10,000,000 FILIPINOS WANT INDEPENDENCE

Gov. Harrison Speaks Before Knickerbocker Club. Says Native Officials Are Honest and Efficient.

Washington, April 26.—"It is, as it always has been, the purpose of the people of the United States to withdraw their sovereignty over the Philippine islands and to recognize their independence as soon as a stable government can be established therein."

This is the official hope that the American government has held out to 10,000,000 Filipinos ever since American occupation.

Now comes the Filipino, through the Philippine mission, bringing an imposing array of proof to the effect that there is already a stable government in the Philippines. They also point to the testimony of Governor General Harrison and Acting Governor Yeater, the two highest American officials in the islands, who in the light of their experience in the Philippines agree not only that a stable government can be established, but that one is already in existence.

The Philippine mission asks, therefore, that independence now be granted at the earliest possible date. The mission is an official body. It was appointed by the Philippine legislature at the behest of the Filipino people to come to the United States at this time and work for independence, and "to promote better understanding, greater confidence, and closer economic relations between the United States and the Philippines."

Here is what Governor Harrison, who has been for six years governor general of the islands, said on the subject of Philippine independence, while speaking at the Knickerbocker club in New York:

"By temperament, by experience, by financial ability, in every way the 10 millions of Filipinos are entitled to be free from every government except of their own choice. They are intelligent enough to decide for themselves.

"I have found the native Filipino official to be honest, efficient and as capable of administering executive positions as any men I have met anywhere in the world.

"These officials are today governing 1,000 municipalities and 42 provinces, economically, efficiently and for the good of the entire people. They have a native congress including many graduates of Yale, Princeton, Harvard and other American universities. Other members are graduates of Santo Tomas and other Philippine universities, and in education and ability they compare favorably with any Congress.

"They have leaders like Speaker Osmena, of the house of representatives, and President Quezon, of the senate, who would adorn any office.

"The Philippines are away ahead of the United States in successful government ownership and operation of public utilities.

"The government took hold of the steam railways and made them pay a profit of 1,065,000 pesos a year more than under private ownership.

"It took hold of the highways and we have 7,000 miles of the best macadamized roads in the world. The Manila city government is about to take over the street railways and the gas and electric plants, while the territorial government is arranging for ownership and control of the coal supply.

"The movement for independence is a peaceful one. No territory was more loyal to Uncle Sam during the war. It offered an armed and equipped division to our government, gave it a submarine destroyer, and oversubscribed Liberty loans and Red Cross funds.

"Two million natives speak English fluently, and there are 700,000 English-speaking children in the public schools.

"I am more than willing to retire if the Filipinos can be granted what they deserve—a government like that of the United States.

"There is no present indication that Japan covets the Philippines. The Japanese do not thrive in the Philippine islands—the climate seems to be too tropical for them. There are only 10,000 Japanese on the islands."

FAMOUS WOMEN

The Carys.

This is the 99th anniversary of the birth of Alice Cary, the elder of the two sisters whose poetical and prose works were very popular for many years. Alice and Phoebe Cary were born at Mount Healthy, near Cincinnati. They had but slight educational advantages. Alice first attracted attention by some sketches of rural life published in a newspaper under the pen name of "Patty Lee," and thenceforth became a frequent contributor to periodicals. Phoebe, four years the junior of Alice, also gained quite a reputation as a writer of verses, and in 1850 the sisters published a joint volume of their poetical works. Alice Cary's best known work is "Clovernoon," a collection of sketches dealing with western life. The sisters removed to New York in 1852, and Alice died there early in 1871, while Phoebe died at Newport a few months later.

Sport GOSSIP — News NOTES

THOUSAND ATHLETES IN PENN RELAY MEET

(By United Press.)

Philadelphia, April 26.—More than a thousand athletes, representing 374 colleges, high schools, prep and grammar schools are scheduled to compete in the annual Penn relay carnival, held here to day and tomorrow.

In all, 117 college teams, 119 high school teams, 57 preparatory school teams and 71 grammar school teams are represented. The assortment of prizes to be awarded is believed to be the largest ever offered at an inter-scholastic athletic event. The games will be held on Franklin field, at the University of Philadelphia.

The entries in the college relays are better than ever before and fast records are promised. Every college and university of any importance, in the country, except Yale and Illinois, is represented. More entries than can be conveniently accommodated are entered in the relays and it will be necessary to eliminate some of them in pre-event contests.

Dopsters have been unable to pick possible winners in any of the events. In each, at least four teams seem to have equal chances. In the mile, Pittsburg, Penn State, Chicago university, Missouri and M. I. T. have good teams.

Columbia, Chicago, Notre Dame and Harvard are in a class by themselves in the two-mile event, while Cornell, Iowa State, Chicago, and Lafayette look like the best bets in the four-mile quarters.

Picking winners in the sprints and distance medley relays is virtually an impossibility on account of the numerous entries.

In conjunction with the meet, Hill, Exeter, and Mercersburg will have their annual battle for the prep school champions.

Championship lists are as follows:

One mile relay—Penn, Columbia, Darthmouth, Missouri, Cornell, M. I. T., Princeton, Northwestern, Boston college, Penn, and Pittsburg.

Two miles—Pittsburg, Harvard, Penn State, Chicago, Princeton, Cornell, Darthmouth, M. I. T., Columbia, and Syracuse.

Four miles—Penn, Harvard, Columbia, Syracuse, Cornell, Iowa State Princeton, Lafayette, Chicago, and Wisconsin.

Sprint medley—Penn, Columbia, Darthmouth, Missouri, Lehigh, Chicago, Princeton, Northwestern, Iowa State, and Pittsburg.

Distance medley—Darthmouth, Penn, Columbia, Syracuse, Lehigh, Princeton, Boston, Lafayette, Iowa State, Chicago, Pittsburg, and Wisconsin.

One-mile freshman—Virginia, Princeton, Penn, Columbia and State.

TENNIS CLUB ASKS USE OF PLAYGROUND

Organization Selects William Ebbage As Its President.

Steps toward securing permanent use of the courts at the Clark playgrounds and the annual election of officers featured the meeting of the Butte Tennis club held Thursday night. The gathering was held at the home of Dr. Alfred Karstead.

Members of the club met last night with the members of the city council playgrounds committee to urge action by the council granting the club permission to use the playground courts. A petition from the club was presented at the last meeting of the city council and at that time was referred to the playgrounds committee for action.

Officers elected at the session last night were:

William Ebbage, president; Miss Marie Egan, vice president; Miss Jessie Roscow, secretary-treasurer. Only routine business was transacted. Another meeting, at which all tennis enthusiasts are invited, will be held May 3 at the home of Miss Roscow, 1047 Utah avenue.

MANY WAR STAMPS BOUGHT IN COUNTY

War savings stamps purchased in Silver Bow county up to March 31, 1919, amounted to $51,595.87, one-fourth of the total for the state, according to figures made public by James R. Spencer, vice director for the state. The purchase in some of the other counties show that Fergus was second with $29,087.68; Yellowstone county bought $11,324.83; Missoula, $10,924.10; Deer Lodge, $6,982.48; Beaverhead, $3,179.08; Lewis and Clark, $7,609.90; Gallatin, $5,806.37; Jefferson, $3,155.40 and Cascade, $8,260.56. Wibaux county was at the foot of the list with $83.07. The total for the state is $205,350.50.

SPORTOGRAPHY

By "GRAVY."

The minds of boxing fans will be turned toward Newark, N. J., next Monday evening when Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, and his recent conqueror, Willie Richie, will stage their return battle at the First Regiment armory in that city. The weight will be 142 ringside, and they will split a purse of $25,000. Ever since Leonard and Ritchie fought that sensational four-round bout on the coast, every big club in the country has been trying to bring them together for a return match, but the Newark club was the only one that could afford to meet the terms. Leonard has just passed his 23d birthday.

Jack Dempsey has managed to obtain a sparring partner who is almost as big as Jess Willard. The man is Dan Dailey, the Pittsburgh giant, who was active in the ring a few years ago, when the white hope craze was at its height. Dailey's record is not an inspiring one, but he once stopped Al Palzer. He is game and willing and is sure to be of great help to Dempsey, who likes to fight at top speed even in his workouts. Dempsey has had a hard time locating boxers who were willing to take his terrific blows, and he considers himself very lucky to have signed Dailey.

"Dutch" Leonard Celebrates His 27th Birthday Today.

"Dutch" Leonard, whom the Yankees have been trying in vain to induce to return to the fold, and who is pitching ball for the Fresno club at fancy prices, will round out his 27th year today, as he was born April 26, 1892. He is a native of the Buckeye state and was christened Hubert. His youth was spent in California, the Leonards residing in Fresno, to which city he has now returned, and where Frank Chance first saw the light of day, and "Chief" Meyers made his baseball debut. Leonard's family were musicians, and "Dutch" was a trap-drummer. When he went to St. Mary's college—a California institution which has probably turned out more good ball players than any other in America—he abandoned his ambition to become an orchestra leader, and looked forward to a career on the professional diamond. His work as a hurler at St. Mary's attracted the attention of Connie Mack, and "Dutch" was given a trial with the Athletics when he was only 18. The following year he received a call from the Boston Red Sox, but he soon was released optionally to Worchester, and that club transferred him to Denver. Leonard won 22 games for the Grizzlies and lost only nine in 1912, and quickly became a favorite with the Western league fans. He was recalled to the Red Sox for the 1913 season, and won 14 and lost 16 games his first year in the big show. In 1914 he had a record of 19 victories and five defeats, and in 1915 he won 14 and lost seven games, Boston winning the pennant that year. In the world's series of that season he also accounted for one victory.

Early "Talent" at the Shepperton Boxing Tournament.

Hen Pearce, the famous "Game Chicken" of the early days of boxing, defeated Stephen Carte in 25 rounds at Shepperton, England, on this date in 1805. This battle for the championship was the feature event of a great pugilistic tournament which attracted to Shepperton tens of thousands of sports from all over England and Ireland. Carte was a farmer from near Birmingham and stood six feet three inches, while Pearce was half a foot shorter and correspondingly lighter. Despite this difference in stature, the little man had no trouble in defending his title. After the main fight Jack O'Donnell, the Irish champion, fought Tom Belcher, brother of Jem, the ex-champion, and had all the best of it, but quit without apparent cause. After this fluke, and when the disgraced Irishman had been chased by the crowd, Dutch Sam, the famous Hebrew fighter, bested Bob Britton. Many women witnessed the bouts, among them the famous Lady Lade, who had been the sweetheart of "Sixteen String Jack," the highwayman, and the mistress of the Duke of York, before she became the bride of Sir John Lade, after which she became the sweetheart of Colonel Thornton.

TO PLACARD ROADS WITH DANGER SIGNS

Aroused over the recent fatal accident on the flat in which Mrs. L. A. May and her baby grandson were killed, the county commissioners yesterday afternoon decided to place between 30 and 40 "Slow Down" signs at points along the most widely used roads entering the city.

REPEAT EASTER PROGRAM.

The full program of music rendered during the Easter services at St. Patrick's church last Sunday will be repeated tomorrow in order to permit the hundreds who were unable to gain admittance to the church last Sunday to hear it. The program is said to be the finest ever presented in Butte.
