REVIEW OF THE BOSTON FLOUR MARKET FOR THE WEEK ENDING MAY 31, BY G. M. FOWLE & CO., 10 LEWIS WHARF.

BOSTON, May 31, 1858.

Flour—The Flour market continues quite dull, and prices are generally tending downward with a moderate demand from the trade. The decline on all kinds the past week has done 10@25c ⅌ bbl. The sales of common brands western have been at $4.25@4.38, fancy brands at $4.50@4.75, extra sales of good brands at $4.87½, common extra $4.50@4.62, and family brands at $5.25, including Ohio, Michigan and Genesee, with very few brands selling as high as the latter rate at the close; and for very choice St. Louis brands $5.25@5.75 has been obtained. In Canada Flour the sales have been at $4.50@4.75 for fancy and $4.37½@4.62½ for extra, including family brands. Southern Flour continues quiet, with a limited demand for export. We quote common and fancy at $4.75@5, and extra at $5.25@5.37½ ⅌ bbl. Hardly is held at $4 ⅌ bbl.

Corn Meal—In Corn Meal there have been further sales at $3.75@3.87½ ⅌ bbl.

Rye Flour—Is selling in small lots at $3.25@3.37½ ⅌ bbl.

Corn—There has been a very dull demand for Corn the past week, and prices remain quite steady. The sales of southern yellow have been to a fair extent at 72@73c, and white at 72@73c ⅌ bu.

Oats—In Oats there have been sales of Prince Edward Island, Western and Canada at 45@46c ⅌ bu.

Rye—In quiet with small sales at 70c ⅌ bu.

Beans—White Beans continue in moderate demand, with sales of common and blue pod at $1.62½, and extra Pea and Marrow at $1.75@1.75 ⅌ bu. Canada Peas continue dull at 80c ⅌ bu.

Barley—In Barley nothing has been done.

By auction, 500 sacks ordinary New Orleans white sugar, yellow Corn at 70½@74c ⅌ bu for cash.

Money Market—The Money market is well supplied with capital, and the Banks find difficulty in obtaining good paper for all their funds. From 5 to 6 per cent. is the current rate, and in some cases 4½ and even 4 per cent. has been submitted to on choice loans. Borrowers have a decided advantage just now, and the more especially if their requirements are for large amounts. There would seem to be no probability of an increased demand for money the next two or three months, but the very out of financial affairs is of so fickle a nature—as taught by the past—that predictions are dangerous and useless besides.

Yours, &c., GEO. M. FOWLE & CO.,
