Hon. J. S. Mann is home for a few days on a visit to his family, this week.

The Emporium Independent of late is writing up the B., N. Y. & P. R. R. in a very commendatory style.

The robins and other venturesome members of the feathered community are holding fine concerts every morning just now.

The criminal business for June term of Court is accumulating.

Farmers should have an eye to the County Fair to be held next fall. The managers of the Agricultural Society are in earnest in their efforts, and the thing is bound to succeed.

The Graded School of the borough is again in session with a fair attendance of pupils. Take an hour some day and visit it.

To-day, April 1st., has actually the appearance of spring. The air is mild and soft, and as we write the rain begins to patter against our office windows. We shall believe the appearance an honest one until it proves to be a "fool" at all events.

We would remind our correspondents in different parts of the county, and other people generally that our greatest anxiety, just now, is for local news. Send us something; if nothing extraordinary happens, tell of the ordinary events.

Thompson & Mann have been making some extensive improvements in their drug store and the post office. They have moved the latter into the "back story" and added seventy new boxes together with other improvements that facilitate the transaction of business. This enlarges the arena of the store nearly one third, which they have rearranged and fitted up in a superior style. It is now one of the best appearing establishments in town.

A Bellefonte man spent three-quarters of an hour, the other evening, in trying to pick up a piece of moonshine from his doorstep which he fondly imagined to be a newspaper.—Bellefonte Republican.

We know a Bellefonte man who got worse fooled than that not many months since.

Two young men have been acting badly here at Coudersport, Pa. The worst of it is, they claimed to be from Hornellsville. We repudiate them. They are not the Hornellsville style at all. "Jolly, blacksmith, and Dawes, a painter," are not known to us. How these fellows, who stole the affections and gained the confidence of the good people of Coudersport by falsely pretending to be from Hornellsville, disgraced themselves and brought reproach upon Hornellsville, is told in the Coudersport paper.

We are indebted to a correspondent for the assumed names as given above (under which they played their pranks.) Hornellsville Times.

Following this the Times copies our account of the conduct of a couple of festive gents, published two or three weeks ago. As we did not allege they were from Hornellsville, we have no apologies to offer. They came from across the State line and took their back trail when they left here. We are not particularly interested as to what locality adopts or accepts them.

Geo. N. Mills, youngest son of the late Major N. M. Mills, has lately retired from the proprietorship of the Fassett House, in Wellsville, and removed to his farm in Colesburg in this County. George is one of the go-ahead, energetic sort, and withall a whole-souled man. We are glad to have him for a citizen.

April 1st—"All-fool's day"—passed with the usual amount of hilarity and attempted tricks, some of which were successful and some otherwise. The juveniles seemed to have the sport mostly to themselves. We noticed one incident: Quite early in the morning a pocket-book was seen lying on the walk on Main street. Several persons passed, but seemed to be on their guard and none meddled with it. On investigation in the vicinity a boy's head was seen peering out of an alley anticipating a "sell." We can't say whether he was gratified or not. It is needless to say the pocket-book was empty and nailed to the walk.

Liberty Lodge, No. 505, A. Y. M., was instituted at Port Allegany, Tuesday, April 1st, by Dr. Earley, D. G. M., of Ridgway, assisted by delegations from Olean, Smethport, Emporium and Coudersport. The following officers were installed:

W. M.	Geo. H. Goltry.
S. W.	Miles Irons.
J. W.	H. J. Barrett.
S.	Thos. McDowell.
T.	F. H. Arnold.
J. D.	A. H. Medbury.
S. D.	C. L. Bellows.
S. M. C.	Wm. Dunbar.
P.	E. Dolly.
T.	C. Cole.

The "Locals" of the Cameron Press and McKean Miner are engaged in an effort to see which can say the meanest things of the other. If they would economise this waste of mental power and apply it to the legitimate purposes of journalism they might wake up some fine morning and find themselves famous.

Rev. H. A. Duboc announced from his pulpit, last Sunday, that his labors with the Presbyterian Society of this place would cease on the 1st of May, owing to a change of his ecclesiastical views. It is understood that he goes to New York to prepare himself for an Episcopal clergyman.—Cameron Press.

Trout fishing is again legal in Potter County, but, as yet, we have seen no indications of the sport being prosecuted. Gentlemen-fishits, don't let the snow deter you. If there are but few trout in the streams on account of the cold weather and ice, more is the merit of catching them.

Mud in the streets. Mother Earth at last.

Mr. John R. Bowen, of Wellsborough, was, some time since, appointed and confirmed as Collector of Internal Revenue for this District, but he declined the position and John H. Burrowes, of Williamsport, clerk and Deputy-Collector under George Bubb, Esq., late Collector, has been appointed to the place and confirmed.

Good Courage.

What's the use of ever fretting
At the trials we shall find
Ever strewn along our pathway—
Travel on and never mind.

Keep right on at daily working,
Cast no idle look behind
At the trials we encounter—
Travel on and never mind.

What has passed is for the better,
Let all fretting be resigned,
It will never help the matter—
Travel on and never mind.

And if those who might befriend us,
Whom the ties of Nature bind,
Should refuse to do their duty—
Travel on and never mind.

Friendly words are often spoken
When the feelings are unkind,
Take them for their real value—
Travel on and never mind.

Fate may threaten, friends may lower,
Enemies may combine;
If you trust in honest counsel
He will help you, never mind.

DIED.

In Memoriam.—The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Presbyterian Sabbath School:

Whereas, It has pleased an All-wise Providence to call our valued friend and co-worker, Mrs. MARY L. JONES, from our midst to her home in heaven; and Whereas, We feel anxious to express our sympathy and unfeigned sorrow at her death; therefore,

Resolved, That in her death we mourn the loss of one whose irreproachable character rendered her whole life worthy of imitation, and whose loving and charitable disposition has gained for her the respect and esteem of all.

Resolved, That in this bereavement our Sabbath School has been deprived of a faithful teacher who ever felt anxious to lead the "little ones," and whose counsel to them was such that the fruitage thereof eternity alone can measure.

Resolved, That to the husband and family of the deceased we extend our heartfelt sympathy and condolence, desiring that they feel comforted with the assurance that her work on earth was finished, and that her faith, resignation and christian fortitude in suffering have secured for her Our Father's approval—"Well done, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Resolved, That the husband and parents of our departed friend be furnished with a copy of these resolutions, and that the same be published in the POTTER JOURNAL.

In Beechwood, Cameron county, Pa., March 21, 1873, Georgie J., infant son of JOHN E. and AUGUSTA SPAFFORD ROGERS, aged 17 months and 19 days.

Very suddenly was baby GEORGIE removed to the fold of the loving Shepherd. Sitting in his crib, playing with his toys, he lay back on the pillow, and while watching parents thought him sleeping the "sweet sleep of childhood" unseen angels gently loosed the letters of earth and bore the happy spirit to Him who has said, "Suffer little children to come unto me." Full of childish joy, bright and active, peculiarly endeared to all by his winning ways, he was unexpectedly taken away, and those whose bright hopes were centred in him are filled with grief which only He who "Tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" can enable them to bear. May these stricken parents remember that God is merciful and full of love, that their little one is not lost to them but lives in His presence, early removed from the sorrows and snares incident to this life to develop that awakening mind, and to bloom in angelic beauty in the clear bright and joyful liberty of heaven.

"Tis better far, in childhood's happy years, ere sorrows come and cares of earth enslave us, sweetly to fall asleep and wake in Heaven."

Thompson & Mann have just received 1500 rolls of Wall Paper, with Border to match, and a complete stock of Oiled Cloth and Paper Window Shades and Green and Buff Hollands for Curtains.

The Most Complete Stock of Furniture will be found at the Mammoth Furniture Establishment of C. G. Hammer & Sons, 46, 48 and 50 Seventh avenue, Pittsburg, Pa. This house is the oldest and largest house in this line of business, whose floors, if spread out on a level, would require over one and a half acres of space. This house carries more stock than any other house west of the mountains. Among their enormous stock may be found the following: 73 new styles of Parlor Sets, at from $60 to $200; 46 new patterns of Chamber Sets, at from $30 to $1750. Library and Dining Room Sets, Hat-Racks, What-Nots, Office Furniture, etc., etc., of all descriptions and prices. They guarantee superior work at 20 to 30 per cent. less than Eastern prices. Photograph Price Lists sent on application, or when in the city don't forget to call. See advertisement in another column.

New SINGER Sewing Machines exchanged for ones of any kind or make, by A. M. REYNOLDS, Agent.

If you want to get the best flour kept in town ask for "Brown's Patent Hexall Flour" sold by Edward Forster who, by the way, keeps a fine assortment of groceries and provisions of all kinds, which he sells cheap.

SUBSCRIPTIONS to the Buffalo Daily "Express" and the Elmira Daily "Advertiser" received and forwarded by 132-1y Arthur B. Mann.

The SINGER is a lock-stitch machine and makes a beautiful, even and uniform stitch which will not ravel and is alike on both sides. It hems, braids, cords, tucks, embroiders, ruffles, fells and does all kinds of work on the finest muslin or the heaviest full-cloth.

Chapped Hands, face, rough skin, pimples, ringworm, salt-rheum, and other cutaneous affections cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. Be certain and get the Juniper Tar Soap, as there are many worthless imitations made with common tar. 33-4

Before purchasing elsewhere call and examine the SINGER MACHINE.

The Purest and Sweetest Cod-Liver Oil is Hazard & Caswell's made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Patients who have once taken it prefer it to all others. Physicians have decided it superior to any of the other oils in market. 33-4
