We have a very interesting letter from Joseph Andrews, a contuance of the one published last week, and it was our intention to give the same to our readers this week, but lack of space and time forces us to leave it out until next issue.

Parker seems to have a pretty fast base ball aggregation this spring judging by the reports that Hurley fans bring back from their games. They defeated the fast Canistota team on the Parker grounds last Tuesday afternoon, the score being 3 to 6. Several Hurley autos drove to Parker with passengers to witness the game. Chas. Miller of this city did the pitching for the county seat boys and was in excellent trim for his first game this season, it being a shut out game for Canistota up until the seventh inning when a couple of errors gave them a chance to score.

The Rebekah committee has announced the date of their annual children's party which is to be held at the Odd Fellow Hall on Wednesday evening, June 7. Both the old and young always have a splendid time at these yearly parties and we are sure that the one this time will be just as pleasant and enjoyable as the previous ones. The small sum of 25c will be charged which pays for the entertainment and supper. Everybody is welcome and you are urged to attend.

J. C. Nielson and family are moving this week to their farm near Milaca, Minn. Mr. Nielson bought eighty acres of land three miles from that city a few years ago and has decided to go into dairy farming in that country. Chris is a steady industrious young man and considered one of the good farmers in this locality, so that if conditions are any ways favorable there is no doubt of his success in the new location. Anyway he has a good many friends who wish him and his family the best of luck. Andrew Graveson who came this spring from Taylor, Minn., is farming the J. W. Woodward farm in Spring Valley, where the Nielson family formerly lived.
