with a prospect of [illegible] falling prices. Reports from Europe of a yesterday are all receiding. The [illegible] is clear and oppressively warm.

We learn by a telegraphic dispatch, received by Messrs. Dewar, Agnew & Co., that the fine powerful steamer Northerner, commanded by Captain Triplett, will arrive this morning from Louisville, and return at five o'clock. The Southerner is the counterpart of the Northerner in her build and mechanism, and if she has as clever officers on board as the latter boat we insure that she will become a great favorite in the trade which we understand she intends plying in. We think the trade and travel between Louisville and Memphis warrants placing a second boat in the line, and we welcome the Southerner to our landing as that packet.

The fine St. Louis packet Winchester, under command of Captain Will Wood, arrived early yesterday afternoon with a fine load. She is the regular packet for St. Louis this afternoon at three o'clock. Her accommodations are equal to those of any boat on the river, while her speed is surpassed by few. Having accommodating officers, we promise all who take passage on her the best and kindest treatment. She connects with the Illinois Central Railroad at Cairo, and touches at all the landings between this and St. Louis.

The fine steamer Resolute departed last evening, crowded with passengers.

The fleet and popular Kate Frisbee will leave this afternoon, at two o'clock, for Helena, mouth of White river and Napoleon, carrying the U. S. Mail, and connecting with the White river mail packets. Her accommodations are superior and we commend her to the traveling community as a safe boat, with obliging officers on board.

The fine steamer Hickman was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Memphis, yesterday. She will probably arrive on Monday.

We copy the following from the St. Louis Republican of Tuesday:

"The river at this point had fallen about three inches at dark last evening. The Missouri is reported falling all the way from St. Joseph down, by the last arrival. We have no change to report in the Upper Mississippi and Illinois river. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the city was visited by a very acceptable shower of rain, which completely laydd the dust and effectually cooled the air, which had been extremely hot and sultry during the former part of the day. Business on the levee was dull, and arrivals were not numerous."

☞ We are under obligations to Mr. WM. STEWART, agent of The Adams Express Company, for late Montgomery and Philadelphia papers.

☞ All the members of the Chickasaw Blues are requested to meet at the office of D. M. DuBose, Esq., No. 221 Main street, at 8 o'clock, this Friday evening, by order of the Secretary.

CRIMINAL COURT.—We are requested to state for the information of all parties interested, that the Misdemeanor Docket will be finally disposed of to-day. Parties who wish to avoid the cost of forfeitures, would do well to act upon this hint, and be in attendance.

EDITOR APPEAL: I find in your yesterday's paper something cut from a Philadelphia paper of the 8th, purporting to be a telegraphic dispatch from New Orleans—dated the 6th instant—in reference to the cotton market. In reply to your remarks, I can assure you that no such dispatch was ever sent by the Associated Press of Reporter, as a copy of everything sent North from New Orleans comes to me, and is published in the daily papers.

J. R. DRAKE,
Agent New York Associated Press, at Memphis.

BUFFY CITY CADETS.—Pursuant to notice, the members of this company met last evening and organized by selecting Mr. STERLING FOWLKES, Jr., as Chairman, and appointing Mr. C. G. LOCKE, Secretary.

The object of the meeting being stated in a few brief remarks by the Chairman, on motion the company went into an election of officers, which resulted as follows:

Captain—S. FOWLKES, Jr.
First Lieutenant—THOS. A. ROGERS.
Second Lieutenant—D. J. DESMONT.
Third Lieutenant—C. GRAHAM.

THE TRUSTEES of this institution take pleasure in announcing to the patrons of the Institute, and the public generally, that they have secured the services of late President of West Tennessee College, to preside over this Institution. They deem the major association of the fact a sufficient guaranty to their claims for public patronage. Doctor Holmes, as all, has resided for the last thirty years, has established a character in West Tennessee, which, we are fully aware does not require the recommendation of this Board to meet public approval. He will associate with him Mr. GEORGE D. HOLMES, and a full corps of instructors in English, Classical and Ornamental Literature. His system of instruction will not differ materially from that of his predecessor Mr. Allen.

Young Ladies returning to the School will not be under the necessity of changing their seat books.
