ElDorado Republican: Just watch the professor. Hold your breath while the fusionists cut down fees and salaries, pass a school book law, blot out the State institutions, enact a new State printer law, cut down bank rates of interest and pass a maximum freight rate bill. Just wait and see the reforms come rolling into the State in great chunks.

Dick Blue: "The Republican party has nothing to be ashamed of in its record and everything to be proud of. Its principles were never higher, better and purer than now. It has been driven from power while seeking to ennoble, strengthen and glorify the nation. Its members will reform the shattered columns and rest on their arms waiting for the first ray of light to renew the conflict. No great principle will be abandoned but all will be honestly and manfully maintained and upheld till victory comes. In the great conflict of 1896, chastened and strengthened, it will go to battle with its old heroism and drive its time honored political adversary from place and power."

Election Echoes Somewhat Personal.

Paola Republican: Chas. F. Scott of Iola will be one of the leading members of the State Senate, who will make his influence felt even in that strongly fusion body. We are exceedingly gratified that Mr. Scott was elected.

Lincoln Republican: Charles F. Scott, one of the brightest of the "young crowd" in Kansas was elected to the State Senate. He will be mighty lonely in that body of Hayseeds as the Pops call themselves. He may form a partnership with Billie Stearnes of Topeka and keep the chaff stirred up a bit just for the fun of it.

Berlington Herald: It is gratifying to the numerous friends of Chas. F. Scott, of Iola, to know that he emerged from the avalanche of wreck and ruin with a safe Republican majority. Mr. Scott will be a conspicuous and useful member of the next body of Kansas Senators.

Florence Bulletin: There are four new notches on the barrel of the young crowd cannon. Charlie Curtis, J. K. Cubbison, Charlie Scott and Ed Little.

Topeka Journal: The young crowd is not badly off after all. Charlie Curtis, J. K. Cubbison, Charlie Scott and Ed Little are doing very well, thank you. What the State needed in the last campaign was a little more "young crowd," which stands for liberal Republicanism.

Hiawatha Democrat: The University boys keep crowding to the front. Charlie Scott of Iola goes to the State Senate from Allen county this year.

DO YOU WANT TO ADOPT A BABY?

Maybe you think this is a new business, sending out babies on application; it has been done before, however, but never have these furnished been so near the original samples as this one. Everyone will exclaim, "Well! that's the sweetest baby I ever saw!" This little black-and-white engraving can give you but a faint idea of the exquisite original.

"I'M A DAISY."

which we propose to send to you, transportation paid. The little darling rests against a pillow, and is in the act of drawing off its pink sock, the mate of which has been pulled off and flung aside with a triumphant coo. The flesh tints are perfect, and the eyes follow you, no matter where you stand. These exquisite reproductions of this greatest painting of Ida Waugh (the most celebrated of modern painters of baby life) are to be given to those who subscribe to Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893. The reproductions cannot be told from the original, which cost $400, and are the same size (12×22 inches). The baby is life size, and absolutely lifelike. We have also in preparation, to present to our subscribers during 1893, other great pictures by such artists as Percy Moran, Maud Humphrey, Louis Deschamps, and others of world-wide renown. Take only two examples of what we did during the past year, "A Yard of Pansies," and "A White House Orchid" by the wife of President Harrison, and you will see what our promises mean.

Those who subscribe for Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893 will possess a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides a Magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep everyone posted on all the topics of the day, and all the fads and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion Magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and we give you, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2, and you will really get over $25 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 16th St., New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send 10 cents for a specimen copy

About working the roads.

EDITOR REGISTER—Among all the public officers elected to serve the public in a local capacity there is none that our people should be more particular about than that of road overseer, and yet as a general thing there is the least pains taken in this selection of all. The most of us believing that anybody that will order out the hands and kill the time will do for this office, and the result can plainly be seen while passing along our public highways.

In the first place the road overseer should be a man of good common sense, and of the best judgment, so that when he expends the time and work to fit up a bad place, put in a drain or water way, that he may make a lasting job of it. It is nothing unusual to see washed out boxes lying by the roadside all the way from six to ten inches in diameter that were put in by an ignorant path master intended to carry a volume of water sufficient to run an old undershot mill, and the result is the first shower that comes that box is washed out, or the grading is washed away and the box remains across the road for a stumbling block for every horse that passes that way, until it is worn out. Again it is too much of a habit our road overseers have of running from place to place giving it a lick and a promise, as Mark Twain terms it, making mud balls, or mud pies, and the result is as above stated. But again our whole road working system is wrong. It would be a much better way for our citizens to pay the money instead of the present way and then let the road working by contract to some responsible party, this would be far better for several reasons. In the first place a man and team can be hired for less by one third than the present price paid $3 per day, and he could be made to do nearly double the work in a day that he does under the present system, and again, we now see many holes and ditches in our roads that are continually being washed out from day to day, and by road working time these washes have made many places in the roads utterly impassible, and I have known places of this kind that it took two or three days hard work to fill, whereas if this work was done by contract, why, the contractor would be out shovel in hand and watching for all breaks of this kind. Of the two evils let's choose the lea st.

Saved from Death by Onions

There has no doubt been more lives of Children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of Onions than any other known remedy, our mothers used to make poultices of them, or a syrup, which was always effectual in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with it which, make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. 50c Sold by Evans Bros. Teacher's Meeting at Geneva.

[The publication of the following report is delayed because it was addressed to the editor personally and was forwarded to him at Oklahoma City. Communications intended for publication should be addressed "The Register, Iola, Kans." —ED.]

The Allen County Teachers' Association met at Geneva, November 5. On account of sickness and for other unavoidable reasons there were but few teachers present. The meeting was called to order at eleven o'clock by President E. C. Remberg and opened by prayer by Rev. S M. Irwin. The secretary being absent, Miss Mabel Marsh, of Geneva, was appointed secretary. Misses Flora Arnold, of Carlyle, and Carrie Leavitt, of Geneva, were appointed press committee, and Rev. Irwin, critic.

The next on the program was instrumental music by Miss Flora Spicer, of Geneva. This was followed by the first month's work in Psychology. Owing to Prof. Pickens' absence, Supt. Barber conducted this lesson, which was very interesting. After a song by the Genova glee club, the Association adjourned for dinner, which was held in the upper room of the building. This was a very interesting part of the program, an exercise in which we all took part without being urged.

After dinner we listened to an anthem by the glee club. Then followed the first month's work in History of Education. In Prof. Estey's absence L. L. Carter took charge of this lesson, which was well conducted and was both interesting and instructive. This was followed by a solo by Herbert Spicer. The next was a paper on "Roman Art and Education," written by Mrs. Estey. She could not be present, but sent her paper, which was read by Miss Sarah McGuire. We next listened to an excellent paper by Supt. Barber, "Teacher's Need of a Knowledge of Psychology." Mr. Barber's ideas on this subject are of the best. Then followed the critic's report, then the roll call. The response, "How we observed Columbus Day," showed that the day had been well observed by the schools of the county.

A vote of thanks was extended the citizens of Geneva for their excellent entertainment, and also to the teachers of adjoining counties, several of whom were present, for their attendance. After music by the glee club, the association adjourned to meet at Savonburg December 3.

This was the first meeting of the association at Geneva and was much enjoyed by the citizens, quite a number of whom were present. It was a pleasant and profitable meeting for all.

Climatology.

Increased attention is being paid this important subject. A chair of "Climatology" was recently founded at the Rush Medical College, in Chicago. Most conservative physicians prefer to send people with catarrh, delicate throats or lungs to the balmy air of the South, provided the exhilarating air of the sea can be included. This admirable and necessary combination is furnished the northerner at North Galveston, a few miles north of Galveston proper on the sheltered and beautiful Galveston bay. The North Galveston Association is prepared to furnish opportunities of a life time to the investor; the merchant; the artisan; the invalid—or to any person to whom life in a charming bracing climate is desirable. Call upon or write their Iola agent, W. A. Cummings, for full information.

Small in size, great in results: DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best pills for Constipation, best for Sick Headache, best for Sour Stomach. They never gripe. Cowan & Ausherman.

Pears' Soap

People have no idea how crude and cruel soap can be.

It takes off dirt. So far, so good; but what else does it do?

It cuts the skin and frets the under-skin; makes redness and roughness and leads to worse. Not soap, but the alkali in it.

Pears' Soap has no free, alkali in it. It neither reddens nor roughens the skin. It responds to water instantly; washes and rinses off in a twinkling; is as gentle as strong; and the after-effect is every way good.

All sorts of stores sell it, especially druggists; all sorts of people use it.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

Only a bit of white ribbon,
Brought by a woman's hand.
Only a bit of ribbon,
Yet it helped a man to stand.
Only a bit of ribbon,
But it bore a great command,
"Be true to God, my brother,
Your home and your native land."

Only a bit of white ribbon,—
From depths known to God and you
It led your steps to the heights,
Where dwell the pure and true.
Only a bit of white ribbon,
And now your duty lies,
To stretch your hands to the fallen
And say, "In His name, arise."

Only a bit of ribbon,—
In homes where the hearts were sad,
The Angel of Deliverance
Came, with welcome glad.
Dead ashes on hearth and altar,
Dead hopes beneath the snow,—
Only a bit of ribbon,—
Hope lives and firesides glow.

Only a bit of ribbon,
Worn by a feeble hand
Which earth's great ones scorn,
And the wise deem a rope of sand;
Only a bit of ribbon,
And yet we know in God's hand
Its strength saved you, my brother,
And can save our native land.

At the recent national W. C. T. U. convention Frances E. Willard was elected president for the fourteenth time, by a vote of 333 out of 338.

The national secretary reported an increase of membership and strengthening all along the line. The number of auxiliary unions is 7,664.

The committee on credentials reported a representation from forty-two States, five territories and the District of Columbia.

It has been decided to hold the World's W. C. T. U. convention in Chicago, June 8 and 9.

Here is one of Prof. David Swing's strong, pointed sayings: "There is a small light and a large light in which any matter may be viewed. The man who rents his house for an injurious purpose says: "If I did not let out my house some other man would let the same applicant have his tenement and I would lose my income without helping the world's morality." This is the lower form of thought; the higher criticism says that each man must protect the whiteness of his own soul; each man must be true and just, cost what it may. The great question for each is his own personal righteousness. The house must stand empty because the owner's soul cannot afford to be dragged through the mud. When 'B' finds that he has accepted as a tenant a man whom 'A' would not harbor for a single day, then 'B' must feel the inferiority of his soul. Thus 'A' by his unbending integrity lifts up the surrounding society. The people must be able to see somewhere the spectacle of a higher life."
