BOARDING-HOUSE.

John Watt

Takes this method of informing the public that he has taken and fitted up the spacious Brick House, formerly occupied by Dr. Emery, on Main-street, Carrollton, and is now prepared to accommodate a large number of Boarders.

This house is large and comfortable, and located in a healthy and beautiful part of the town. Those desirous of obtaining board will find it to their advantage to call and ascertain his terms, which will be liberal, before applying elsewhere.

Carrollton, April 10, 1846.

BLACKSMITHING.

The subscriber respectfully informs his old customers, and the public generally, that he has removed to the Shop recently occupied by R. P. Gould, nearly opposite J. G. Buck's Tavern, Main-street, Carrollton—where he will be found at all times, ready to attend to those who may give him a call.

He will iron Buggies, Wagons, &c. and do all kinds of country work, in the neatest and most substantial manner, and upon the shortest notice. He will pay particular attention to shoeing horses.

He hopes by strict attention to business, and employing all his energies to give general satisfaction, to merit and receive a liberal share of public patronage. His charges will be moderate.

LEESBURGH FOUNDRY.

The undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Carroll and the adjoining counties, that they have erected a new

IRON FOUNDRY

IN THE TOWN OF LEESBURGH,

Carroll County, Ohio, where they intend to make and keep constantly on hand, Castings of all descriptions, to wit: Every variety of Mill Gearings, Threshing-Machine Gearing, Stoves, and Plows of the most improved patterns now in use, &c. &c. All orders for castings will be promptly attended to, and can be speedily filled, as they will at all times have a good pattern maker employed. Their castings will be of the best quality as they intend using entirely the Kentucky iron.

They have also connected with the foundry an extensive Machine, and Smith Shop, where they will make thrashing machines, turning lathes, and ploughs; and do all kinds of Forging, Turning, &c. to order.—also repairing all kinds of machinery on the shortest notice.

They will receive in payment old metal at one cent per pound, and all kinds of country produce at market price, and will not refuse cash.

By pursuing a course of fair dealing, and honest industry, they hope to merit and receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

VAN BROWN Administrator of James Graham, deceased vs.
MARK LIDDLE } In Chancery.

The Defendant Mark Liddle, of the Kingdom of Ireland, will take notice that on this day Van Brown, as Administrator of James Graham, late of Carroll county, deceased, filed his petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Carroll County, Ohio, against him; said petition sets forth, that on the ninth day of August A. D. 1844, the defendant being indebted to the complainant in the sum of $243, for part of the purchase money on the South east quarter, of section twenty six, in township fourteen, of Range five, Carroll county, Ohio, executed to the complainant a mortgage on the premises aforesaid, to secure the payment of the purchase money with interest thereon $172, of which was due on the first day of August 1845, with interest. That the same is unpaid and unsatisfied. The prayer of the petition is, that the Court order the lands aforesaid to be sold to pay the purchase monies aforesaid, and to foreclose and forever bar the said Liddle, from the Equity of redemption, and for general relief. And unless the said defendant shall within sixty days from the rising of the next term of the Court, plead, answer or demur, to said petition, the matters and things therein contained will be taken as true and confessed, and a decree had accordingly.

PROSPECTUS

For improving the CARROLL FREE PRESS, and for extending its circulation.

The undersigned, Publisher of the

Carroll Free Press,

Grateful for the patronage which has heretofore sustained this paper, and anxious to enlarge the sphere of its usefulness, as well as to improve its typographical appearance, proposes to right the establishment, if sufficient encouragement be afforded to justify the undertaking. With this view, the publisher most earnestly solicits the co-operation of the friends of the FREE PRESS, in an attempt to procure additional subscribers.

The approaching political campaign in Ohio—the position boldly taken by our political opponents in regard to the Currency—the importance of the next Presidential canvass—the "signs of the times" indicating future events which must agitate the whole country—all conspire to render the newspaper press, just now, most worthy of liberal patronage and extensive circulation.

The course of this paper, for nearly twelve years past, has been too well known to require any new exposition of its political faith. Its steady aim has been, and will continue to be, the perpetuation and improvement of our Republican Institutions; and as the only probable method of effecting this great object, the Free Press will, as heretofore, support and vindicate Whig men, Whig measures, and Whig principles.

Will our friends and patrons lend us their aid in carrying on this good work? It will be remembered, that, under the late Act of Congress, newspapers are circulated, any distance within thirty miles of the place of publication, FREE OF POSTAGE; and, consequently, the only expense to be incurred is the mere subscription price of the paper. The publisher further adds, that the services of WILLIAM R. LLOYD, ESQ., will be devoted to the editorial department of this paper, and will not fail to render its columns useful, efficient and attractive.

☞The contemplated improvements of the Free Press, shall be made immediately after it is ascertained that a sufficient number of new subscribers has been obtained.

☞TERMS.—The Free Press will be published every Friday morning, on an Imperial sheet, at $2,00 per annum, payable half yearly in advance, or within the year. Eight copies will be sent to any one Post Office for $12,00 if the money accompanies the order.
