DAILY LEADER.

Fashions and Fashionable Life in Paris.

[Paris Correspondence of the Philadelphia North American, April 28th.]

The excessive beauty of the weather contributed not a little to render the races of the Bois de Boulogne unusually attractive on Easter Monday and the following Sunday. The toilettes were quite in keeping with the loveliness of the day, and offered a coup d' œil of unwonted freshness and elegance for the season of the year. Wraps and heavy mantles and shawls could all be dispensed with, and nothing but light paletots and lace burnouses and fanciful coverings were to be seen. One of the most remarkable features of the display was the shining appearance of multitudes of steel spangles and beads with which bonnets, hats and heads, to say nothing of paletots and dresses were covered. This universal rage for steel is only rivaled by an equal display of gold and gilding, with which many ladies ornament their costumes. In short, everything glittering, and showy, and gaudy is now in high favor, and the most inconvenient and incongruous fashions seem to be those most delighted in.

I am happy to say that, as yet, the hideous shapes of the First Empire have not prevailed for bonnets. These continue for the present to be becoming, though consisting of little more than a fanchon, or half handkerchief, profusely trimmed with lace, flowers and beads. Bird wings and feathers ornament these airy head dresses, and have become quite an important article of trade of late. Several of the most fashionable ladies of the Empress' circle have on the occasion of these last races adopted costumes much better suited to the occasion than had been the case last year. The Countess de Pourtales, a remarkably pretty woman, Mme. de Galliffet, the Princess de Sagan, etc., all appeared in real elegant and yet suitable toilettes for the race course instead of these trailing skirts, laces, flowers and mantillas, which smacked far more of the drawing room than of the race ground. Skirts of gray colored or black taffetas were elegantly looped up over either black or bright colored underskirts, while the paletots, nearly tight fitting to the figure, were trimmed with the shade of the petticoat and profusely ornamented in several cases with steel beads and eccentric buttons of enormous size. Black tulle bonnets, spangled with silver or steel, were the order of the day; but the continuatce of the heat has already discarded these and made way for white tulle, mauve tulle, and paille de riz bonnets. These are trimmed in a variety of ways, but almost all have a light knot with ends of tulle at the back, or a sort of floating veil of the same material, which produces a very pretty effect.

A variety of new materials have come out for the spring and summer, amidst which gauzes de Chambery retain their favor for evening costumes. Muslins are made up with scarfs of the same, and even with shawls trimmed with lace. The dresses are made immensely full at the bottom, but narrow over the hips; are much less trimmed at the lower part, and short vests, with basques or coat-tails, are more than ever worn, with either silk or fancy materials. There never was, in fact, a season when so much latitude was left to individual taste or fancy, so that fancy managed to create something new and eccentric. The same thing may be applied to the style of dressing the hair, which is fantastic as well as varied. But as a rule, the back hair is beginning to be worn higher on the head; and if the chignon is still worn, it is narrower, and does not fall on the shoulders. Curls, however, are more in favor, and the quantity of false hair added to the human head is perfectly marvellous and shameless. This is rudely acknowledged fact that there is no concealment on the subject. We have not yet arrived at wearing parti colored chignons, but such a thing would not surprise me, did the fashion introduce it. Steel spangled nets, with stell combs or pins, are very much worn, and have a pretty effect in the hair.

Col. Pritchard in Michigan.

The Detroit Tribune speaks as follows of Col. B. D. Pritchard, the captor of Jeff Davis:

Allegan was thrown into a fever of excitement Monday morning by the unexpected but joyful intelligence that the arch traitor, Jeff Davis, had been captured by one of her own men. To Lieut. Col. B. D. Pritchard and the gallant 4th Michigan Cavalry, under his command, belongs the distinguished honor. Lieut. Col. Pritchard was of the patriotic law firm of Williams & Pritchard, of this village, both of whom, in the summer of 1862, became captains of volunteer companies which they had raised in this county by their own personal efforts. Pritchard was captain of company I, 4th Michigan Cavalry. A young man, under 30 years of age, of rare personal endowments, and rising rapidly in his profession, he hastened to the battle-field at his country's call, and cheerfully laid his all upon her altar. Tender and gentle as a child, he won the affection of the men under his command as few officers do; while by his ability and skill as an officer, and his undaunted bravery in battle, he commanded their highest admiration. In the battle of Chickamauga he received a wound in the left arm, which for awhile disabled him. After his return to the regiment he was promoted to the office of Lieutenant Colonel; since which time he has been in command of the regiment. This last achievement in capturing the rebel President and his staff will reflect lasting honor upon his own name and that of the men under his command. Allegan may well be proud of such a citizen.

Prentiseisms.

The Louisivle Journal has the following hits:

The rebel leaders that used to talk so boastfully of their flashing brands, have no brand now except the one upon their foreheads, and that's the brand of Cain.

We don't know that Jeff. Davis and his Cabinet have, as reported, carried off all the Confederate specie, but they were always specious fellows.

The machinery of the rebellion is at a dead stop. All the oil wells of Pennsylvania couldn't furnish lubrication enough to make it move again.

We ought to be able to retain the soil of what was called the Southern Confederacy, for we have good many strong holds upon it.

The leading rebels seeing how bad their cause looks at home, are anxious to go and see if it will not look better from a distance.

The rebel armies are subdued, but perhaps there is yet an unsubdued army of devils in Southern hearts.

The bonds of the negroes are undoubtedly broken, but those of the United States will be kept inviolate.

A good many people say that nothing can be easier than a reconstruction of the Union after the obliteration of the last vestige of the rebellion. The less difficulty a man can see in the work, the less qualified he is to give his advice in regard to it.—Fools and fanatics can see no difficulty in anything they want done.

Fernando Wood, who went recently to Europe, is coming back to aid in the reconstruction of the Government. He had better reconstruct his own political principles and morals first. He may be disposed to rekindle the fires of strife. He is very good kindling Wood.

A New Epithet for the Rebel President.

[From the Hartford Courant, May 6.]

Before the opening of the last campaign in front of Richmond, horses became very scarce in the rebel army, and orders were issued to impress all that could be found in the surrounding country. While engaged in the execution of this order, a squad of cavalry met Jefferson Davis riding in an elegant carriage drawn by a fine span. The corporal in command gruffly ordered him to "git out" and give up the animals. Jeff refused. The corporal insisted. Finally, to cut short the parley, Jeff inquired, "Do you know who I am?" "No," replied the soldier. "I am President Davis," said Jeff. "Drive on," said the corporal, "I thought you looked like a d—d old postage stamp." This story we know to be true.

MEDICAL.

MEDICAL SUCCESS IN THERAPEUTICS.
100 DOLLARS PREMIUM
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
Or Spermatorrhœa, Gleet, &c., and IMPOTENCY CURED.
AFTER ALL OTHER TREATMENT FAILS.
DR. A. GIBSON,
Formerly of New York City, will pay one hundred dollars for proof that he ever fails to cure the above-named disease. He will put the money into the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the same disease with equal success.

After many years of laborious study and experience, Dr. Gibson is happy in being able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for

of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the Reproductive Organs, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including Gonorrhœa,

DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with skillfully styled physicians, who profess to treat all private maladies with success, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.

Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of ensnaring the innocent, and who hold out great pretentions never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who repose confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of seminal weakness, and all disorders of derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages overall others yet discovered: and first, the agents used are so no respect disagreeable; he uses no relics of the dark ages, such as Mercury, nor any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restrictions in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He stands prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of diseases which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. References can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, in regard to skill and integrity in all professional engagements. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases treated with superior success.

Medicines sent to any part of the country on receipt of ten dollars.

PRIVATE AFFAIRS, IN WHICH
All Classes are Interested.
Farmers Drovers, Merchants, Lumbermen, Mechanics, Miners, Bankers, the rich and the poor, should ask themselves if they, when exposed to impure or so-called PRIVATE DISEASE, taint is lingering in their systems, if so, they should apply in person, if possible; if not possible in person, by letter, and receive by return mail a blank circular of questions, which will enable any one to know positively just how they stand.

To the intelligent reader it is not necessary to publish the names of the many complications and forms assumed by this terrible scourge, yet it may be advisable to mention some prominent SYMPTOMS PRIMARY, SYPHILIS SECONDARY, and SYPHILIS TERTIARY, the latter involving the bones in its deadly action.

Every one should know, also, that many of the most obstinate and worst UNCLEAN VIS. diseases proceed from this cause, and will, if not properly handled, ultimately result in loss of voice. Look to your true interest, and consult by letter, or apply at

UNITED STATES HOSPITAL

Private Medical Dispensary,
130 Jefferson Avenue, Detroit, Mich.,

Where every form of SYPHILIS and all other diseases of the prostrative and urinary organs of both sexes are more successfully managed than at any other similar institution in this country. Every one should know that whilst the slightest constitutional contamination exists, marriage is impossible, for the good reason that where offspring arises disease is not always avoided. This, therefore, is one of the worst impediments to matrimony.

YOUNG MEN,
Suffering mentally and bodily from certain early improper practices, will find this a Dispensary where there is no uncertainty about getting relief, but where every one of such cases are cured permanently. No books published by nor issued from this institution, by which the minds of the young are poisoned and they thereby ruined.

LADIES,
Married or single, requiring a Female Regulator, should enclose one dollar and three postage stamps, and by return mail they will receive with full directions, the only reliable Female Regulator in use. This Regulator is fast becoming the favorite of ladies everywhere, simply because its action is mild and safe and can always be depended upon in removing obstructions from colds and any other cause.
