DRY GOODS.

R. A. GILLETT'S ADV'S.

Great Commotion in Tinnicum.
GOODS HAVE FALLEN 25 PER CENT. The subscriber in his "Card" of Oct. 3, told the good people of Old Portage that he would bring down the prices of goods twenty-five per cent. In this town and county, he finds that by advertisement (although probably "wind work,") that his neighbors will sell 50c Tea for 37½c. If such statement be true, then the people can rejoice that the "goat rested" man has done some good,—although "rested" he has never "squatted down" upon the reputation of an usther dandy in law, but conducts business on his own hook; however, seeing that his neighbors are induced to sheit down their goods and not "switch off on the sidetrack," he offers them the "right hand of fellowship" and proposes to give them a list of prices, so that they may get out next week another "windy" notice of what great things they can do when driven to the wall." So here we go as follows:
Good Sugar for 6½c
" Molasses 31c;
" Coffee Sugar 9c;
4-4 Brown Sheeting for 8c per yard; same kind our neighbors sell for 9c.
Fair article of muslin 6½c;
Good madder prints 6½c per yd.
