CITY NEWS.

Some beautiful Flowers and Ribbons now opening at Mrs. Shaw's Millinery Store. nov.8

$50 REWARD.—Lost on Thursday last, either at the depot at Erie, Pennsylvania, or on the cars between Erie and Toledo, a pocket book containing over five hundred dollars ($500); also a pass from Toledo to Chicago, signed by H. H. Porter, and countersigned by W. D. Hanchester. Among the money were three one-hundred dollar bills—greenbacks—and several compound interest bearing notes. The finder will receive the above reward by returning the same to this office.

LAYING WATER PIPES.—A score or two of laborers are busy laying large-size water pipes down in Erie street, commencing at the point where Prospect and Huron streets intersect it.

DRAFTED.—Among the notabilities who were drafted yesterday was our excellent County Prosecuting Attorney, Charles W. Palmer, Esq. The wheel is inexorable, and knows neither person nor condition.

ARAYED.—The rough, ugly weather which has prevailed for several days past, has given way to a milder order of things, although the air bites yet, and makes the blood nimble and the nose blue.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The second week of Miss Helen Western's engagement opened auspiciously, last evening, with one of the best of the crowded houses with which she has been favored. Her performance of the "French Spy" is, without exception, the best which we have ever seen. Splendidly fitted by nature for the assumption of such a part, she has given it such careful study as to render her mistress of all its phases, and her acting is, therefore, beyond criticism. She was finely supported by the company.

The afterpiece—"The Wind-mill"—is now to most of our theater-goers. It was well presented, and proved quite a success.

To-night the "French Spy" will be again presented. It will be followed by "The Pet of the Petticoats," in which Miss Western appears as Paul, the pet.

POLICE COURT.—The following unimportant cases were disposed of yesterday by Judge Hessenmueller:

Drunkenness—Thomas Glody, Michael Maher and Mary Murphy. fined $1 and costs, each; George Wilson, $5 and costs, George Robbins and Anna Cratty, continued to the 16th.

Disturbance—Joseph Frizzell, $1 and costs.

Destroying Property—Thomas Giddings, fined the costs.

Assault and Battery—Anna Cratty, continued to the 16th.

Petit Larceny—James Murphy, continued to the 16th. Bail $100.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—The civil branch of this court was in session yesterday. Several cases were brought before Judge Bolton. That of Oliver Taylor vs. James Barnett, Administrator, occupied nearly the whole day, and was finally given to the Jury.

Three divorce cases were tried, and divorce granted in every case. They were as follows:

Powell vs. Powell.
Ware vs. Ware.
Stoller vs. Stoller.

MASTER DUDLEY WALLER.—No one who has seen or heard the announcement will forget that this wonderful boy-orator gives an entertainment, consisting of declamations and readings, at Brainard's Hall, this evening, under the auspices of the Library Association. We need not repeat here what we have already said of him. But we do say that we have never seen more elegant, powerful and perfect declamation on the rostrum of professional rhetoricians than this young boy has given. Nay, we do not now remember one proficient, who could render some of the most excellent and difficult passages in the language with the grace and appreciation which this marvellous lad exhibits.

And therefore we say that one of the most novel and excellent entertainments of the season will be given this evening, and that it behoves all who love truly excellent things, not to let this rare opportunity slip without improving it.

Go and hear Master Dudley Waller.

SECOND SUPPLEMENTARY DRAFT.

Draft in Springfield and Brooklyn Townships, and in the Third, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth and Eleventh Wards.

The Second Supplementary Draft commenced yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, at the Provost Marshal's Office.—Owing to the cold weather, or, perhaps, owing to the unattractive nature of the entertainment, the officials did not draw a very full house. But, happily, the meeting was of such a sort that it needed not numbers to insure its success. The business was of such a character that where only two or three were gathered together there it might go smoothly and prosperously on. Springfield township and the Eleventh Ward were drafted in the morning, and the remaining deficient Wards, with Brooklyn township, in the afternoon.

The draft passed off with very little excitement. The people in the pit cheered once in a while, and seemed in good humor throughout the drawing.

It is to be hoped that this draft will not reveal, as the others have revealed, an amount of physical disability and general rottenness so large and "frightful" as to be downright ludicrous.

FROM LAKE SUPERIOR.—The steamer Meteor, Captain R. S. Ryder, left Portage, Sunday, six o'clock P. M., November 6th, and arrived at this port on Sunday last. The incidents of her down trip are not specially noteworthy. She brought down 70 packages of fish, 60 tons copper, 207 tons iron ore and 25 tons pig iron for this city, and 85 tons copper for Detroit.

She brings intelligence of the steamer Cleveland, which was lost in the heavy gale of November 4th, in Lake Superior, while making for White Fish Point. When off Grand Sauble she sprang a leak, and the load of cattle and considerable other freight had to be thrown overboard to prevent her sinking. This relief was but temporary, the water gained on the pumps, and soon extinguished the fires. She lay helpless twelve hours, tossed about, and was finally driven ashore twenty miles above White Fish Point. No lives were lost. The steamer Seabird came along next day, and took the passengers who had saved none of their effects but what they had on their persons.

The captain and clerk were landed at Marquette, where they were picked up by the Meteor and brought to the wreck. The sea was too high to enable the crew on shore to reach the Meteor, so they were left.

The captain and clerk were put aboard the Dubuque at White Fish Point. Great credit is due the officers of the Cleveland for their success in saving the passengers and crew of the ill-fated steamer.

The Meteor will make but one more trip to the upper Lake this season, and will leave to-day.

JUSTICE JOUCH VS. C. C. & C. R. R. Co.—This is a claim against the above company for damages in the killing of about sixty sheep by one of its trains. The sheep, as the testimony showed, got through a portion of fence on the plaintiff's land, which the company is bound to keep up, and went upon the track, where they were killed by the train. The jury found a verdict against the company for $203 43.—Lorain County News.

Marine News.

WRECK OF THE STEAMER CLEVELAND.—The owner of the Cleveland, John Hutchins, Esq., of Detroit, has received a dispatch announcing the loss of the steamer. The Cleveland, Captain Halloran, left Detroit a few days since for Lake Superior, encountered a series of gales, and finally went ashore at Two Hearts River, about twenty-five miles from White Fish Point, Lake Superior, where she will probably prove a perfect wreck. No particulars have been received.

The Cleveland was insured in the Home Insurance Company for $15,000. She was built at Newport, St. Clair River, and was put in commission in 1852.

ASHORE.—The schooner Maple Leaf is ashore near Milwaukee, and the Jane Bell is on the North Pier at that port, laden with iron and coal.

The schooner Belle Walbridge, of Toledo, went ashore at Point Albino, during the late storm.

FOR EUROPE.—Mr. Kennard's yacht Octavia has arrived at Quebec on her way to the Atlantic and Europe.

The heavy weather which visited us last week extended the whole length of the Lakes, but comparatively few disasters have been as yet reported.

We glean from our exchanges such items as may interest readers of marine matters:

THE ST. CLAIR FLATS.—The steamers City of Buffalo and Mohawk, reported ashore at the St. Clair Flats, have not yet been liberated, and, with some deep-loaded vessels, have pretty effectually debarred the passage of other crafts for the time being. Vessels in ballast or partly laden and of light draft, it intimated, can effect a passage over, yet it requires a display of seamanship to accomplish even this much.—Detroit Tribune.

MOVEMENTS OF THE FLEET.—The gale of Wednesday and Thursday subsided at the close of the latter day, and the vessels detained in this locality were enabled to proceed on their respective destinations, taking their departure from here Saturday forenoon. The schooners Montauk and Willard Johnson arrived up early yesterday morning and lay here a greater part of yesterday. The Northwest, which has been detained here for repairs the past few days, came out of dry dock yesterday morning, and took her departure last night for Chicago. No tidings have reached us as to the situation of affairs on the Flats, though it is more than probable the blockade has been removed. The propeller Georgian passed up yesterday forenoon but made no call, either here or at Windsor.—Ibid.

ASHORE.—A dispatch to the Toronto Globe reports a vessel laden with corn ashore at Point Albino.

We learn from telegrams received by Captain D. P. Dobbins, on Saturday afternoon, that the schooner A. J. Rich and three other vessels are ashore at Kincade, thirty-five miles north of Goodrich. The A. J. Rich is loaded with 17,000 bushels of wheat. We learn there is an insurance of $30,000 on the cargo, and $10,000 on the vessel.

The schooner Almeda, laden with coal, while lying at the dock of De Forest & Coye, was run into by a raft and sunk.—Buffalo Ex.

The barque Mary Rowe, ashore on Gibraltar Point, Toronto, was got off by the tugs W. K. Muir and Hercules on Wednesday evening. The Rowe was to load at Toronto for the west coast of Africa, and sustained damages to the extent of $1,200. The Muir was also injured.—St. Catherine's Journal.

Neighborhood News.

SUMMIT COUNTY.

A construction train on the A. & G. W. R., ran over a cow, in Norton township last Monday morning. A portion of the train was thrown down an embankment, killing Mr. J. B. Jones, of Norton, and an Irishman, and severely injuring four or five other workmen on the road.

Portage township did nobly at the last election, giving 703 Union majority, a gain of over 50 on the State election. The entire vote polled was 1216, an enormous township vote.

The editor of the Akron Beacon has a "close communion" ticket which was voted by a miserable sneak last Tuesday.

Afraid or ashamed to vote the Copperhead ticket open and above board, he rolled one up in a Union ticket all of whose names were erased, and in that cowardly way smuggled in his ballot. Hasn't some one a kick for him?

COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

William H. Wright, of Salem, lies in the county jail, awaiting his trial for shooting with intent to kill his father-in-law, Richard Harrison, of the same place. Wright and his wife had parted, whereupon she went home. On Saturday night Wright got into Harrison's house, and crept under his bed. Mr. Harrison's suspicions were aroused, on retiring, and looking under the bed discovered Wright, who then drew a revolver and shot at Mr. H. three times, the two last shots inflicting serious wounds. This not being enough, Wright sprang at Mr. H., knocked him down, and escaped, but was arrested and committed to jail.

MEDINA COUNTY.

John A. Rettig and William O. Sanders recovered a verdict against the Sheriff of Medina county for $1,000, and interest on the same from December 20th, 1863, at the November term of Court of Common Pleas, 1864, for capturing and returning to the jail of that county F. F. Streeter, the murderer of the Coy family.

ASHTABULA COUNTY.

Simon Morse, son of the late Amos Morse, committed suicide in Kingsville, on Tuesday, October 1st, by hanging himself in his barn.

He was about thirty years of age, and a man of good character, but possessing a hereditary predisposition to insanity.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED.—The Grand Jury on Saturday last, returned the following indictments:

Grand Larceny—Joanna Fitzmartin, plead guilty; David Kentley and George Kentley, who plead not guilty, and Patrick Crowley, who also plead not guilty; plea was changed to guilty of stealing property to the value of $33, for which he was fined $50 and costs, and sent to jail ten days.

Burglary and Larceny—Frederick S. Sloan, (two indictments), David and George Kentley (two indictments also)

Stabbing—Eliza Thompson and Richard Sloan.

Buying and receiving stolen goods—Daniel K. Corlitt.

A PLEA IN FAVOR OF THE FATHERLESS.—We understand that several generous ladies of our city are going to hold their Annual Fair for the benefit of the orphans, who have increased since the commencement of the war from 150 to 280. The County and City have done wonders of charity to procure comforts for our noble soldiers in the camps, on the field of battle, and in the hospital. The voice of the dead, martyrs for the honor of the country, begs for the relief of these innocent, helpless and destitute children. In the name of Humanity and Charity, good people of Cleveland, answer to the appeal of those who have fought a noble fight for the sacred cause of Union and Liberty.

A. RAPPE,
Bishop of Cleveland.

NOTICE.—The Sunday school Union Concert will be held this (Monday) evening in the Second Presbyterian Church, at seven o'clock.

Railway Intelligence.

RAILWAY SALES.—The C. Z. & C. Railroad was sold November 20th, to George W. [illegible], for the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Company.

NEW LISBON RAILWAY.—Mr. Lee, General Superintendent of Construction of the Atlantic & Great Western Railway Company, is at New Lisbon, preparing the preliminaries for commencing work on the New Lisbon Railway.

The work will be pressed through to completion with the same energy that characterized the building and equipping of the Atlantic & Great Western. The money to pay the right of way on the Southern Division has been nearly secured, and the Engineer Corps has about completed the preliminary surveys and staking out of the work between Elkton and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway.

NEW DEPOT.—The Atlantic & Great Western Railway Company are now erecting, at Ravenna Station, a brick passenger depot, which, when completed, will be an ornament to the town, and a work creditable to the intelligent enterprise of the Company.

FACTS STRANGER THAN FICTION.—One of those remarkable coincidences that sometimes occur, happened at the Metropolitan Gift Book Store, No. 140 Superior street, yesterday afternoon.

Two ladies calling at the store, one of them purchased an album, and her surprise can better be imagined than described, when the clerk presented her a handsome breakfast Castor, as the gift accompanying it. But strange as it may appear the lady purchasing, had promised, in case she received a Castor, she would give it to her daughter who accompanied her. Any person doubting this statement we would refer to Mrs. R. Pelton, who resides in this city, and was the recipient of the gift.

Buy all your albums at the Metropolitan, where you will find the best collection in Northern Ohio, varying in prices from seventy-five cents to fifty dollars. nov12:177.

GOOD NEWS FOR EVERYBODY.—As the cold weather approaches, it becomes every one to provide against the inclement winter, by an early purchase of Boots and Shoes, and we know no better place in this city to get a good, reliable and fashionable article, than at the great Bankrupt Sale, 108 Superior Street, where they are closing out the immense stock of Butterfield, Loring & Co., 20 per cent. cheaper than they can be manufactured to-day. Their stock has always enjoyed a high reputation for style, elegance and durability. Now is the time; they never will be so cheap again.

An early call will insure a good selection from full cases. Give them a call at the Great Bankrupt Sale, 108 Superior street, near Water street. nov10.176
