HURLEY BACK, FAITH STRONG IN U. S. SHIPS

Chairman Says He's Profited Much From Visit to Europe.

WAGE QUESTION SIMPLE

More Than 600,000 Tons of German Vessels Soon to Be Available, He Asserts.

Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the United States Shipping Board, who left in November with Herbert Hoover to study the shipping situation as it related to the transportation of food to Europe and bringing back American soldiers returned last evening by the transport Leviathan, very optimistic about the future of American shipping.

He said the Shipping Board would soon get down to a definite, business-like basis and that the American mercantile marine would profit by his experience, as he had learned much, from an international viewpoint of shipping.

He said he did not consider the question of wages a serious matter. The wages of the seamen of Great Britain, Holland and some of the Scandinavian countries were almost on a similar basis.

"From information now at hand," Mr. Hurley said, "the total available German passenger tonnage for carrying American troops is more than 600,000 gross tons. This estimate does not include the Bismarck, latest of the great Hamburg-American ships, of about 50,000 tons gross, nearing completion, nor the Imperator, sister ship of the Leviathan. The Imperator cannot be delivered for several months.

"Also excluded from this total of 600,000 are incompleted or unavailable giant vessels, such as the Tirpitz and the Columbus, concerning which no reports have been received.

Engineers Get Figures.

"The estimate is based upon listed tonnage and information obtained from German delegates and from a commission of American engineers now at Bremen, and who since February 1 have been making a survey of German steamships in German ports. The United States share of this tonnage should give the United States an additional troop carrying capacity of more than 60,000 men a month.

"A number of the German ships are ready to put to sea at once. It is planned that these shall be manned temporarily by German officers and crews and shall proceed immediately to British or French ports under the direction of the Naval Armistice Commission.

Upon arrival at the ports German officers and crews will be repatriated and the ships turned over to our navy. The Navy Department, in anticipation of these new demands, has assembled a large number of officers and men who are ready to take charge of all German ships that may be delivered.

"A large part of the German tonnage will be ready for sea within the first five weeks from to-morrow, and the rest will be delivered at later varying dates. The question of making alterations with a view to increasing carrying capacity will be considered after the arrival of the ships.

"The ships will fly the American flag. Some of them are in Spain, some in Argentina and others in the Dutch East Indies and other neutral ports. These ships will be delivered in neutral ports to the allied Governments interested."

Mr. Hurley said the American merchant marine had advanced to a position that would inspire the admiration of the American people. We have 2,072 vessels of 6,470,396 gross tonnage against 1,329,- vessels of 6,364,926 gross tons of foreign shipping trading with the United States.

BROADWAY PRICES CHARGED AT CAMP

Acker, Merrall & Condit Manager Gets $22,318 Bonus by Jury Award.

The high cost of living for soldiers at Camp Upton who ate in the restaurant conducted there by Acker, Merrall & Condit, New York city grocers, was accounted for in testimony given before Justice Callaghan in the Supreme Court at Riverhead, L. I., yesterday by John P. McDonald of 225 West End avenue, formerly manager of the establishment. McDonald, who sued to recover $22,318.75, alleged to be due him as a bonus, swore that he had been instructed to make at least 100 per cent. profit on all sales. The jury awarded the full amount asked by him.

According to McDonald's testimony, soldiers and their relatives who ate at the hotel restaurant paid 50 cents for pies which cost 22 cents. Soda water costing 2 cents a bottle sold for 10 cents, he said. Oatmeal costing 60 cents a pan brought $2.50, and prunes which cost the hotel management 60 cents a pan were served at 10 cents a portion, or $2.50 a pan. There was an excellent profit, so Manager McDonald testified, on pancakes which cost 17 cents a pound and sold for $1.50. The most profitable business was done in coffee costing 17 cents a pound, which was sold by the cup, according to his testimony, so that it yielded a return of $6 a pound.

Testimony was offered by Acker, Merrall & Condit to substantiate their claim that they made no profit at the restaurant. They asserted that they entered into a contract with the Government whereby the latter was to fix the price and was to collect 50 per cent. of the profits. They amounted to but $485 from September, 1917, to September 1 last, the time McDonald was manager, it was testified. McDonald swore that the Government had directed that "standard New York city prices" be charged. He said that the receipts at the hotel were $466,374.97 during the time he was manager. An average of 3,000 meals were served daily, he testified, with a high record of 18,000 in one day.

McDonald told the jury he had been hired by Lucius M. Boomer, a New York hotel man, for $150 a month and a bonus, which, in the hotel business, he declared, meant 5 per cent. of the gross receipts. Boomer testified that he invested $50,000 in the hotel and that he received his money back and between $20,000 and $25,000 besides.

The court instructed the jury to return a verdict for McDonald for the entire amount asked for or to award him nothing. After deliberating for three hours the jurymen decided in his favor.

Vassar Bans Bolshevik Leader.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 10.—Vassar College authorities prevented the appearance of Albert R. Williams, mentioned before the Senate committee on propaganda as a Bolshevik leader, as a lecturer before the Socialist Club of the college last night. He was to have talked upon Russian Bolshevism, but the invitation was withdrawn by demand of the faculty, which is opposed to propaganda being planted among the students.

WILLIAMS CHARGED WITH TERRORISM

Bill to Abolish Comptroller's Office Taken Up.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Hearings before the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency on the Weeks bill to abolish the office of Comptroller of the Currency were begun to-day. Wade Cooper, president of the Union Savings Bank of Washington, appeared as a witness to oppose Mr. Williams holding office for a new five year term. The committee had voted that the hearings should be public, but on the suggestion of Senator McLean (Conn.), a Republican, the committee reconsidered its action and voted 5 to 4 for a secret session. The vote was on strictly party lines, the Republicans having by accident a majority of the committee present.

Senator Hollis (N. H.), urged open sessions. He demanded that objectors to the reconfirmation of Mr. Williams come out in the open as to statements of his unfitness, but the committee held that the assertions so frequently made anonymously that the interested bankers fear reprisal from the powerful office of the Comptroller warranted at least the preliminary examination of Mr. Cooper being conducted in secret although Comptroller Williams himself was permitted to be present.

"Mr. Williams will not make reprisals against any banks," Senator Hollis insisted, but the committee refused to reconsider its vote and the secret session began.

"If Mr. Williams is being misrepresented we can soon find it out," said Senator McLean, and Senator Gronna (N. D.), Republican, took the same view.

Mr. Cooper gave his testimony, he said, against the advice of counsel for his bank. He told the committee that Mr. Williams applied a policy of terrorism to bankers throughout the United States which kept them regardless of their desires for a change in the office of Comptroller from testifying before the committee of making public the reasons for their opposition.

CUT PRICE CONCERN LOST MILK SUPPLY

Strum Brothers Testify Against Sheffield Farms Company at Inquiry.

Strum Brothers, Herman and Solomon, dealers in dairy products at 212 East 102d street, testified yesterday at the John Doe milk inquiry before Chief City Magistrate McAdoo that because they insisted on charging 10 cents instead of 12 cents a bottle for a fermented milk prepared for the Sheffield Farms Company the company quit serving them with that particular product.

Solomon Strum swore his firm bought fermented milk from Sheffield Farms for 8 cents a bottle. On Friday last, he said, a dark man, 6 feet tall, with a lean, long face, entered his store and purchased a bottle for 10 cents.

"He later said he was from Sheffield Farms," the witness continued, "and told me we would have to charge 12 cents for the milk or we would spoil the other stores. 'If you don't,' he said, 'you won't get any more.' On the following day the Sheffield driver left us a dozen bottles, but we didn't get any on Sunday, and haven't had any since."

Herman Strum, who preceded his brother, told of the cutting off of the supply of fermented milk, and added: "I'd be a millionaire if I sold milk at their prices. When they sell it at 12 cents, they must be making 75 per cent. profit."

The witness identified a letter written by Strum Brothers to District Attorney Swan telling what happened when his firm refused to take a profit of 50 per cent. on the Sheffield product.

John T. Dooling, Assistant District Attorney, wound up the day's session by recalling Raymond Smith, the Federal investigator, who made accusations of bribery last week against an official in the State Department of Agriculture. Smith charged that chemists of the Department are permitted to accept retainers from the Standard Oil and other companies. He alleged that one Miller, a State chemist, appeared for a Buffalo concern on a "vinegar complaint" pressed by the State Department with E. J. Wheeler, another State chemist, as chief witness for the prosecution. He said the defendant company won, whereupon Merton E. Lewis, then Attorney-General, filed charges with the Governor against Wheeler for making an incomplete case and nothing happened except that Dr. Porter promoted Wheeler to be chief chemist of the Department.

The inquiry will be resumed at 11 a. m. to-morrow.

NEWBERRY INQUIRY GOES ON.

U. S. Agents Still Delving in Michigan, Senate Is Told.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Charges of irregular practices in connection with the election of Truman H. Newberry as United States Senator in Michigan still are under investigation by Department of Justice agents in that State.

This statement was authorized at the Department to-day as a result of the introduction in the Senate of a resolution by Senator Townsend (Mich.), inquiring of Attorney-General Gregory whether secret agents were at work.

The Townsend resolution was adopted without opposition. It sets forth that since last August more than twenty-five agents of the Department of Justice have been engaged in "unlawful and unwarranted practices" in Michigan.

RAIL TRAFFIC DROPS TO COST MANY JOBS

Regional Directors Plan Reduction of Employees.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Railroad traffic has fallen to such an extent that cutting down the number of employees needed to operate the roads is to be undertaken on a national scale. Surveys have been going on quietly for some time under supervision of regional directors to find out exactly how many employees are needed to operate the roads in view of changed conditions, it was said at the Railroad Administration to-day.

On the face of returns recorded the forces in the shops and the crews on the trains as well as other employees will be reduced or the amount of work allotted each reduced.

French Mission in Australia.

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 11.—Gen. Paul Gerald Pau, head of the French mission to Australia, arrived here to-day with his associates. The mission is returning to France, sailing from here to Vancouver, B. C. Members said the visit to Australia had resulted in establishing closer diplomatic and commercial relations between France and Australia.

Salonica Is Loyal to Greece.

SALONICA, Feb. 11.—The newspapers here protest against the report that Salonica is to be placed under international rule. They say that Salonica asks to be united with Greece.

DEADLOCK BROKEN IN JERSEY HOUSE

A. N. Pierson, Republican, Chosen Speaker by Drawing of Lots.

TRENTON, Feb. 10.—The deadlock between the thirty Republicans and thirty Democrats in the House of Assembly was broken early to-day by the election of Arthur N. Pierson, Republican, of Union county as Speaker. After a tug of war lasting over four weeks both sides agreed to settle the question by drawing lots, and the luck was with the Republicans. The names of Mr. Pierson and the Democratic candidate, James J. McAteer of Hudson county were written on pieces of paper, which were placed in a hat. Sergeant John Wade, stationed at Camp Dix, drew the slip bearing Mr. Pierson's name, and Mr. McAteer was the first man to congratulate his opponent.

The offer to settle the squabble came from the Democrats.

The various clerkships and minor offices were divided, so that the salaries were equally shared by each party. Edward J. Handley of Essex was chosen clerk. Each party has control of sixteen committees.

A resolution for the ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment was introduced in the Senate by Senator Harold B. Wells of Burlington. A public hearing will be held soon. It is believed the Senate will vote to ratify, but the resolution probably will be defeated in the House.

Senator Edward I. Edwards of Hudson introduced a bill providing for the abolition of a plan for a direct State tax to pay for the proposed vehicular tunnel between New Jersey and New York and for a bridge over the Delaware River to connect Camden and Philadelphia, and the meeting of the expenses by a serial bond issue.

Appointments by Gov. Edge included the following:

Court of Errors and Appeals—Henry E. Ackerson, Monmouth (Dem.) to succeed Henry S. Terhune, and Ernest J. Heppenheimer (Dem.) reappointed.

District Court Judge, Jersey City—Charles L. Carrick (Dem.) reappointed.

New Jersey Bridge and Tunnel Commission—Richard T. Collings of Collingswood, reappointed, and Theodore Boettger, Bergen county, to succeed Franklin Murphy.

State Board of Charities and Corrections—Dwight W. Morrow, Englewood, reappointed.

State Board of Fisheries—Walter Kudlich, West Hoboken, reappointed.

Board of Public Utility Commissioners—Harry L. Knight, Burlington, and Andrew Gaul, Bergen.

CALLS FOR FACTS ON MEXICO.

Senator Lewis Acts to Safeguard Rights of Americans.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The Mexican situation will be investigated by the Committee on Foreign Relations should a resolution introduced to-day by Senator Lewis (Ill.) be adopted. This introduction followed a conference between acting Secretary of State Polk and Senator Lewis, which fact aroused interest in the Senate.

The Lewis resolution, after reciting occasions for getting down to facts of Carranza's interferences with the rights of aliens in Mexico, says:

"Resolved, That the Committee of the Senate on Foreign Relations ascertain through the Department of State and such other sources as it deem advisable the truth of the said charges, and if true recommend to the Senate such course as would be appropriate for the United States Government to take that will make secure in Mexico under the present Government the lives and property of Americans."

REAR ADMIRALS ARE SHIFTED.

Hughes, Helm and Williams Receive Assignments.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Rear Admiral Charles F. Hughes was detailed to-day as commandant of the Fourth Naval district, and was ordered to take charge of the Philadelphia navy yard. He relieves Rear Admiral James M. Helm, who reports to Secretary Daniels for special duty in Washington.

Rear Admiral Clarence S. Williams, commanding Division One of the Pacific fleet, also was ordered to Washington.

Robbers of Americans Caught.

VICHY, France, Feb. 11.—The police have discovered the headquarters of a gang which has been robbing Americans in this region. Four have been arrested and the police are looking for others.
