LOCAL MENTION.

The boom is here. Everybody is busy. Listen for the whistle. Fine shower Tuesday night. Stoves at bottom prices at Rees'. Didn't we have a good celebration? Door and window screens at Conklin Bros. Oats are beginning to head in some fields. Beebe sells Centerville flour at Swan Lake. Applications for store rooms are numerous. Fresh oranges and lemons at Pioneer Drug Store. Don't forget to call at Rees' for nails at Parker prices. Don't forget to call on Rees when you want ammunition. Two improved farms for sale. Enquire at this office. The best mixed paints in the market at bottom prices at Rees'. When you are bilious use St. Patrick's Pills. Sold by E. Branch. Try those new brands of cigars and fancy tobaccos, at Pioneer drug store. Pattee Tongueless Cultivators for $20.45, at J. Allen, Swan Lake or Hurley. Just arrived—a carload of Reddy oil stoves at Vinton & Lovin's Cash Hardware. Before the cyclone strikes you get a tornado policy of W. H. Conklin, Hurley, D. T.

The party who lost a shawl in Hurley on the 4th, will find it at Rees' hardware store. Ice delivered in Hurley at one dollar per hundred pounds. Leave orders at Pioneer Drug Store. Many fields of corn in this section are in a better condition than they were at this date last year. Small grain never looked better in any section than it now does in that tributary to Hurley. Mr. Jas. Hogan was in town this week, looking for a business lot on which to erect a block. Furst & Bradley fourteen-inch steel beam stirring plows, $17.00, at J. Allen, Hurley or Swan Lake. Norwegian steel-beam sowing plows, with rolling coupler, &c., $48.00, at J. Allen, Hurley or Swan Lake. Buy one of those Reddy oil stoves at Vinton & Lovin's. You will save double its price in fuel this summer. There is liable to be a few good business lots in the market this fall, unless all building contracts are complied with. Fifty thousand dollars to loan on improved farms in Turner county (no commission) by Citizens Bank, Parker, Dakota. If you cannot afford a good picket fence, don't have your garden destroyed when you can buy barb wire so cheap at Vinton & Lovin.

H. B. Vinton has just received from Dudley & Richey, of Yankton, a handsome arctic refrigerator, an article necessary in every household. The "Abbott" buggies and spring wagons still take the lead. Call at J. Allen's, examine sample and leave your order. Terms very liberal. Arriving daily—new invoices of hard ware of every description, both heavy and shelf hardware cheaper than you can steal them, at Vinton & Lovin's. M. H. H. Deyo has our thanks for a box of nice strawberries from his farm near town. They were excellent fruit, and the kindness of the giver is appreciated by the Herald's force. Mr. George Montgomery has purchased of Mr. Wood his building on Washington street, north of Center avenue, and we understand that it is to be converted into a harness shop. In about three or four weeks I expect to be located in my new store at Hurley, and have as large and well assorted a stock of goods as can be found in Turner county. In the mean time I shall endeavor to supply all who call from my warehouse around the corner, Jos. Allen.

Try that cider on ice, and lemonade as cold as ice will make it, at the Pioneer drug Store.

On Saturday last a prize package was placed upon the editorial desk in the Herald sanctum. The package was found to contain a generous supply of nice fresh strawberries, from the Fountain Farm of S. Frye Andrews. Come again, Mr. A., our box is empty. The committee appointed to select grounds for cemetery purposes met last Saturday and made an examination of several locations. A sub-committee of two, consisting of Messrs. Near and Fairchild, were appointed to ascertain prices, etc. Another meeting will be held soon. Mr. Thos. Murphy, of Turner, will next week commence a store building on his lot, corner of Center avenue and Washington street. He will erect a temporary building on the south end of his lot, to be occupied as a store while his two-story building is being erected. Mr. Penny will have charge of the work. M. M. Flickenger, a Linn Co. farmer says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for the past seven years. There is no medicine in the world I think more of than this. It has saved me many doctor bills. I would not think of being without it. Sold by E. Branch. Mr. G. J. Okken, living in section one, of township ninety-three, range fifty-two, claims to have the finest farm and garden in Turner county. Mr. Okken is a hard worker and takes pride in having the best of everything and keeping it in good order, two very essential points in the proper management of a farm. Information has been received that some of the members of the railroad party which passed through here Monday, engaged in a fight among themselves at Mitchell, which resulted in the death of one of the number, life being kicked out of him. The perpetrators of the crime should pay the penalty provided by law for their brutal and cowardly deed. Eternal Vigilance is the price of life, as well as of liberty. People who have kept it at hand for use in case of emergency, as thousands of families do, say that in many instances Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has saved life before a physician could have been summoned or medicine procured. No family can afford to do without it during the summer months. Sold by E. Branch. In a recent gale off the west coast of New Zealand, there were on deck many passengers; all was excitement, some on their knees and some clinging to their friends. Yet there was one who seemed calm, peaceful and happy; not a ripple of trouble or anxiety seemed to disturb the sweet face with the pleasant smile. He was asked what it meant and why he was not concerned in regard to their safety. He calmly replied: "I know this ship and I know how she is built. Every spike, every bolt, every particle of iron there is in her was brought of Vinton & Lovin's." There was great joy on board the vessel at this announcement. The next three months will witness a boom in Hurley that will cause the old-time boomers to open their eyes with wonder, and they will wish they had "caught on" sooner. "Where did you get the lumber to put up all the buildings you have here?" was the remark made by an eastern man recently. It is a matter of surprise to all that the town has made so much progress in advance of the railroad.

PERSONAL.
Superintendent Albert favored us with a call Monday. Mr. Cutter, of Harvard, Ill., was visiting in Hurley this week. Mr. T. S. Fessenden, of Spring Valley, was transacting business in town Monday. Miss May Zaver, of Spring Valley, favored the Herald with pleasant call on the 4th. Mr. A. B. Clampt and wife were in town Monday, and will soon become permanent residents of Hurley. Mrs. D. B. Mead is at present sojourning in Parker, with her son, O. B. Allen, and will go east on a visit before returning to Hurley. Mr. Smith, of Amesville, Iowa, spent the 4th in Hurley, visiting with friends, and expressed himself as greatly pleased with the town and its people. Mr. Morrill, of the firm of Morrill & Packard, merchants at Havard, Ia., arrived this afternoon, looking for a building in which to engage in business. Mr. Louis Howell and wife, of Ralph, Pocahontas county, Iowa, are visiting with Mrs. Howell's sister, Mrs. James Stout. Mr. Howell expresses himself as well pleased and very agreeably surprised at this section of the territory. He stated, however, that he was disappointed in Hurley, as before reaching here (he came over the Milwaukee road) he was told that the town was located in a swamp.

GRAND DISCOVERY IN TURNER COUNTY.
On the northeast quarter of section 27, township 95, range 53, have been discovered fields of prosperity with out-stretched hands; articles of more value than gold; articles that will make you happy and cause your wife to smile a smile that was never smole before. So take all the stock in the discovery you can while the chances are open. For further particulars enquire of Vinton & Lovin, the bon-ton hardware house of Dakota. When you come to Hurley be sure and call at this office and subscribe for the Herald. Terms, one dollar and fifty cents per year, in advance.

OUR NATAL DAY.

Hurley's First Celebration.

A Large Crowd and Universal Satisfaction.

Wednesday morning opened cloudy, occasional showers threatening for a time to interfere seriously with our hastily prepared celebration. But notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, gunner Clark and a corps of able assistants aroused the people for many miles around at an early hour with the thunder of the battery, which had been planted just east of the public park. Cheer after cheer rent the air as the stars and stripes were thrown to the breeze for the first time in Hurley, and proudly the emblem of liberty waved over the heads of the multitude from its position over the street between the Herald office and Allen's block. The threatening weather continued, but teams were constantly arriving from every direction and the crowd increased in numbers, until the large tent which had been erected on the park was filled with people from all sections of the county. The firing of cannon and the inspiring strains of martial music recalled to the veteran's mind the memory of scenes which transpired twenty years before on the battle-field of Gettysburg, where brother was arrayed against brother in cruel, bloody warfare. At noon the people gathered in family and social groups, spread their cloths, opened their baskets, and with joyful hearts entered upon that task which ever becomes the pleasant duty of participants in picnic festivities; and a happy and contented gathering it was. Hardly had the dinner hour passed, when, from the eastern part of the town there filed into, and through Center avenue to the park, a procession as grotesque and varied in its make-up as Barnum could produce in his "Congress of Nations." The boys all did well and caused much merriment among the audience, the children especially enjoying this portion of the day's amusements. Soon after the retreat of the "fantasies" the audience were called to order by Jos. Allen, president of the day, and the exercises were commenced with prayer by REV. J. B. CURRIE, S. of Parker. REV. T. H. JUSON delivered the address of welcome in a very neat and appropriate manner, which was responded to in behalf of the visitors by REV. L. M. NEWELL, of Parker. The Declaration of Independence was read by MISS JESSIE COBBINGTON, which duty was performed in a manner that justly entitled her to the words of praise which she received from all present. The "Dakota Declaration" was then read by REV. M. S. ROBINSON, which, with the other acts of the Huron convention, was endorsed by three hearty cheers from the audience. The orator of the day, Rev. Dr. Stone, being detained at home by sickness, REV. J. P. COFFMAN was called upon, and although unprepared for anything of the kind delivered an address which, as it deserved, received the highest praise from all who heard it. DR. J. MARTIN upon being called to the platform in behalf of the veterans, delivered a short but stirring address, touching upon the memorable event in which a number of those present participated on the 4th day of July, 1863—an event which will live in history—where thousands of brave men laid down their lives, that the union might live. MR. D. P. WARD, of Sioux Falls, Sunday school missionary for Dakota, upon being called to the platform favored the audience with a song and a few brief remarks. REV. S. D. OLSEN then occupied a few moments. After a vote of thanks from the visitors to the citizens of Hurley, MR. JOS. ALLEN made a few well-timed remarks in behalf of our citizens, and then dismissed the assemblage. The exercises were interspersed with singing and martial music, rendered in a very creditable manner. The citizens of Hurley have cause to congratulate themselves on the success of their first celebration. Although the morning was unfavorable the afternoon was all that need be asked; the clouds drifted away and the sun shone brightly, but a gentle breeze kept the atmosphere cool and invigorating. No town in Dakota—or anywhere else, for that matter—of the same size, can boast of a celebration which surpassed ours in numbers and good feeling. All present expressed themselves as being surprised and delighted at the accommodations prepared for them. Many were the words of praise uttered by our visitors at the fine and sightly location of our town, and all seemed satisfied that the future in store for Hurley was of more than ordinary promise. During the afternoon a free-for-all race of a hundred yards was won by "Neal" Dwyer, there being four contestants. The dance in the evening was attended by about fifty couple, who "tripped the light fantastic" until the morning sun warned them that their day's labors must soon commence.

For sale—A first-class milk cow. Enquire at the Pioneer Drug Store.

THE STONE QUARRY.

Five Thousand Dollars Refused for the Property.

Last week we made mention of the fact that a stone quarry had been opened near town. Subsequent developments bring forth the fact that Mr. Theodore Johnson, on whose land it is situated, had been offered $5,000 for ten acres of land which shall include the quarry. Should this prove all that it now promises, Mr. Johnson has a bonanza, and the question of foundation stone is settled.

ANOTHER QUARRY.

We have been informed by a gentleman of reliability, and who has lived in this county for several years, that he had discovered within two miles of Hurley what he believes to be a good quarry of stone. He objected to disclosing the location at present, but will probably make it public before a great while.

STILL THEY COME.

Ex-Governor Newton Edmunds, of Yankton, writes that as soon as trains are running (which will be in about ten days) he will erect a business block on his property here. Mr. E. owns three choice lots on Center avenue, and will no doubt put up a structure of which the town will have reason to be proud. Governor Edmunds is one of Dakota's earliest settlers, and no man in the territory is better posted as to the resources of this section of the great northwest, or as to the natural commercial centers, and his investing in Hurley property is a substantial indication of his opinion of the future prosperity in store for the town.

A Trip to the Country.

Being invited to a seat in Mr. Ed. Swan's buggy last Sunday, we accepted, and were soon speeding over the country in a northerly direction, toward the Stoddard bridge, on the Vermilion river, passing on the way neat farm-houses, thrifty groves, fields of waving grain and numerous corn-fields. Crossing the river, we drove north, and soon reached "Big Beaver ranch," the property of Moore Bros. This farm lies mostly on the east bank of the Vermilion river, occupying the whole of section four, and the northeast quarter of section five, of township ninety-eight, range fifty-two, containing over eight hundred acres, two hundred of which are under cultivation, the balance being used for hay land and pasture. A more complete group of farm buildings would be hard to find, consisting of a good frame dwelling house, a frame barn 40x50 feet, granaries, tool house, hog house, etc., all being surrounded by a fine grove of some ten years growth. One of the attractive features of the farm is the large quantities of small fruit; strawberries, raspberries, currants and gooseberries being raised in as great an abundance and of as good a quality as in any of the older states, proving beyond a doubt that Dakota is well adapted to the cultivation of fruit. These gentlemen are introducing some fine stock into this section, having in their herd a seven-eighths Holstein bull, which is a fine looking animal and the pride of its owners. After partaking of an excellent dinner, prepared by Miss Moore, (who keeps house for her two unmarried brothers,) at which the most luscious strawberries were served in various styles, we bid our hosts and hostess good day, promising (and we shall keep it) that we would call again.

Hurley is located on what is soon to be the main line of the Northwestern railroad running between the eastern cities and Huron, Pierre, the Black Hills and Bismarck. It is 43 miles from Huron; 35 miles from Yankton; 33 miles from Sioux Falls; 31 miles from Salem, and 30 miles from Scotland. The country surrounding, and tributary to the town is unsurpassed by any in the territory. The farmers have passed through the trials and hardships of pioneer life and are now in independent circumstances. Their farms are well cultivated and their crops, in quality and quantity, are second to none. The railroad will soon be completed to this point, which will give them a market superior to that of any town where two or more of the pool roads center, as they are bound to certain rates at such points, while here they can adopt such rates as they may deem best.

Parker Cornet Band.
We wish to return the thanks of the Herald, and also of our citizens, to the members of the Parker cornet band, who so kindly favored us with several choice selections on Tuesday last. This band, though comparatively new, plays well. It was the first band to visit Hurley, and in after years, when Hurley attains metropolitan dimensions and the Herald is published as a morning daily, its members can point with pride to the fact that they belonged to the first band organization that visited Hurley. The band consisted of the following members: A. T. Morton, leader. S. L. Wentworth, Gus Gilbert, Lew Dibble, sr. Lew Dibble, Ed. Rundell, Will Huntley, Warren Clisby, Jas. Stevens, Geo. Webster, Robert Woodard, W. Park, Fred Clisby, Ally Lathrop.

Just Arrived.
At the warehouse around the corner—clothing and gent's furnishing goods, ladies' and gent's straw hats, a full line of groceries, a nice assortment of boots and shoes, stone jugs, pans, jars and churns, workinass suits, shirts, overalls and hats. Dry goods will arrive soon. Come everybody and get a nobby suit of clothes, &c., &c., &c. May, 24. J. ALLEN, Hurley.

BANK BLOCK.

Mr. Clampt informs us that the contract is let and work will be commenced at once on his bank block, which will occupy the southwest corner at the intersection of Center avenue and Main street, facing north on Center avenue. The building will be a two-story structure, and will be constructed in such a manner that it can be veneered with brick this fall. The vault lining, safe and time-lock have been purchased, and everything will be of the best quality and finish, and the citizens of Hurley are to be congratulated that they are to have banking facilities at an early day.

Parties in other localities have, by various means, endeavored to dissuade Mr. Clampt from investing, and locating at Hurley, but he was a man of close discernment he was satisfied that Hurley and the surrounding country possessed the qualifications necessary for a successful prosecution of the banking business, and consequently the "yarns" told him did not have the desired effect.

There will be at least three grain elevators and warehouses in operation in Hurley this fall, that number of operators having already made arrangements to commence work on their buildings at once.

Railroad Rumors.

The track-layers expect to reach Hurley next Wednesday.

Contractor Clark arrived in town today, having finished his grading.

Regular trains will be put on by the 15th or 20th of the present month.

Orders were received last week to enlarge the side tracks, etc., at this point.

The track was laid to a point one mile and a half this side of the Centerville bridge this afternoon.

A railroad grading force of twenty teams and over one hundred men passed through town Monday, having completed their work on the Northwestern and secured contracts on the Dakota river line of the Milwaukee road. The outfits belonged to Messrs. Elmcr and Cary.

It is a 32-page pamphlet, and contains a department on cooking written especially for the work by Mrs. Mary B. Welch, lecturer on domestic economy at the State Agricultural College. You can get a copy free of charge by addressing Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, Iowa, who are also manufacturers and proprietors of the famous medicine called Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is not a finer located townsite in the west than that occupied by Hurley. Commencing at a point near the depot grounds, which are located near the eastern limit of the town, the land gradually rises as you go west, until the western extremity of the public park is reached, where it attains an altitude of some forty feet above the depot grounds; thence to the western limits is a nearly level prairie, sloping slightly to the north. From the residence portion of the town, commencing on a line with the eastern extremity of the park, from the northwest around to the southeast nearly every farm house and grove (and the prairies are dotted thickly with them) within a distance of from six to fifteen miles can be plainly seen, and a more pleasing picture it would be difficult to find anywhere.

From Spring Valley.

SPRING VALLEY, July 2d.

That's so, it has been hot. Oats are heading out good.

Corn is longer than the New Era's hands now.

Blank envelopes $10.00 apiece at the "future county seat?" You "pay your money and take your choice."

A. W. Bacon drives a pair of mules now. Me thinks I can see a blue streak rising over yonder.

Mrs. Black, mother of A. W. Bacon, of this place, arrived Saturday from California.

Will Zuber, from the east part of the town, broke biscuit at the black-bird's nest, Saturday.

Mr. Moore, from Sheldon, Iowa, an old friend of the Black boys, accompanied by Mrs. Thielman, and Miss Susie and Carrie Black, of Parker, called on the aforesaid boys Friday. Mr. Moore says our corn looks the best of any he has seen this year.

School election for district No 9 passed off quietly last Tuesday. The following school officers were elected: Peter Nelson, director; T. S. Fessenden, clerk; James Sherard, treasurer.

We understand by Miss Grundy's telephone that the Spring Valley oracle has busted both editors and they are laid up with a bad case of spring fever.

That great time has arrived when the hired girl freezes her hair, the hired man follows the boss around for five dollars, and the small boy wants a quarter. Everybody is happy but the old bach; he will take his bottle of whisky and that old clay pipe and get in the shade somewhere and try to make himself think he is happy. But his mind will roam back east, and visions of white dresses, blue ribbons, lemonade and such, will float before him, and he can't rest; he'll get up and take another drink, and say: "I'll be gunguzzled if this don't remind me of something I can't think of."

SOME TIMES.

Cheap for Cash.

One span four year old mules, harness and wagon, and one good brood mare. Enquire at the Herald office or at the residence of W. H. Shaif.

Watches and Jewelry.

PARTIES having watches, clocks or jewelry of any kind, where they will receive prompt attention by a first class jeweler, at moderate prices.
