DAILY LEADER

Facetiæ.

In Mrs. Grundy, of this week, we find a mass of jokes, from which we select the following:

Question for Debate.—Is it possible for two stout parties to be slightly acquainted?

A Hint From Mrs. G. to Aggravating Husbands.—Ducks of wives don't like Drake's bitters.

A Question for Theologians.—Did the man of Uz bear his flesh boils so patiently as every man of us endures the bone boils?

Very Satisfactory.—Mr. Seward having demanded a consideration from John Bull for damages inflicted on our commerce by British-built privateers during the war, Lord Russell promptly responds with "assurance of the highest consideration." This is jolly! How much shall we ask?

Yale and Harvard.—"Let both divide the crown." Harvard turns out the best scholars—Yale the best scullers.

The Root of the Evil.—There is a warning voice abroad regarding lager-bier. Some of the dealers openly accuse the brewers of using tobacco root as a substitute for hops. Tobacco and beer go very well together when allowed to run in their respective grooves, but we decidedly object to having them mixed for us by the brewer. A pipe of lager beer is a capital thing to "have in the house," when you know it to be lager-bier, but it renders the mind chaotic to think that it may be nothing but a pipe of tobacco after all.

"Poor Yorick!"—"Why?" exclaimed the schoolmaster to Hammill, the champion rower, "Why will you thus make our noble Hudson a Golgotha?"

"A Golgotha, sir?" replied the mystified champion.

"Surely!" quoth the schoolmaster: "Do you not make it the place of the scull?"

Champion's answer not noted.

Our Economical Contributor thinks that the Atlantic telegraph will certainly prove a pacificator; as Columbia and Britannia are not likely to have many words between them at the announced rates of transmission.

Quotation for a Filibuster.—"The labor we delight in, physics Spain!"

The following are from the Saturday Press:

Howe, the great sewing machine inventor, is making money enough to set a man crazy. Why isn't there somebody like Dickins to teach Howe not to do it.

The housekeepers of the country are getting up an agitation against raising their carpet tax.

A Teuton came down to our office the other day to ask, before subscribing to our paper, whether we believed in the philosophy of Kant. We were obliged to reply that, on the contrary, we were firm believers in the philosophy of CAN.

We expected this week to have Atlantic Telegraph to our hearts content. But instead of that we are not likely to have any at all. The whole thing has become a joke. Say anything favorable of it to anybody now, and he'll reply, "Tell that to the sub-marines." The managers of the enterprise have become the laughing stock of both hemispheres. They refused to have reporters about, it is said, because of the certain absence of anything to report. There appears to be nothing above board about them except the principal part of their cable.

The Vote for Gladstone in Oxford.

Of the true University—the scholastic body engaged in the actual business of teaching—Mr. Gladstone carried with him a very large majority in numbers, and much larger in intellectual weight. Out of 260 or 270 residents, 155 voted or paired for Mr. Gladstone, and 89 for Mr. Hardy. At Balliol, the proportion for Mr. Gladstone was 10 to 1; at Oriel, 7 to 1. Even the Heads of Houses—those centres of gravity at which all the heaviness of the University is collected—gave a majority of one for Mr. Gladstone—12 for him to 11 for Mr. Hardy. Of the 34 professors, 24 were on his side, and only 10 on his opponents'. Of the tutors and lecturers, about 60 were for Mr. Gladstone, and 20 for Mr. Hardy."

A New Fowl.

A fearful giant in the shape of a barnyard fowl has been introduced into Scotland from Central India, called the "Begum Gayuss," a cut of which is given in the August number of the American Agriculturist. The male is thirty inches high, and appears like the Shanghae, except that on the head a couple of minute horns rise, instead of a comb, from a heavy base which projects some distance along the upper side of the bill. The wattles are also larger and fuller. The chickens of this kind of fowl, it is reported, grow to the weight of eight pounds at seven and eight months old—limbs of course included. We have no account of the laying properties.

The Newburg (N. Y.) Journal of the 5th relates the following, under the head of "A Peculiar Way of Enjoying a Vacation:"

Richard H. Jackson, one of the employees of the Metropolitan Insurance Company, New York, having been granted two weeks leave from that concern, has just completed a trip to this city in a skiff, having rowed the entire distance from New York in three days, and returns back to New York to-day, performing it in the same way.

JEFF. DAVIS HAS BEEN CAUGHT.

The war is now about played out,
Great changes have been wrought,
Our gallant boys are coming home;
Jeff Davis has been caught.
Hurra! hurra! now hang your banners out,
Hurra! hurra! let all the people shout.

The way the rebel chief was caught
Is laughable indeed;
He tried to run in petticoats,
But he did not succeed
Hurra! hurra! hang all your banners out,
Jeff Davis has been caught, let every one now shout.

Our boys did think it very strange,
A woman should retreat
With a great bowie-knife in hand,
Truth must now be told.
Hurra! hurra! our boys have got good sense;
'Twixt gaiter shoes and stogy boots they know the difference.

Oh, crinoline, we think you fine,
For you would not conceal
The flying rebel President,
When he did show his heel.
Hurra! hurra! there's nothing half so fine
To show a foot and ankle off, like well raised crinoline.

Your days are numbered now, old Jeff,
You surely cannot hope,
Or have a better end in view,
Than the end of a stout rope.
Hurra! hurra! Jeff Davis has no shoe;
In settling up all his accounts, just keep hi crimes in view.

The boys who caught Jeff Davis,
We'll welcome one and all,
And treat them to a fine new suit
At ISAAC'S UNION HALL!
Hurra! hurra! fling the starry banner out,
Our gallant boys are coming home, let all the people shout.

DEBILITY OR NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

has succeeded in curing cases in this city, some of whom had expended hundreds of dollars with self-styled physicians, who profess to treat all private maladies with success, and without receiving the least particle of benefit.

Dr. Gibson does not boast that he is a member of some College in London or Paris, as perhaps some others do for the purpose of deceiving the innocent, and who hold out great expectations, never to be realized. But what Dr. G. might boast of is this, that he is able to give entire satisfaction to those who place confidence in his ability and integrity, and that he has perfected an American system of treatment which challenges any Physician of London or Paris, or any patent medicine, to equal for the radical cure of sexual weakness, and all diseases or derangements, both mental and physical, arising from sexual or secret abuse.

Dr. Gibson also claims for his new treatment the following advantages over all other professional—and, first, the agents used are in no respect disagreeable; he uses no relics of the dark ages, such as mercury, or any other deleterious drug; secondly, no restriction in diet or business is required; thirdly, his treatment is positive and certain in all cases, and he is always prepared to go into any public or private hospital. In the United States, and demonstrate the immense superiority of his new treatment over any other now known to the world, in point of promptness, permanency, mildness, safety and convenience to the patient.

Dr. Gibson is permanently located in Cleveland, and has during the past five years performed many cures of diseases which had for years resisted all other modes of treatment. Reference can be given to individuals of the first respectability in Cleveland, Boston, New York and other cities, in regard to skill and integrity in all professional transactions. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and all Chronic Diseases treated with superior success.
