Episcopal Church, corner of Adams and Second streets, Rev Dr. C. T. QUINTARD, Rector. Services at 11 A. M., and 7½ P. M.

SUNDAY APPEAL.—Copies of this morning's issue may be purchased, as usual, at our business desk on Madison street, until 10 o'clock, A. M.

☞ We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Hon. RICHARD H. STANTON, late Representative in Congress from Kentucky, and a brother of the Hon. F. P. STANTON.

☞ See the professional card of Maj. USTHANK. He will hereafter devote himself exclusively to the practice of the law.

☞ Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. PROVINE & FRAZER, who offer to give a suitable reward for the apprehension and conviction of a horse thief.

☞ The general meeting of the Stockholders in the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company will take place at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday, the 10th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. A general attendance of Stockholders is expected.

THE BANK OF PARIS.—This bank, the notes of which, for the past few days, have been uncurrent in some portions of the State, has been purchased by Messrs. Sheppard and Wheless, of this city, who promptly redeem its notes. It is now as sound as any bank in the State.—Nashville Union.

REVIVAL AT ASBURY CHAPEL.—The revival of religion which has been going on for sometime past at Asbury Chapel, in South Memphis, is still progressing, and the interest increasing. We learn that the number of persons who have made profession of religion so far, is forty-three, and hope is entertained that numbers more will be added unto the Church, "of such as shall be saved."

COULDN'T STAND IT.—About 11 o'clock, a Know Nothing of this city, on going to bed, heard a rooster crow. He was not in the best humor in the world, having heard the result in Shelby county, and instantly went out and ordered his cook to take off the rooster's head, and prepare him for breakfast next morning. The deed was done—old chanticleer had crowed his last crow, though not until it was known that our city, county and State were all redeemed.

☞ Mr. CLAY, of the Huntsville Democrat, is now on a visit to our city. The use of our sanctum is at his service during his sojourn in Memphis. We learn from him that all the Congressional Districts of Alabama have elected Democratic Representatives. This unanimity of sentiment in the several sections of the State, taken in connection with the fact that there was no opposing candidate for Governor, places our sister State, Alabama, at the head of the battalions of Democracy. There let her remain until Tennessee is ready to dispute her claim to the proud and patriotic position.

☞ A large and enthusiastic gathering of the friends of Mr. AVERY, our Representative elect to Congress, met on the corner of Court and Second streets last night, to express their hearty approval of the choice made by this Congressional District. The band of the No. 4's was present, and enlivened the occasion with a beautiful serenade. It must have been truly grateful to one of so noble a mind to be thus complimented by his fellow-citizens; as "no man it be a salutary lesson to those who have been so bitter in their denunciations of him. Such is always the reward of true merit.

☞ Owing to the fact that the telegraph line is down somewhere between Memphis and Nashville, we have had no replies to our dispatches addressed to Nashville, asking for the latest election news. We hope to be able, however, in our issue of Tuesday, and our Weekly of Wednesday, to give a pretty correct idea of the result of the election. The Democracy of this division of the State have brought up their end of the column, and we have no reason to doubt that Middle and East Tennessee have fallen short of their duty. If other portions of the State have come up to what we have a right to expect of them, Know-Nothingism and its leaders in Tennessee have gone "the way of all flesh."

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.—We have not sufficient returns to give the majorities, but the following Congressmen have been elected: Democrats: Burnett, Peyton, Jewett, Talbott, Elliott, Clay, Mason and Stevenson. The Know-Nothings have elected Humphrey Marshall by a greatly reduced vote. In the third district, the race between Jos. H. Lewis, Democrat, and W. L. Underwood, American, is close, and the result uncertain. The returns, so far as heard from, are very favorable to Mr. Lewis, but we doubt whether he will gain enough in the rest of the counties to elect him. Reports were in circulation that Anderson was coming up to beat Talbott, but his gains are not sufficient, if continued; and when he gets through Boyle, Lincoln, and Casey counties, his gains will cease, in all probability. In short, the Know-Nothings may rule foreigners by Nug-Uglism, but they can't rule Americans anywhere to a free locality.—Louisville Democrat, Aug 5.
