"I digest!" Such is the true meaning of the word "Pepsin," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the true digestive fluid, or gastric juice, prepared by Dr. J. S. Houghton, of Philadelphia, from the fourth stomach of the ox, for the cure of indigestion and Dispepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an unhealthy stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders good eating perfectly consistent with health. See the figure of the ox, in another part of this paper.

262 ACRES OF LAND.

For Sale.

The undersigned is disposed to sell the farm on which he now resides in Monroe Tp. Carroll co O about nine miles S. M of Carrollton. This farm consisting of 62 acres is equal, in the quality & productiveness of its soil to any farm in the county. It is watered by the Canoton creek which passes through the S. East side of the tract and also, by excellent and constant springs. About 80 of the 262 acres, consist of first rate bottom land, now chiefly in grass or corn cultivations.—The remainder of the tract is rolling up land, producing wheat and other small grain abundantly. There are on the premises, early 200 of the best fruit trees now in full bearing, that could be selected in Eastern Ohio. The dwelling house and their buildings, are roomy and commodious. In the immediate vicinity, there are four churches, one school house—grist mills, &c. Altogether the farm is a desirable one; and will not fail to please those who may desire to purchase. The title is unquestionable. Persons desiring to purchase, are requested to apply to the undesigned who resides on the land.

ROAD NOTICE

A petition will be presented to the Commissioners of Carroll county at their September session 1853—praying an alteration on so much of the county road, leading from the Carrolton and East port road, South of Chappers mill, to Canaansburgh. The alteration proposed begins where the said road crosses the line between the lands of James McGuire, and Thomas James, thence through lands of James McGuire, a Northwest Course about forty rods and thence westwardly, leaving the garden of James Meguire, about two rods South, thence, along the bank between the first and second bottoms through lands of James Davis, to the road leading from New-Hagenstown, to New Harrisburgh, thence, along said road until it intersects with the said first mentioned road in Russels lane.

Those interested will act accordingly.

The hands employed are experienced in the business, and we now are ready to accommodate at the shortest notice, all who may want any kind of grinding done. Our mill is and was constructed by the well known millwrights, Messrs Monges, of Waynesburgh, Stark co., Ohio, and is a splendid piece of workmanship. Our engine is of the celebrated make of N. & O. Cope, of Salineville, Columbiana co., Ohio, and has all their improvements in their high pressure engines combined. It was set up and started under the superintendence of the senior partner of that firm (W. N Cope), who for practical mechanical skill is not equaled, or certainly not surpassed, by any man in the State, as will be seen on inspection of our engine; with the additional fact that we can grind 10 bushels and upwards of grain with one of coal. This, with a mill having 5 tons of gearing is among the novelties of the age.

STILL THE BEST IN USE

RICHMOND COLLEGE.

Richmond, the seat of Richmond College, is a pleasant village situated 12 miles from Steubenville on the road to Canton, easy of access from all directions, and in point of morals healthfulness and cheapness of living, the intelligence of the people, &c., it is thought to be unsurpassed for educational purposes by any other village in the county.

This Institution has been in operation for ten years, during which time some 300 young men have enjoyed its advantages; and whilst the changes in the Faculty have been more frequent than, under most circumstances, desirable, yet the College has been uniformly prosperous, and at no time has the Board been more confident of its success than at the present. The past experience and success of the President, Joseph Lindly, A. M., and the qualifications of the professors seem to warrant a large accession of students at the commencement of the coming session.

Faculty.—Joseph Lindly, A. M., Pres. and Prof. of Languages, Mental and Moral Science; James G. Day, assistant Prof. of Mathematics and the Natural Sciences; Wm. D. Archbold, assistant Prof. of Languages.

Tuition $10.00 per session in the classical and Mathematical Department. English Department $6.00.

The opportunity will be offered of boarding in clubs on reasonable terms.

The summer session will commence on the first Wednesday of May, and close on the last Thursday of September.

COME ALONG THEN,

And examine our stock, and we are well satisfied that you cannot get away without buying. We are determined to sell as low as others dare; and if you give us a call we will see that the prices suit you.

Carrollton, April 15, 1853.

A RARE CHANCE.

I wish to sell the farm on which I now reside, situated two miles South of Carrollton, Carroll Co., Ohio. There are about in the tract, the greater part of which is cleared. A very large frame bank-barn, a good brick dwelling with convenient out-buildings are situate near the middle of the land.

400 acres

Carrollton, being a direct Railroad Connection with Cleveland, Pittsburgh and all the rest of the world, and affording a good market for all kinds of produce during the entire year.

For terms inquire of the editor of the "Free Press."
