About two o'clock last Sunday, fire was discovered in the house occupied by Mr. Gates, on Walnut street. It was soon brought under control however, and did little damage.

W. C. Thrasher was over from Eureka on business the first of the week.

If you want to see what Kansas soil and climate will do, take a look at those beets and potatoes at Bowlus' office.

The following attorneys from abroad were in court yesterday: John R. Goodin, L. W. Keplinger, Wyandotte; W. A. Johnson, Garnett; Mr. Thurber Yates Center; E. A. Barber, G. A. Amos, Humboldt.

A couple of fleetfooted prisoners broke jail last Saturday afternoon and gave Sheriff Worst a lively chase. He succeeded, however, in capturing both of them and will see that they don't get the start of him again.

For the benefit of the readers of this paper who do not already know that the Peerless flour is kept to the highest standard of excellence, we would say that such is the case, while the price is no higher than second rate.

Mrs. Jas. Simpson has just received a large and elegant line of millinery goods, to which she invites the attention of the ladies. She has all the latest full styles and will guarantee satisfaction to those dealing with her.

The ladies' Committee on the G. A. R. fair will meet at Mrs. Stover's next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Important arrangements are to be made, and we are asked to say that a full attendance is particularly desired.

Roll in every one, that wishes to buy groceries. You can get them at the corner grocery, where you see the sign of A. E. Wright. It is the best place in town to buy that class of goods. Fresh maple syrup. A young, nice looking clerk.

Robert Cook is shipping his fine Poland China pigs all over the state. Tuesday he sent two to Cowley county, one to Mitchell county and one to Caldwell county, Mo. He also sold two pigs this week to farmers in Osage township, for $25.00 each.

Miss Ella Stanley, one of the most estimable young ladies of Osage township, and well known in Iola, was married last Thursday to Mr. John Stephens, of Baldwin City. We hear Mr. Stephens highly spoken of, and wish the couple much happiness.

Judge Talcott was sustained in the supreme court on the famous Carpenter divorce case, and now the papers all over the state that have been picking him to pieces had better hasten to make the amende honorable. We consider it a real triumph for Judge Talcott.

It's seldom enough that a printer gets a chance to make money, and when he does he is apt to give his whole attention to it. If this week's REGISTER is a little less newsy than usual, lay it to the fact that the job rooms have required the editor's muscle all week.

Mr. J. H. Paris, who has been engaged in the organ trade in this place for a few weeks, returned to Garnett, his former home, on Monday last, where he took Miss Minnie Lanter as a partner. They returned to Iola, Tuesday but left on the noon train Wednesday for Eldorado, where they will stay about one week, after which they will return to Iola and commence business under the firm name of Mr. and Mrs. Paris.

The March-Davis case is very hotly contested, able counsel representing both sides. Richards & Bogle are for the plaintiff and Hutchings, Coodin & Keplinger for defendants. The case turns mainly on the question as to whether a real partnership existed between the parties.

The Pension Bureau is doing a good thing in sitting down on the "pension sharks" in Washington, who make their living by bleeding old soldiers. It is probable that hereafter all will be excluded except regularly admitted and practising attorneys.

It is with sincere regret that we announce Ira Willett's departure to Humboldt where he goes to work at his trade. As "tuba" in the band; as "double bass" in the orchestra; as star comedy man in the Dramatic Club, and as a good fellow to have around generally, he will be sadly missed.

Whitaker made his "maiden speech" in the defence of the Grantham case. He made a clear, sensible speech, and didn't suffer with "stage fright." Benton also made his first professional appearance in Allen county, and it was undoubtedly one of the most able speeches of the session. Benton will "get there."

T. M. Bartels expects to move his stock of groceries into the south room of Henderson's new building, next week. The room is much larger than the one he now occupies, and "Milt" will show up one of the handsomest groceries in town. Bartels & Stephens will move their harness shop back to the old stand on the corner.

Dr. Boulson & Son are advertising their Catarrh remedy very extensively. There is no doubt that their cure is a sure one, and as nearly every body is afflicted with catarrh to a greater or less degree, they will no doubt have all the business they can attend to. Dr. J. C. Boulson will establish an office at Humboldt, for the treatment of their numerous patients at that place.

Sunshine seems to follow in the wake of some people, while gloom and sorrow enshroud the pathway of others. And why is it? The former make use of Swayne's Pills which act on the system in a manner to keep it healthy; while the latter suffer with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Billious and Sick Headache, Jaundice, Fevers, Female Irregularities, Constipation etc. If they prefer to suffer rather than pay 25 cents for a box of Swayne's Pills, which is warranted to cure all the above ills, why—let them live to suffer.

A General Sampede.

Never was such a rush made for any drug store as is now at W. J. Evans' for a trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. All persons afflicted with asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, severe coughs, or any affliction of the throat or lungs, can get a trial bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at above drug store.

THE LATEST FROM ELECTION.

THE RETURNS ARE ALL IN; SOME ARE ELECTED AND SOME ARE NOT.

And in order to serve my Customers, I am now receiving more New Goods for the Holidays.

B. T. RODMAN'S

Cloaks, Dolmans, Ladies' and Gent's scarlet and white underwear, blankets, comforts, Table covers, towels, napkins, hoods, Scarfs, with a full line of hosiery selling at popular prices.

Thanking my numerous customers for their liberal patronage in the past, I shall endeavor to serve them in the future with good goods and low prices.

Previous to my removal to the new store which is now being finished, next to Cowan's store, I will close out some goods cheap, to save expense of moving them,

Hoping to see my numerous customers and as many more as may favor me with their patronage.
