☞ The Weekly paper will be furnished to Clubs of Two and upwards at $1 50 each,—payable invariably in advance, and every Club to be made up at one office.

☞ An old subscriber may add to a club at any time at $1 50 each.

☞ In ordering a change of address, or discontinuance of any paper, the name of the P.O. to which it is directed should be given.

☞ Specimen copies will be furnished gratuitously when required.

☞ Subscribers will be supplied with the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Appeal at the same rate as the Daily.

☞ Postmasters are authorized to act as agents for the Appeal.

☞ In no case will papers be sent to any person not a subscriber, or to a subscriber who has not ordered his paper discontinued and paid up what he owes for publication.

☞ Subscribers who change their place of residence will please give us the name of the Post Office to which their papers have been sent, and the name of the Post Office to which they wish theirs to be changed.

☞ To ensure the insertion of communications, we must be allowed a reasonable time to examine them.

☞ Communications intended for publication should be written on one side of the paper only.

☞ Rejected manuscripts will be returned to the writers only on their call for them.

☞ Our friends in the country can aid us in our efforts to give them the news, by forwarding it by express, or by mail, whenever they think it will be worth our publishing.

☞ Our City Subscribers will please report to us the name of any person who takes their paper from the office or from the mail box, who does not pay for it.

☞ Our Country Subscribers will do us a great favor by reporting the name of any person who takes their paper from the post office, who does not pay for it.

☞ Our Friends in the country can also do us a great favor by reporting the name of any person who is engaged in getting up a club for any other paper, who is using our name without our authority.

☞ Our Friends in the country can also do us a great favor by reporting the name of any person who is circulating a subscription paper for any purpose whatever, in our name, or that of any other paper published in this city, who is not authorized by us to do so.

☞ Our Friends in the country can also do us a great favor by reporting the name of any person who is in the habit of borrowing papers in our name, or that of any other paper published in this city, who does not take a paper himself.

☞ Our Friends in the country can also do us a great favor by reporting the name of any person who is in the habit of taking papers from the post office or mail box, who does not pay for them
