CLEVELAND CATTLE MARKET.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 22, 1858.

BEEVES.

We note sales of 51 head of cattle at the yards to-day, at prices ranging from $2.25 to $3.00 per 100 lbs. live weight—about the same number held over.

COWS AND CALVES.

There were none reported.

SHEEP.

We heard of a few being offered, but could not ascertain at what prices they were sold.

REMARKS.

There were nearly 100 cattle at the yards for sale to-day, and a fair share of them were disposed of at remunerative figures. There was considerable animation among buyers in the early part of the day, and beeves changed hands rapidly. Much of the stock offered was young and light, and, in our opinion, just the kind to make a fat one next. During the last four or five weeks, we have published no report of the cattle market, owing to being incapacitated by sickness; but thereafter buyers and sellers may depend upon a full report every Thursday morning. Mr. R. K. Johnson is proprietor of the yards now, Wm. Bunnell having disposed of his entire interest to him.
