Land for Sale.
FIFTEN Hundred and Sixty Acres of Arkansas River Land, near Dear Lake, entirely above water, and in a few miles of Pine Bluff. Apply to J. MOORE, Whitehaven P. O., Prairie county, Arkansas. may15-w4m

For Sale!
I OFFER for sale the Hundred and twenty acres of Land, fourteen miles Northwest of Somerville, on the Jackson road, known as the former residence of Stephen Jarman. The place is well improved, has a good framed dwelling house and cardinal out houses, gin-house, with gin and fixtures, smokehouse, &c. There is on the premises an extensive orchard, with all kinds of fruits grown in the country. There are two hundred and fifty acres of land in cultivation, and the remaining portion well timbered. Apply to the undersigned, on the place. R. P. JARMON, may15-dawtf Black Oak Grove, Tenn.

FOR SALE.
THE subscriber offers for sale the tract of land on which he now resides, in Haywood county, Tennessee, through which the Memphis and Ohio Railroad passes. This tract contains short four hundred acres. The improvements consist of a five frame dwelling, with ten rooms, negro quarters, gin house, stables, one steam cotton gin mill, good orchards, and all the necessary improvements for a large farm, or can be conveniently divided into several small ones. For health and fertility of soil this place is unsurpassed by any in the country. For further particulars apply to the undersigned on the premises. THOS. SHAPARD. decl0-dawtf

A Bargain to be had in Lands.
I WILL sell the tract of Land on which I live, Tipton county, Miss., six miles west of Ripley, on Wolf River, by road, containing Eight Hundred Acres, five hundred of the very best creek bottom—the balance second bottom and upland. There are about one hundred acres cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements are good and new, consisting of a Dwelling house, and all necessary out houses. The above tract of land, I have no hesitation in saying is equal to any land in North Mississippi for raising Cotton, Corn or oats, as the range is for both Winter and Summer. For particulars address me, or I refer to Dardanelle Blair & Blair, Memphis; John W. Thompson, Ripley, Miss.; W. C. Hunt, Holly Springs, or to myself on the premises. may15-w2t J. J. PRIGUS.

LaGrange Female College.
THE FIFTH SESSION of this new and popular Institution, will commence on MONDAY, 14th September next, under the supervision of the Rev. SAMUEL W. SPEER, D. D., assisted by a full and competent corps of Teachers.
The College Buildings are new, large and commodious, peculiarly fitted and arranged for Female Education, with a large and well ventilated Hall upon the second floor, with the most improved desks and seats.
Our President is now East selecting Furniture, Instruments and Apparatus, for the present session, of the style, and well, by the commencement of the session, will have everything necessary for the advancement of Female Education.
The superior advantages of this College, being on the great thoroughfare of the Mobile and Charleston Railroad—and in one of the healthiest and most beautiful villages of the South, warrants us in promising to the public and the patronage of this Institution one of the most superior character.
Ample preparations are being made for the accommodation of the boarders, of which there are many.

HUNTSVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE,
HUNTSVILLE, ALA.
THE next session of this popular Institution will open on MONDAY, the 7th of September, and continue the whole scholastic year without intermission. The Faculty comprises ten teachers, all of whom, except two European Professors, are Southern born and Southern educated teachers. Neither pains nor expense has been spared to render this a MODEL Boarding School.
The health of Huntsville has always been proverbial. Its beautiful hills and mountains, and clear streams, must ever make it a retreat for people of the South; and for other considerations equally as strong, there can be found nowhere a locality so admirably adapted to a female institution of high grade.
Considering the literary and ornamental advantages this Institution offers, its moderate terms, its healthfulness, and the students' attention given to the pupil, the prospects are that it will be as great as other institutions less carefully regulated.

Melainotypes
surpass all others in richness of tone, fidelity of expression, completeness of detail, and boldness of feature. For durability they are unequaled, and their superiority they will receive a fair without a fracture—a bend without injury; may be washed off when soiled, be handled with the fingers, and yet last for years. They are acceptable at high and very beautiful ordinary.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.
The Numbers from 1 to 3345, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are enclosed with small tin tubes and placed in one wheel.
The first 205 Prizes, similarly printed and enclosed, are placed in another wheel.
The whole are then mixed, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.
APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 20 Prizes will be entitled to the 20 Approximation Prizes. For example, if the Ticket No. 1320 draws a $200 Prize, then Tickets numbered 1124, 1129, 1321, 1325, will each be entitled to $175. If Ticket No. 600 draws the $20,000 Prize, then Tickets numbered 548, 549, 651, 652, will each be entitled to $200, and so on, according to the above scheme.
☞ The $2,000 Prize of $375 will be determined by the last figure of the number that draws the $63,000 Prize. For example, if the Numbers drawing $60,000 Prize ends with 35, then all the Tickets have the number ends with 35 will be entitled to $375. If the Number ends with No. 2, then all the Tickets where the number ends in 2 will be entitled to $40, and so on to 9.

A CARD.
OUR NEW FIRM.
It affords me pleasure to announce to my friends and the public that I have associated with me my former partner, JAS. S. WILKINS, and my well-known assistant, THOS. HILL, under the familiar style of F. H. CLARK & CO.
The new firm will start with an efficient force in each mechanical branch, the Watch department being under the supervision of Mr. Wilkins.
The firm will add thereto the latest fashions, and prices as low as the same quality and style of goods can be purchased in Philadelphia or New York.
I am thankful for the liberal patronage extended to me during my fifteen years' residence in Memphis, and my aim will be to merit its continuance.
