THE next session of this popular Institution will open on MONDAY, the 7th of September, 1857.

The Faculty consists of twelve, all of white, including two European Professors, are Southern born and Southern educated teachers. Neither pains nor expense have been spared to make this the Female Seminary.

The health of Huntsville has always been proverbial. Its mountain air, pure water and clean streets, must ever enable it to vie with any other place in the South; and for other considerations equally as strong, there can be found nowhere a locality more admirably adapted to a female institution of high grade.

Considering the literary and ornamental advantages this Institution offers, the moral and social habits inculcated, and the maternal attention given to the pupils, the expenses are not so great as at other institutions less carefully organized.

The Numbers from 1 to 20,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are contained in small tin tubes and placed in one wheel.

The first 265 Prizes, similarly printed and enclosed, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of thousands, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn are opened and exhibited to the audience, and recorded by the Commissioners, the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

Approximation Prizes.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 20 Prizes will be entitled to the 80 Approximation Prizes.

Example.—If the drawing Number is 5,000 Prize Ticket No. 4,999 will be entitled to a $60 00 Prize; those Tickets numbered 11,248, 11,249, 11,251, 11,252, will each be entitled to $125. ☞ The 3,000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the number that draws the $60,000 Prize. For example, if the Numbers drawing $60,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the number ends in 1 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.
