WILL AND BAUMER ISSUES.

Bankers Sell $1,000,000 Preferred and 100,000 Shares Common.

Issue of $1,000,000 of 8 per cent. preferred stock and 100,000 shares of common stock of the Will and Baumer Candle Company, Inc., have been sold privately by Hornblower & Weeks, according to announcement made yesterday. Subscriptions to the common stock issue were heavily oversubscribed, it was announced, and are subject to allotment.

The company succeeds the Will and Baumer Company, which since 1855 has been the largest manufacturer of stearic acid and paraffin products, beeswax and tallow candles in the world. It manufactures and sells candles and lamp accessories and derives substantial income from the sale of glycerine, red oil and animal tar as by-products of its tallow operations. It has a production in excess of 150,000,000 candles a year and distributes its products through the largest distributors, department stores, grocers, etc., for domestic and export trade.
