, Company G, 9th Infantry, home address Mrs. Sophie Shimonoski, wife, Coolidge street, Brooklyn; Private JOHN ROCKWELL, Company G, 9th Infantry, home address Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwell, mother, R. Y.—For extraordinary heroism in action south of Soissons, France, July 18, 1918. They conspicuously distinguished themselves by attacking a party of more than sixty Germans and in an intense and desperate hand to hand fight succeeded in killing twenty-two men and capturing forty men and five machine guns.

First Lieut. CHARLES RAYMOND BLAKE, Aviation Section, Signal Corps.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Lassigny, France, August 9, 1918. Lieut. Blake, with Second Lieut. Karle W. Porter, observer, while on a reconnaissance expedition at a low altitude far beyond the enemy lines was attacked by five German battle planes. His observer was wounded at the beginning of the combat, but the machine of his plane so skilfully that the observer was able to shoot down one of their adversaries. By more skilful manoeuvring he enabled his observer to fight off the remaining planes and return safely to friendly territory. Home address: Mrs. Eileen W. Blake, grandmother, 17 Zower street, Westerly, R. I.

Second Lieut. DOGAN B. ARTHUR, pilot, U. S. A. S., Twelfth Aero Squadron.—For extraordinary heroism in action in the St. Mihiel salient, September 12, 1918. Lieut. Fleeson and Second Lieut. Dogan H. Arthur, pilot, executed a difficult mission of infantry contact patrol without protection of accompanying battle planes. On the first day of the St. Mihiel offensive. After being driven back twice by a patrol of nine enemy planes, they courageously made a third attempt in the face of a third attack by the same planes, found the American lines, and after being shot down, but falling uninjured in friendly territory, communicated their valuable information to headquarters. Home address: William H. Fleeson, brother, Sterling,
