DAILY LEADER.

Extraordinary Marriage Escapade.

A most singular and laughable affair took place at Preston, England, the other day. It seems that a bucolic couple, living in a village near the town, had arranged to get married. On the evening preceding the coming event all the usual arrangements were made, and it was agreed next morning the couple should meet with their "seconds" at the Preston parish church. The bride, the bridesmaid and the bridesman were there at the appointed time, but the bridegroom could neither be seen nor heard of. An hour elapsed, and he did not come; two hours passed away, and still he was missing. Soon afterwards he was observed walking leisurely up the street opposite the church, with the object, as is supposed, of taking what is called 'a rise' out of the disappointed party. Whilst moving along the parapet the bride and bridesmaid rushed from the church steps, where they had been waiting so long, and apparently so hopelessly, and seized the matrimonial renegade in furious style. He objected to such a mode of procedure, and, after making fifty fine excuses, said it would be impossible for the marriage to take place, as he had got no ring with him. A large crowd gathered in the street, and amongst the persons present was one woman more enthusiastic than the rest, who intimated that if a ring was all that was wanted to consummate the affair, she would provide one. Accordingly, she bared her hand, pulled off her wedding ring, and gave it to the struggling swain, who was then pulled into church by his "intended" and the bridesmaid. A minister had in the meantime been obtained. He knew nothing about the affair, and as the bride and bridegroom made the requisite responses and promises in regular order, he launched the couple into connubial waters. When the ceremony was over, the marriage party went to a public house in the neighborhood, and had some refreshments. Whilst they were thus enjoying themselves, the 'happy man' managed to escape from the house. But he was followed by his "wife" and another female and brought back. Subsequently he made another bolt; but the same couple caught the fugitive again and marched him out of town.

Drink for the "Dog-days."

The excessive use of cold water during the sweltering heat of the "dog days" of summer often results in serious and alarming illness. It is, therefore, advisable that some beverage should be substituted for it, of which those oppressed can partake with safety. For this purpose we are aware of no better or more refreshing drink than the following:

Take of the best white Jamaica root carefully bruised, two ounces; cream of tartar, one ounce; water, six quarts, to be boiled for about five minutes, then strained; to the strained liquor add one pound of sugar, and again place it over the fire; keep it well stirred till the sugar is perfectly dissolved, and then pour it into an earthern vessel, into which you have previously put two drachms of tartaric acid, and the rind of one lemon, and let it remain till the heat is reduced to a lukewarm temperature; then add a tablespoonful of yeast, stirring them well together, and bottle for use. The corks must be well secured. The drink will be in high perfection in four or five days. This is a very refreshing and wholesome beverage, and one which may be largely partaken of without any unpleasant results, even in the hottest of weather.

Mrs. Partington on Heller.

"I had compunctures about going," said Mrs. Partington, recounting the fact of her visit to see the great Heller; "I had compunctures when I heard his name, but his half hadn't been told me. "For," said she—lowering her voice and looking round to see if Ike was within hearing—"he does best the old heller himself, who I dare say was his parental projanitor, if the truth was known, though I didn't see any clover feet, and he acted like a perfectly diabolical gentleman all the time. What did he do, did you say? Why I saw him with my own eyes, metamopus two eggs into canaries and beat a reverie on a drum without touching a finger to it." "I've done as good a trick as that canary one," said Ike from behind the door, where he was hanging a back. "I changed four porkpolies yesterday fist." "You did, you bad boy!" replied she, quite thrown off the Heller track, "you must remember that he that steals isn't much better than a thief, and I shall have to take corrosive measures with you." Though interrupted, however, her thoughts ran back to the magician, and she hasn't got over her wonder yet. Ike exhausted the egg basket next day in attempts to roll two eggs into one.

The toilettes worn at the first representation of L'Africaine in Paris, were magnificent. One youthful married lady wore a black silk gauze dress, starred all over with steel; the second skirt was looped up as a tunic, with a silk cord, beaded with steel and jet; a corslet made of some silken material, interwoven with steel, was worn as a bodice—it extended to the hips, looking like the cuirass of some knight of old. Above the cuirass the bodice was puffed, and terminated round the shoulders with steel gimp and a row of black lace insertion. A black velvet necklet, with steel drops, encircled the throat, and the steel ear-rings were long enough to touch the shoulders. The head dress consisted of a band of cut steel about an inch wide which was worn at the top of the well-waxed hair; two bandeaux of hair rose beyond this steel diadem, and, at the back, a steel comb looped up plaits, which had black ribbon velvet introduced among them.

DR. A. GIBSON,

Formerly of New York City, will pay one hundred dollars for the proof that he ever fails to cure the above-named diseases. He will pay the same sum for the proof that any other Physician in the United States treats the above diseases with equal success.

After many years of laborious study and experience Dr. Gibson is happy in being able to announce to the unfortunate, that he has perfected a system of treatment for

of the above, and also all contagious diseases of the Reproductive Organs, with all bad effects arising therefrom, including General

DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

He has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who pretend to cure all private maladies with success, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.

Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of ensnaring the innocent, and who hold out great expectations, but fail to realize. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who repose confidence in him at fair and honorable rates, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of seminal weakness, and all diseases or derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all other yet discovered:—and first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he uses no reins of the dark ages, such as Mercury, or any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restriction in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases. He is also prepared to go into any public or private hospital in the United States, and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of disease which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. Reference can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, as to regard to skill and integrity in all professional transactions.—Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases treated with superior success.
