Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are warned against using these Pills which are poison, and the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their harmlessness would prevent any mischief to health, otherwise these Pills are recommended. OHIO WHITE SULPHUR,

THESE CELEBRATED SPRINGS, (formerly known as "Herr's Springs,") on the Scioto River, 4 miles from Scioto Bridge Station, on the Springfield and Delaware Railroad; 8 miles from Delaware, on the Cleveland and Columbus Railroad, and 17 miles from the City of Columbus, will be opened to the public seeking health or pleasure, on the 25th of May, under auspices and with appointments as will make it Visitor's Chase as a place of resort.
The present proprietors of the Ohio White Sulphur have literally spared no pains in the buildings and general accommodations of the estate, and have fitted and furnished the whole in the exuberance of taste and luxury.
THE GROUNDS ARE UNEXCELLED BY ANY.
The scenery of and near the domain has been thought to be the finest in Ohio; the air is pure and healthy, and the medicinal properties of the wonderful Spring (acting 120 million per minute) are now admitted to possess curative and recuperative influences superior to the famed White Sulphur Springs.
There are attached to the establishment all the accessories found at the first Summer Hotels of the country.
The Saloons, Ball Rooms, and the Hotel are spacious and well kept, and the beautiful drives through the old forests and along the romantic river are singularly attractive, though quite secluded.
Carriages and omnibuses are always in readiness at Columbus and Delaware to convey parties to the Springs.
Arrangements can be made for rooms by addressing ISAAC PAIST, Columbus, Ohio.
For any further general information, reference may be had to Messrs. Andrew, Village & Co., Cincinnati; or Messrs. Falling of the Neil, or Kelsey of the American Hotel, Columbus; or to Mr. Chapkelsky, of the American Hotel, Delaware. April 16, 1858—tf
