CURB PRICES MOVE WITH IRREGULARITY

Trading More Active and Firm Undertone Evidenced as Session Advances.

INDUSTRIALS SHOW GAINS

Attention Centres on Marines and Stocks Lately Put on Market.

Trading became yesterday more active as the session in curb stocks progressed, and while prices moved in an irregular manner a firm undertone was in evidence. Large advances were recorded in several of the more prominent industrial issues. Shipping shares and some stocks which were introduced to the market received the most attention. Camp Shipbuilding after opening at a new high record lost all its improvement, while American Shipping and Commerce rallied after weakness around midday.

There were initial sales in Delatour Beverage and India Packing, both of which enjoyed an active market on the first day's trading and advanced several points from their introductory prices.

Standard Oil shares were moderately active in the late trading. Standard Oil of New Jersey common lost several points, while that company's preferred stocks and rights held firm. Standard Oil of California rallied after early weakness, and there was a good demand for Ohio Oil, which gained a few points.

Independent oil shares were dull generally; little interest was shown in their price movements. Sinclair issues closed slightly lower, while there was a good demand for Simms Petroleum at the close. Home Oil also was higher, and Invincible Oil closed with a fractional advance.

Mining shares were less active, with most interest in the Divide issues, among which Divide Extension was the most active. Grand Pacific Copper displayed renewed activity. It was announced that a new surface plant had been placed in operation.

Bonds were quiet.
