The supplement will be folded inside of the paper and in this form if preserved, will be handy on election day.

—The report in circulation, that Dr. T. M. Richards dentist, of this place, does not do his own mechanical work in the making of teeth, we are informed by the Doctor is not correct. All the work, from the taking of the impression until the teeth are ready to go into the mouth is done by him, and is warranted to be done in a skilful and workmanlike manner. Mr. McTamany, who is an engineer, running between Altoona and Conemaugh, after reaching the latter place ran his engine in on the pitt track and sat down on the arm rest of the cab window to rest and enjoy the fresh air. While sitting there, a hostler mounted the engine and started to run it toward the round house. Mr. McTamany before he saw his dangerous position was caught between the engine and the posts of the coal scaffold and crushed through the cab. No bones were broken but his injuries are such that he will be laid up for several days. He was taken to his home in Altoona and we hope will soon be able to be about again.

—Nearly every one is complaining of hard times, that they have no money and can't buy goods, but at Barker's you can trade most anything you have for goods, as they buy grain, produce, wool, lumber, bark and shingles.

—George Murray, at one time a highly esteemed citizen of this county who resided at Summerhill, but who removed to Iowa in 1854, died at his home in Davenport, Iowa, on Sunday, April 30th. Mr. Murray was a brother of Mr. William Murray, Sr., of Altoona, and is remembered by a number of our older citizens for his many good qualities of mind and heart and his sterling integrity. Mr. Murray was born in Huwlek, Roxburghshire, Scotland, in 1810 and at the time of his death was in his 77th year. He came to this country when about 18 years of age and settled at Summerhill, where in 1833 he married Miss Esther Croyle who bore him nine children, three of whom survive him and reside in Iowa. After the death of his first wife he married Mrs. Harriet Morgan, nee Wilson, who survives him. We were not personally acquainted with him, but he was a subscriber to the FREEMAN and once a year we received a letter from him with a renewal of the subscription and asking about old friends in Cambria. Peace to his ashes.

—We have now received our stock of spring and summer goods, all bought as low as cash would buy them, and we invite you all to come and see us and examine our goods and prices. We would especially call your attention to our stock of shoes for men, women and children, as we have a complete assortment and prices as low as any one. V. S. Barker & Bro's.

—The Chicago Times of April 30th, speaking of Major Blaine's funeral, says: Hon. Thomas P. Fenlon, the brother of Mrs. Maj. J. E. Blaine, returned to Chicago last evening after having attended the funeral of Maj. Blaine at Fort Wayne, Ind., on Thursday. Mr. Fenlon stated that none of Maj. Blaine's family were present at the funeral, but that the services were held in the Cathedral of Notre Dame, at which all the dignitaries of the church officiated. The cadets fired a military salute at the grave and all the Catholic clergy marched from the cathedral to the grave. The widow of the deceased, Mr. Fenlon said, was unable to be moved from Hot Springs, and therefore could not attend the funeral, and he says it was a pitiful sight indeed to witness the grief of the two young daughters of the deceased, aged 16 and 18 years, as they stood almost alone in the world beside the grave of their dead father, with but himself of all the family present to offer words of sympathy and comfort to them in their hour of grief and sore distress.

A Clear Complexion

How can you expect a clear complexion when the blood is full of impurities and the stomach clogged? The blood becomes impure because the liver does not act properly and work off the poison from the system, and the certain results are blotches, pimples and eruptions. Purify the blood with Simmons Liver Regulator, and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels, and then the skin will become clear.

The Great American Chorus.

Sneezing, snuffing and coughing! This is the music all over the land just now. "I've got such an awful cold in my head." Cure it with Ely's Cream Balm or it may end in the toughest form of Catarrh. Maybe you have catarrh now. Nothing is more nauseous and dreadful. This remedy masters it as no other ever did. Not a snuff nor a liquid. Pleasant, certain, radical.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisic, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle and after taking six bottles, was entirely cured, and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by E. James, of Ebensburg, and W. W. McAteer, of Loretto.

—Do you know of any one who wants a bargain in a Sewing Machine if so, send them down to Barkers' as they have one left that will be closed out cheap, after this one is gone there will be no more at this price.

EBENSBURG, PA., May 12, 1887.

ED. FREEMAN—Just eight years to-day, I moved to Ebensburg, and I have never regretted the move. I have tried to render satisfaction in my professional duties, and I am very glad to know that the public have sanctioned my effort to do good work, at a living price. I have not used buzzing machines nor electricity for preparing or filling teeth, for the reason that I get more work without their use. I do use gas, but it is principally in the neighborhood of my own mouth, and the public are not troubled with it to an alarming extent. I have always used such tools, instruments, etc., as I thought best adapted to the comfort and ease of my patients, and I will allow an honest public to decide whether I have succeeded or not. Thanking all for their patronage in the past, and hoping to deserve it in the future.

I remain your's truly,
M. R. B. CHERRY, Dentist.

Hymenial.

PLUNKETT—CARNEY.—Married on Tuesday May 10th 1887, at the church of the Holy Name in Ebensburg, by Rev. Thomas Walsh, Mr. Thomas S. Plunkett of Gallitzin, and Miss Alice M. Carney, of Munster township.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the wedding but owing to the numerous duties attendant upon us and a great press of work at the time, found it impossible to be present. We however tender our congratulations to the young couple and hope their wedded life may be a prosperous and happy one.

MORE PROOF.

The proof of the pudding is the eating of it and the increasing business of a merchant is a sure sign of the popularity of his goods and the fairness of his dealings.

Nothwithstanding the wiley schemes of many of our would-be competitors we are daily growing and multiplying. Our trade, so far this season, is away ahead of all previous years and our prospects for the future still brightening.

Let us again assure our Ebensburg friends that their trade is ever appreciated and solicited entirely in a question of the best goods for the least money.

We are still the same Reliable One Price Clothing House and defy any other to undersell us or supply the same quality, make or fit of goods that we command in Johnstown.

In your purchases consult both quality and price and when comparing our goods with those of others, examine critically the get-up, the finish, the make, the fit and the lasting qualities of both. Remember orders by mail will receive prompt and careful attention.
