NOTICE THIS.

We frequently receive remittances for our paper at rates below those advertised. This is entirely useless, as our rates are fixed and will be departed from in no instance. Such remittances are returned in every instance, and to avoid all trouble and hazard of loss hereafter, we desire the especial attention of all concerned to this notice.

☞ All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers, as they are not authorized to sell them. An observance of this request will greatly oblige the publishers.

☞ See the advertisement in another column of wet nurse wanted.

☞ Rev. J. H. GRAY, who has just arrived in the city, will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church, this morning, at 10½ o'clock.

☞ The Rev. W. H. AUTCHELL, D. D., of Alabama, will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church this (Sunday) evening, at eight o'clock.

☞ The steamer Uncle Sam passed up last night. We are indebted to her clerk and attentive clerk for our latest dates from New Orleans.

☞ We are continually indebted to the kindness of the gentlemen connected with The Adams' Express Company for their attentions in furnishing us with late papers.

☞ A slight rain fell at noon yesterday, which, though quite refreshing to us poor afflicted denizens of the town, may prove injurious to cotton, and other crop prospects.

☞ The religious revival at Asbury Chapel still continues, and, we are glad to learn, is quite successful in convincing many of the righteousness of the course of Christianity.

☞ The Branch of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad from Tuscumbia to Florence has been let to contract, to be finished by the 1st of September, 1858. So says the North Alabamian.

NEW COTTON.—We were yesterday shown three well matured and fully opened bolls of new cotton. They were from the plantation of Mr. JOHN F. HAMLIN, of this county, and sent to the house of E. M. APPERSON & Co. Who will send in the first bale?

☞ Messrs. ASHE, WILSON & Co., as will be seen by their card, are candidates for the favors and patronage of their friends, as Cotton Factors, Grocery and Commission Merchants. They are experienced and reliable business men, and will pay prompt attention to all orders or business entrusted to them.

☞ We invite the attention of our planting friends and others, to the card of R. D. Baugh & Co., Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants. This house has been in business in our city some years, is composed of clever gentlemen and good business men. Give them a trial, and we will warrant they will sustain all we say of them.

☞ We invite the attention of the public to the great sale of town lots, advertised to come off in Jackson, Tennessee, on the first of September. The property is beautifully and eligibly located, the terms are easy, and we have no doubt good bargains will be had. Jackson is now on the high road to prosperity, and affords a fine field for profitable investment.

☞ Mr. FELTZ, the Sheriff of Shelby County, proceeded to the City Jail yesterday morning, about 5 o'clock, which was surrounded by the guard of one hundred citizens appointed by the meeting the previous evening, for the purpose of executing the fiat of Judge FITZGERALD to take the body of ISAAC L. BOLTON and deliver it at Huntingdon, Carroll county. Mr. FELTZ was accompanied by two or three of his deputies. He demanded that the crowd open the way to his entrance into the prison, which the guard refused, assuring him that he could not enter, and that they had ample force to prevent it. They further told him that they were under no excitement, but were determined on the course they had indicated. They further told him that they would quietly disperse as soon as he left the ground—that no violence was intended to the prisoner, and that no excitement need be apprehended after his departure. The Sheriff, after again demanding to be permitted free ingress to the prison, and after receiving a similar reply, got into an omnibus and drove off. Thus ended the history of the Bolton excitement for the present. The sequel of the affair rests with the State authorities.

THE HORSE THIEVES.—The parties arraigned on the charge of horse-stealing, were yesterday brought before Esquire HORNE. Their names are DEWIT ELLISON, HIRAM BUMLEY, JOHN MITCHELL, and GREENBURY WORTHY. E. M. YERGER and H. VOLENTINE, Esqs., appeared for the defense, and the State was represented by Attorney-General BALE and CEVLON B. FRASER. The counsel defending asked for a severance of the cases, which being granted, the case of BUMLEY was called. Waiving an investigation, the question of the amount of bail was considered, and after some discussion, was finally fixed by the Court at $3,500—fifteen hundred for himself, and a thousand each for his securities. The bond was not given yesterday, and the prisoner remanded to jail.

The other parties were not examined, and an investigation into their case postponed until Tuesday next; that delay being necessary to enable Mr. Trigg, who swears out the affidavit, to procure evidence against them. We understand that the parties were detached by the arrest of Mitchell and Ellison for whipping some women of disputable character, when the whole matter relating to the horse thieving gang was divulged by Mitchell, and his assertions corroborated by a voluntary statement on the part of Ellison. The information directed Mr. Trigg to whom his property had been sold, one of his mules having been purchased by Col. Barbee of Byhalia, Miss. It is to adduce proof of this that the trial of the other parties has been delayed. The case being an important one, from the fact that the parties arrested have been reared in this community, we shall take occasion to note each new development as it may occur.

Neuralgia.

A gentleman living in Philadelphia says:

"In passing through Pittsburgh, some months since, I purchased a bottle of Berkee's Holland Bitters. It relieved me so much, that on returning home I bought two more bottles from Dr. Dwott, which completely cured me of Neuralgia. I have recommended the article to many of my friends, and four or five of the number say it cured them. I think that my recommendation has done more for its sale than your advertising."

(We are not permitted to publish the name, but any person calling at the store, or communicating with us by letter, will be convinced of the truth of this statement.)

Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever

CURED BY

SMITH'S

TONIC SYRUP.

THIS justly celebrated medicine has for many years maintained its superiority over all other remedies, for the safe, certain, speedy, and permanent cure for Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing; and in no case will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out.

This remedy has been extensively used throughout the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Texas, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, and has invariably cured every one of the chills in these, in all its varied forms, many of which had been of from one to twenty years' standing, and had resisted all the usual remedies known in the country; and in no case did this medicine fail where the directions were properly followed. As a certain and invaluable remedy, that a large number of regular practitioners of medicine, in various parts of the country, use and prescribe it in preference to Quinine and other remedies.

The public are assured that it is not to be certain in its effect as a Febrifuge, but being composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly innocuous to all cases of circumstances, and may safely be given to females, infants, and all persons of debilitated and delicate constitutions, without the least fear that it will ever be improperly used.

This medicine is composed of an elixir of the purest and purest quality, and is always made by the proprietor in person. Many other valuable medical forms of pharmacy which cannot be said of the many tonics now flooding the country, have been recently introduced, and in this respect alone is your old friend and tried remedy superior to the remedies usually prepared and sold in the country.

By its general and powerful diaphoretic properties added to its tonic qualities, it is rendered eminently superior to Quinine and other remedies as a general and popular tonic, in all cases where other remedies are proper to be administered. The proprietor, therefore, respectfully invites practitioners and the public generally to give it but a fair trial, and they will then be convinced of its great superiority over all other remedies now in use for the purposes specified.

Persons living in districts of country subject to Ague and Fever, Chills and Fever, or Bilious Fevers, would do well to keep a supply of this valuable remedy always on hand.

The proprietor has now in his possession thousands of certificates of its cures, given by persons who have used it in their own families, and by persons who have sold it largely in their country as well as from many respectable practitioners who have used it in preference to other remedies, attending its use.
