THE DAILY APPEAL.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1857.

☞ The Adams Express Company furnished us with late papers last evening, for which they will accept our thanks.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.—The Board of Health appointed by Mayor BATON has been organized by the election of Gen. R. GRANT, President, and W. J. TUCK, Secretary.

☞ A friend writing us from Tipton county, represents the Corn crop along the river as never being more promising, and that a large yield is confidently anticipated.

☞ The river at this point is still rising, and we noticed yesterday a little more air upon the levee, in consequence of the arrival of several steamboats with good freights.

☞ We are indebted to the obliging attention of the officers of the steamer Winchester for St. Louis papers. The Winchester will return to that port this evening at her regular hour.

POST OFFICE CHANGED.—The Calhoun Post Office, in Pontotoc county, Miss., has been changed to the name of "Coronn," and it is requested that correspondents will take notice of the fact.

☞ The News is glad to be able to say that the young lady who was reported as seriously injured a few days ago, by a fall from a horse, has entirely recovered from the effects of the fall.

☞ The reason of the detention of the Winchester beyond her usual hour of arriving yesterday, was running on a bar at Devil's Island, day before yesterday. She will leave this evening, however, as usual.

☞ The Rev. R. H. RIVERS will preach this and to-morrow evenings at Asbury Chapel. We learn that there were a greater number of mourners at the altar night before last than at any time previously during these meetings.

☞ Wheat is arriving daily in large quantities by our railroads, and is selling readily in the market at from 90c. to $1 per bushel. It is thought that there will be a still further decline, under the influence of the last steamer's advices.

☞ Hot, hotter, hottest—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beat them all; it was away up yonder, far beyond the most auriguine temperature of caloric. We can say no more, for we are melting away, si—o—a—l, si——splash!

☞ HUNT'S Merchants' Magazine, a valuable commercial work for August, has been received. This work ranks as high authority with the commercial classes throughout the country, and the present is an unusually interesting one.

FIRST COTTON BOLL.—On the 8th inst. Mr. WM. S. CLINTON, of Panola county, found upon his farm a boll of cotton fully matured and open. This is the first of the season, and speaks well for the forward state of the crops in that county.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The locomotive "Louisiana" has arrived at Shreveport, La. This iron horse will run on the Southern Pacific Railroad. This looks like an earnest of success, and we bid it speed on its flight to the golden shores of the great Western Ocean.

THE NEXT STEAMBOAT SEASON.—We are likely to have quite a lively competition during the next season between packet steamboats from this port to New Orleans. In addition to those already in the trade, belonging to the Memphis and New Orleans packet Company, we learn that an opposition line of six first class steamers will be shortly announced, arrangements with that view being nearly completed. Four of the steamers of the opposition line, are the Eclipse, City of Memphis, Choctaw and Pete Whetstone. The names of the other two we have not yet learned.

☞ We have never known such a scarcity of stores and dwellings for rent as at present. None can be obtained at all, even when the most exhorbitant prices are offered, and it is feared that the new buildings now in course of erection will fail to supply the demand in the fall.

☞ A great cloud of smoke was seen ascending the horizon late yesterday evening, south of the city, and apprehensions were entertained that it was a residence burning. Nothing further, however, was heard from it, and the presumption is that it proceeded from other causes.

☞ Our hotels were overflowed already, and where the hundreds who arrived yesterday obtained lodgings we are unable to say. There will be a thinning out to-day by many going East, per railroad and steamboat, and all who may follow after will be sure of accommodation.

☞ Our thanks are due to our particular friend, Jo. ALLE, merchant of Oxford, Miss., for late Eastern papers. He leaves in the cars this evening for home, having supplied himself with everything in the way of gentlemen's dress goods for the accommodation of his customers.

THE ALLEGHA.—We learn that Mr. WILL WOOD, honorably known to this community as chief clerk of the Kate Frisbee, and latterly as commander of the steamer Winchester, has purchased the Allegha, and intends to run her in the trade between this city and St. Louis. We wish him the most complete success in his undertaking.

PUBLIC PARKS.—The Cincinnatians seem at present to be divided in opinion as to the utility or advantage of parks for that city. That place we do not believe has a park, even as large as Court Square, and it is the most populous city of the West, and there appears to be a pretty well settled conviction that if the city is to enjoy the advantage of such pleasure resorts, now is the time for them to purchase the ground. This is a reflection, too, that should be considered by the citizens of Memphis, if they desire that open spaces should be secured here, such as exist in all well regulated towns and constitute their chief attractions, where the people may congregate on holidays and in their leisure moments, and refresh their senses with some of the pure air and pleasant views of the country. Our city is yet in its infancy, and there can be no more suitable time than the present to carry out the desired object. In a few years, real estate will have advanced to such a high figure, that it would be impossible to pay the price asked, for the use of a park. People, who will then see the necessity and utility of the outlay, will curse the folly of those who did not sooner secure grounds for the purpose. Now is the time—when land can be purchased at a cheap rate. The procurement of suitable squares or vacant places, at convenient points within the city, might be combined with the purchase of a large and suitable plat without, at a convenient distance, and accessible to all classes of our people, at a rate which some could object, which might serve as a Bois de Boulogne, like those beautiful grounds and forests near Paris, which a few years ago constituted a dark and gloomy retreat, but have, by the magnificent art of the French, been converted into the most beautiful scenes of rural beauty and rich landscape that the eye ever dwelt upon.

The grounds are now worth millions more than before these improvements, the principal of which have been produced by the conveyance of the waters of the Seine through the forest, and their formation into lakes, streamlets, cascades, jets and fountains, and every imaginable form of hydrostatic beauty and art. One hundred people docs thither now to one that formerly visited a place which, on account of its shady and gloomy character, had become the scene of deeds of darkness—the favorite ground for duels and assassinations. Now it is the scene of the most delightful pleasures and enjoyments of the people of Paris, and of the thousands who are attracted to that city by its innumerable charms and delights. And all this has been effected since the Revolution of 1848, when the Bois de Boulogne, wrested from royalty, was restored to the city of Paris and dedicated to the pleasures of its inhabitants.

Why should we not follow an example that has proved so beneficial to Paris? It would be an attraction that would induce thousands to visit us—to linger and abide, and, perhaps to take up their permanent residence with us. Court Square, even with all the money lavished upon it to beautify and adorn it, does not come half up to the requirements in the premises, and unless we make the investment now, we will have occasion to regret, as our Cincinnati friends do, that it did not occur to them sooner.

MARRIED.

On the 11th of August, 1857 at the residence of Levi Lorance, by J. Waddell, Esq., Mr. DANIEL S. LORANCE to Miss VIRGINIA T. ROBERTS, all of Shelby county.

DIED.

At Monroe, Tennessee, on the evening of the 10th instant, of bilious fever, R. S. BRITTENHAM, Esq., in the 27th year of his age.

From Col. Albert Pike, M. C. from Arkansas.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11, 1856.—"I have used two bottles of your Burkeye's Holland Bitters, and have found it very useful in case of Indigestion and Headache, and recommend it to all who need a pleasant and efficacious remedy and valuable tonic.

DYSPEPTIC WOMEN NOTICE.—Burkeye's Holland Bitters has cured me of Dyspepsia by using it only one week. I recommend it confidently to all suffering from this disease.

CLARA E. SCHUCHMAN.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24, 1856.

The late High Sheriff of Alleghany county has given us the following:

"I was afflicted with Debility of the Digestive Organs amounting to a severe attack of Dyspepsia, which had reduced my flesh considerably. My wife was also afflicted under same circumstances, and with same disease. Having used your medicine called Burkeye's Holland Bitters, we both obtained relief, and are happy to afford you this public evidence of its value." JOHN FORSYTH.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PICAYUNE,
Saturday Evening, August 8, 1857.

COTTON—There has been very little inquiry to-day, and we hear of no sales worth reporting. The editors of the Price Current took an exact account of the stock of Cotton in the Presses, and on ship board in Stream, on Wednesday of this week, and found the total stock to amount to 21,824 bales, being somewhat in excess of the amount we had to show by our tables. This extra amount accounted for partly the number of bales made up from samples, waste and damaged Cotton, which the editors of the Price Current estimate at 4,000 bales. We have corrected our Cotton table accordingly. We quote to-day:—

ST. LOUIS MARKET.

MONDAY EVENING, August 10.

A dispatch of to-day's date from New Orleans, to Messrs Glasgow & Bruther, states that offers had been received to-day and looking up. More inquiry for sugar and molasses.

Receipts of wheat for two days are larger than usual but much of it is damp and not suited to millers' wants. Prices are gradually receding—choice now ranging from 95@$1 20, prime $1 10@$1 15. Flour in moderate request by city dealers, and rates unchanged. The new arrivals are of all qualities, and show a wide range of prices to be sold. Corn is slow holders prefer from.

Hemp did not sell to-day. The inquiry is quite dull, and weather unsettled. Tobacco maintains steady demand. Lead improves a little in transaction. Provisions rule dull and transactions light for want of stock. Groceries more active than of late. Mark Lane is quiet.
