THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1857.

$30 REWARD.

The first and second bound volumes of the WEEKLY APPEAL are missing from our office. They are the only bound volumes of this paper now extant. We will give the above reward for their discovery and delivery at our office, or we will give ten dollars for either of the volumes.

☞ All persons having books belonging to the APPEAL Library, are requested to return them, and all persons are requested not to ask for the loan of books hereafter, as no such request can be complied with.

☞ All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers, as they are not authorized to sell them. An observance of this request will greatly oblige the publishers.

KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.

We have repeatedly cautioned our readers against the unscrupulous frauds of the Sag Nichts. The recent telegraphic reports of Sag-Nicht victories in Kentucky, which have been so industriously circulated here, are wholly without reliance, and gotten up for party bias.

Our readers will recollect that a few weeks ago the telegraph had Bullock, the Sag-Nicht candidate for Judge, in the Louisville, Ky., District, elected by a handsome majority. Well, when true returns could be had, it turned out that the telegraph had lied, and that Wheat, the American candidate, received a larger majority than Fillmore in the same District.—Enquirer of yesterday.

All the reports referred to by the Enquirer, came from Mr. TYLER, Agent of the Associated Press at Louisville, who, we learn, is a Know-Nothing of the first water and they were sent to us through the Agent of the Associated Press, here Mr. DRAKE, who is also an "intense American." Notwithstanding these facts, in charity, we should be slow to believe that the particular friends of the Enquirer would intentionally misrepresent facts or mislead the public. At all events it cannot be just to hold the Democracy responsible for the mistakes, intentional or unintentional, of Know-Nothing reporters.

VIRGINIA AND KENTUCKY.

These two gallant States—the homes of WASHINGTON, JEFFERSON and CLAY—have emphatically condemned Know-Nothingism and Distribution by glorious majorities in their recent elections. Shall the land of JACKSON and the State of POLK and JONES lag behind them. Let her speak in thunder tones, No!

☞ We are again placed under obligations to Adams Express Company for late Eastern papers.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—We see by the catalogue of this institution that the present session closed with 645 students.

☞ Let the Democracy of Tennessee remember the deeds of their brothers in Virginia and Kentucky, and not be content to fall below them.

☞ Messrs. BYERS and COTTEN, clerks of the fleet steamer Resolute, will accept our thanks for files of late dates of Cincinnati and Louisville papers.

☞ It will be seen by a notice in our columns this morning that a meeting of the Bluff City Cadets is to be held at Exchange Building to-night. The members are all requested to be in attendance.

☞ L. J. DUPREE, Esq., announces that his connection with the Evening News terminated on Thursday last. Mr DUPREE is a fluent, ready and forcible writer, and we trust that he may meet with success in whatever pursuit he may engage hereafter.

☞ It is requested by the Mayor that all coffee-houses be closed to-day, until the polls are closed this evening. It is hoped that this request will be complied with. The custom has resulted beneficially heretofore, and if observed will, no doubt, prevent unpleasant casualties to-day.

☞ Let every Democrat examine his ticket carefully to-day, before disposing of it in the ballot-box. The Know-Nothings are good at charging tricking upon Democracy, while we know by experience that on election days they are prolific in tricking themselves. We are justified by the past, in cautioning our friends to beware of spurious tickets.

☞ The Know-Nothings don't like the news from Kentucky. They say it is bogus, and that the "flying telegraph" furnished it. What will they think of its confirmation this morning? Why don't they telegraph some of their leaders at Louisville to furnish them better news? Alas! their leaders at Louisville are quite as chopfallen as themselves.

☞ Both the Eagle and the News affect to discredit the election news from Kentucky. We can assure them that it is all true. If it be not true, why is it not contradicted? Why do not the Know-Nothings here telegraph to PRENTICE and get a correct report? The telegraph is open to all, and the public may rest assured that our neighbors would have had the news themselves if it had been at all favorable to their side.

☞ The attention of our planting friends is invited to the card of Messrs. STEWART & KING, who are again candidates for their favor and custom. They are reliable and experienced business men, and having suffered severely by the late fire, ask the encouragement and favor of their old friends and customers, and will be pleased to receive the patronage of as many new ones as may choose to entrust them with their business.

☞ Our old friend SAMUEL BENTON, Esq., of Mississippi, addressed the Know-Nothings of Memphis last night, at Odd Fellows' Hall. As is usual he made a good speech for his side of the house; but we could not mistake the fact that the recent Democratic victory in Kentucky weighed heavily upon him, while he was attempting to administer a little comfort to his Know-Nothing brethren. He had a large audience who gave him a respectable hearing, the "intense Americans" preserving their spirits about as well as could be expected under all the circumstances of the case.

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM MEMPHIS.—It would be strange indeed if the citizens of Memphis did not feel some pride of locality. We believe they do. How then can they better signify this feeling than by yielding a cordial and generous support to their own townsman—TOM AVERY? Moreover, the people of Memphis will consult their best interests by voting for and electing him. A Memphis man, who will have, as he will deserve, the confidence of the party in power, will be better able to serve us in all local matters that may come before Congress or the Departments, than a mere stranger who reflects only the will of a powerless faction. When you come to cast your vote to-day, you should reflect who has in the highest degree the capacity and power to represent you in the Federal Legislature; who will do it most faithfully, and can do it most efficiently. We think TOM AVERY is the man.

☞ Voltaire once met Pierre, his mortal enemy, in debate at an evening party. He immediately informed the hostess that he should leave instantly unless Pierre should agree to speak not more than three words during the evening. The latter consented, and remained silent under the abuse of his antagonist. As the company were about separating, Voltaire remarked in his conversation that upon a certain occasion, being quite famished, he had eaten more oysters than Sampson slew of the Philistines. "And with the same instrument," immediately retorted Pierre.

SYRIAN WHEAT.—A gentleman from Alabama received from the Patent Office some spring wheat from the Sea Parts of Abraham, at the foot of Mount Carmel, in the Holy Land, which he sowed during the last Spring. It came to maturity in seven weeks, producing a large full head, with a berry in every respect equal to the original. This wheat is reputed to ripen in Syria in sixty days from sowing. It will thus be seen that our climate hastened its period of maturity eleven days.

☞ A clergyman not a thousand miles from Amherst, was lately suspected by his clerical brethren of preaching heresy. He asked and obtained leave to set forth his views in a sermon—which was read, and unanimously pronounced heretical and absurd, and the poor clergyman was about to be expelled, when he arose, and with a very long face proceeded to electrify his brethren with the announcement that the sermon they had listened to was none other than Dr. Chalmer's thirty-second lecture on Romans! That clergyman is not yet "in contempt."

☞ In France a larger amount of property is insured than in England, as by the laws of that country a tenant must answer for a fire, unless he can prove that it happened by accident.

Port of Memphis.

River Matters.

The departure of these boats only, which advertise with us, is noticed in our river column.

Our wharf at present is almost abandoned, there being but few arrivals and no freight. At a late hour last evening the new steamer Resolute, from Cincinnati, took mooring at the foot of Monroe street landing. She reports the Ohio river rising, and freights scarce.

The ever punctual mail boat, Kate Frisbee, came in yesterday evening, bringing about sixty passengers.

The fine steamer Ben Franklin was due from Cairo last evening, but had not arrived at a late hour. She will be at the wharf to-day to take all freights and passengers for the South.

The Evansville will be here from White river this evening, and will return, as advertised, to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock.

The well-known steamer National, is advertised to be here this evening from Louisville, and return to-morrow evening at 3 o'clock for the above port. This packet is too well known between this port and the Ohio to need say more about her. She proves what she is.

The beautiful steamer Southerner, as will be seen in our columns, is the Saturday packet for St. Louis. She will be here to-morrow morning.

The steamers Rodolph and Winchester, having both met with accidents on their trips up from St. Louis, will not be here to-day as advertised.

☞ The Louisville Journal, of the 3d inst. says:

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.—The river is still falling. Last evening there were six feet seven inches water in the canal. There is now water enough for the largest boats from this point to Cairo. The weather has been warm and dry, but we learn, from the officers of the mail boat, that a heavy rain fell at Cincinnati on Saturday.

☞ The Little Rock Gazette and Democrat says:

The river has risen about six inches this week. At this time it has about three feet water in the channel, and rising slowly. The rains which have fallen this week, may, probably, make a rise of a foot or two more; but this is uncertain.

A Reward is Offered!

For the detection of any person counterfeiting, imitating, or the vender of any such counterfeit or imitation of BURNHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS. The genuine, highly concentrated Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, having the name of the proprietor, B. PAUL SR., blown in them, and his signature around the neck of each and every bottle.

This delightful Aroma has been received by Americans, with that favor which is only extended to really scientific preparations. When we consider the marked success attending its administration, in the most stubborn cases of Fever and Ague, Weakness of any kind, Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Indigestion, Costiveness and Piles, together with the complete control it exercises over all Nervous Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, we cannot wonder at its popularity. Well may the invalid value this remedy.
