REALTY MARKET NEWS AND COMMENT

New Residences to Replace Old Homes on East 69th Street.

APARTMENT HOUSE SOLD

Jewellers Lease Floor in Winfield Building for $300,000.

William B. May & Co. sold the two twenty-five foot residences, 42 and 44 East Sixty-ninth street, between Park and Madison avenues, making a plot of fifty feet, for Mrs. N. H. Herzberg and Mrs. S. H. Abrahamson, the heirs of the Lidington estate.

The purchaser intends to erect a twenty-eight foot English basement residence, which he will occupy, reserving the remaining twenty-two feet for another fine residence. The houses were held at $200,000, and they are reported to have been sold close to this figure. The attorney for the purchaser is Henry L. Moses.

The block is considered to be one of the most attractive on the East Side and contains the homes of many prominent men who have recently built, including Commodore Arthur Curtiss James, Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Co., Otto F. Dommerich, Carl D. Jackson, Charles Lane Poor and Henry Sloane.

DEAL ON WEST 178TH STREET.

The Golden Rod, a six story elevator apartment house accommodating thirty-five families, located on a plot 75x100 at 568 West 178th street, was sold by W. P. Schroeder of Jersey City, N. J., to the Levitan Corporation of New York city. The property is situated between Audubon and Amsterdam avenues, rents for $15,000 and was held at $115,000. Burton Thompson & Co. were the brokers. The transaction was for cash.

FIFTH AVENUE LEASE.

Edward J. Hogan leased for the F. W. Woolworth Company the entire second floor of the Winfield Building, Fifth avenue, northeast corner of Fortieth street to the United Jewelers, Inc., represented by Julius Fogg, for a term of ten years at a total rental of approximately $300,000. The Winfield Building was completed last August and is now entirely occupied, the ground floor being used by the F. W. Woolworth Company for their Fifth avenue store.

OTHER SALES IN MANHATTAN.

EAST HOUSTON STREET—Isidore Teitelbaum bought the five story tenement, 25x68, 470 East Houston street, from a client of David Lion.

WEST 116TH STREET—The new operating firm of Foote & Martin, Inc., bought from Clara Nulle the triple apartment, 50x100x irregular, at 870 West 116th street, renting for about $7,000 and held at $51,000. Duncan White, Jr., of the firm of James Boyd negotiated the sale.

OTHER SALES IN THE BRONX.

BOSCOBEL AVENUE—Nason Realty Company (Max N. Natanson) sold to an investing client of Byrne & Bowman, for improvement in the near future, six lots on the northerly side of Boscobel avenue, running through to Shakespeare avenue, adjoining the six story apartment house at the junction of Shakespeare and Boscobel avenues, also owned by the Nason Realty Company. The property was held at $35,000 and was sold for cash.

COLLEGE AVENUE—Cahn & Pittman sold to Louis Brill for investment two four story apartments arranged for seven families, 50x75, at 483 and 485 College avenue. The sellers recently acquired this property from Lena Ohlsen.

CLAY AVENUE—Samuel D. Mooney, president of a new corporation formed to build new law tenements, bought 116, Clay avenue, a five story apartment, 61x95, fully rented at $9,000 and held at $61,000. Charles Berlin negotiated the sale.

EAST 142D STREET—Isear Realty Corporation bought from Charles S. Levy 692 East 142d street, a six story apartment house, 50x100.

RESIDENTIAL LEASES.

Douglas L. Elliman & Co. leased for Frase & Elliman a large duplex apartment at 925 Park avenue to Dr. Graham Lusk; an apartment in 68 East Eighty-sixth street for W. E. Roosevelt & Son to H. T. Maynard, Jr.; in 122 East Eighty-second street for Capt. David Dows to Lieut. Harry Martin; at 129 East Eighty-second street a furnished apartment for Mrs. Sidney Prager to Dr. George F. Cahill, and at 3 East Forty-fifth street a furnished apartment for Capt. A. V. Kimberley to Harold and Rudolph Walton.

The Houghton Company sold, and transferred the lease of the five story dwelling, 326 West End avenue for Morris Mizel to James Colbourne.

OUT OF TOWN TRANSACTIONS.

Howell C. Perrin sold for John Neilson a water front property containing one and one-third acres on Larchmont Harbor, corner of Ocean and Bay avenues, adjoining the handsome home of the late William E. Hemis, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company. Besides the upland, which is improved with a substantial stone sea wall and dock with stone parapet, there are several acres of riparian rights.

This tract is the last piece of vacant waterfront in Larchmont Manor. The estate of Charles H. Murray, which owned it for many years once refused an offer of $100,000.

A five year lease aggregating $12,500 in rental was closed this week for the corner store in the Victor Hugo apartment building at Post street and South Broadway, Yonkers, N. Y. The lease was negotiated by the Yonkers Realty Exchange for The Gerberoux Company, grocers, and Patterson Bros., retail dealers in confectionery and ice cream.

Louis Schlesinger, Inc., sold for John J. Cullerne of Harrison, N. J., the plot 251 and 261 Plane street, southwest corner of Augusta street, running through to Arlington street, to James and Harry Rosowitz, manufacturers and wholesale dealers in candles, who will immediately begin the erection of a brick building from plans prepared by M. J. Nolan, architect.

Ladd & Nichols sold 300 feet on the ocean boulevard at Palm Beach to Mrs. Grant H. Perkins of Rochester, N. Y. Improvements costing $65,000 are being made on the property.

Platt & Feist, Inc., rented the upper part of 60 and 64 Shipman street, Newark, to the S. & N. Waist Company of Manhattan; also the upper part of 187 Market street to the Hong Kong Investment Company, which operates a chain of restaurants and will remodel the building at a cost of about $40,000.

REAL ESTATE JOTTINGS.

Shaw & Co. were appointed agents of 251 East 156th street and 826 Hunts Point avenue.

The New York Building Managers' Association will hold its monthly dinner for men at the Park Avenue Hotel next Tuesday evening. Robert Grier Cooke of the Fifth Avenue Association, will make an address on organization.
