THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1857.

☞ The fall session of the Memphis Female College will commence on Monday next.

☞ About noon yesterday the weather was very warm. Our mornings and evenings are cool and pleasant.

☞ The New Orleans Packet Company wish to hire a number of firemen, deck-hands, and cabin servants, for whom the highest prices will be paid. See their advertisement in another column.

GOOD CITIZENS COMING.—We learn that there is a probability, that half a dozen or more of the best citizens of Jackson, Mississippi, have made arrangements to locate permanently in Memphis. We have plenty of room for them, and promise them a cordial welcome.

THE LYNCHING IN MISSISSIPPI.—We publish this morning what is believed to be a correct account of the lynching of an Abolitionist in Lafayette county, Miss. The people of that county have been for years remarkable for their scrupulous regard for law and order, and we are very confident they would not have departed from their usual quiet in this instance unless there had been the strongest provocation for violence, and the best proof that the recipient well deserved it.

The First Bale.

The first bale of new Cotton was received by the old established house of TRYON & Co., at half-past 2 o'clock yesterday evening, 8 inst. It is from the plantation of C. S. MERIWEATHER, of DeSoto county, Miss. The bale weighs 540 pounds, and the Cotton is classed Good Middling. It may be proper here to state that Mr. J. M. HENDERSON is manager on the plantation of Col. MERIWEATHER, to whose skill, in a great measure, the Colonel no doubt is indebted for the prize he will receive, viz: a demijohn of good brandy and perhaps a basket of champagne.

☞ We take great pleasure in asking the attention of the public to the card of Messrs. SCRUGGS, DONEGAN & Co., Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants, New Orleans. This may be relied upon as among the best houses in the city. The gentlemen composing the firm are well known as solvent and experienced business men, Mr. SCRUGGS having, for some years, been in active business here.

They will keep an office in Huntsville, Ala., where they will make advances on cott on and produce consigned to their house in New Orleans. See their card in another column.

☞ The fine passenger steamer T. C. Twitchell will be at the landing, en route for Cairo, this evening, at 1 o'clock. Passengers going up the river cannot do better than to wait for the Twitchell. She is perfect in all her appointments. R. T. REDMAN, No. 314 Front Row, is her agent.

Water-Works.

For the Memphis Appeal:

MESSRS. EDITORS: Water-Works are required to promote and be auxiliary to the manufacturing interests of Memphis. The flouring mills, foundries, and other factories now operating, feel seriously the want of such facilities—having frequently to haul water for generating steam. It is evident that the greater the facilities afforded, the more rapidly manufactories increase, tending directly to increase population and wealth. Water-Works are necessary to subdue and prevent fires, and all will admit that an abundant supply of water greatly promotes the comfort and health of any city.

It being determined, then, that it is exceedingly desirable to erect such works now, the next consideration is how to effect it. Two propositions are before the Improvement Committee of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen for consideration, viz: One from Messrs. Brinkley, Overton, Greenlaw, Wickersham, Blythe, Leatherman and others, who ask the exclusive right, during the existence of a charter which they control, to supply the city with water—giving the city the use of water for fires and reservoirs, &c., the city to furnish fire plugs, pipes and fixtures, &c., necessary to procure water for the engines, as well as to build her own public fountains.

The other proposition is from an Alderman of the Second Ward, and is in effect as follows:

1. Water-Works in Memphis shall be erected by a Joint Stock Company of ——shares of $25 each.

2. Two-thirds of the stock shall be subscribed for by the city, payable in the Bonds of the corporation.

3. To secure the payment of interest and principal of the bonds, there shall be a lien retained on the water-works and fixtures.

4. The income arising from the works shall be applied exclusively to the payment of the interest, and to establish a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds.

5. One-tenth of the bonds shall mature in twelve years, and one-tenth every year thereafter until all become due.

6. All persons who subscribe and pay for stock shall be entitled to a deduction of from fifteen to forty per cent. on their water bills.

7. The Company shall be managed by a board of nine directors—six to be elected by the City Council and three by the individual stockholders. The stockholders shall elect one of the directors President, and fix his salary.

8. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall take immediate action to learn as near as practicable the amount of means necessary to erect such works as the present and future wants of the city may require, and immediately thereafter order an election held to ascertain if the voters of Memphis are in favor of applying to the ensuing Legislature for power to issue the bonds, and for a charter, &c.

Messrs. Editors, as this is a subject worth the attention of every citizen, my object now is merely to direct your attention, as well as the attention and consideration of the public, to the movement. Respectfully, D.

Gymnastic School.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 7, 1857.

At a regular meeting of the German Gymnastic Society, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It is the principle of the German Gymnastic Society "That only in a strong body can there be a healthy mind," upon which principle all the Gymnastic societies of the United States are based, and as we wish our American friends to be benefited by the healthy exercises, which have done much good to the young, be it, therefore,

1. Resolved, That we establish a Gymnastic School for the benefit of the young men of Memphis, who shall be no less than 17 years of age, and also one for children under that age, and the senior school shall meet with us every Monday and Thursday nights at 8 o'clock, and the junior school in the afternoon, the school to commence as soon as a sufficient number shall have enrolled their names.

2. Resolved, Each one of the senior or junior schools to pay fifty cents per month, in advance, for the purpose of defraying the expences of teachers and apparatus necessary for exercise.

3. Resolved, That the Memphis papers be requested to publish the above.

GEO. EYRICH,
Recording Secretary.

For further particulars apply to J. HEINRICH, at P. H. HEINRICH & Bro., Main street, between Monroe and Union.

ANOTHER POLITICAL CLERGYMAN FALLEN. One after another the political clergy of the country are being exposed and are falling from grace. The last case we have to record is from the Celina (Mercer county, Ohio,) Standard of the 31 inst., which says that the Rev. Wesley Brock, who is one of the loudest Black Republicans in the North west, an old minister and recently Presiding Elder of the district, has been guilty of the crime of seduction, and that the lady whom he has ruined has commenced legal proceedings against him. The Standard, in noticing the matter, says:

"We do not give publicity to this debasing crime of Mr. Brock with any intention of injuring the Church. Far from it. Our sympathies have always been with the denomination of which he has been a leading, but now fallen star. But we have always thought, and still believe, that so long as the Church permits its preachers to dabble in politics to the neglect of their religious duties, it is sinning against itself in not silencing the renegades immediately. By such a course the Church would soon regain the ground lost in the past few years, and restore confidence among the people; but so long as political preaching is allowed, it will continue to suffer."

CAPITAL FLOWING INTO NEW YORK.—The low prices of the Stock Board have had the natural tendency to attract capital from other cities. Two thousand shares of New York Central have been bought by a wealthy Boston firm, and one of our leading banking houses has purchased five hundred for Hamburg account.

This is a decided symptom of relief. In other respects, also, there is a decided show of improvement. The high rates of interest in the city are attracting capital from the country. It comes in many cases to buy commercial paper, or undoubted securities.

We have heard of one bank alone, with not the largest correspondence, receiving an accession of forty thousand dollars of coin during the week in those little trickles.

If they are in anything like a proportionate flow in the general market, the specie line of the banks will exhibit a marked improvement.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Wall Street.

ARREST AND DISCHARGE OF A BANK TELLER—EIGHTY THOUSAND DOLLARS MISSING.

From the New York Herald, Sept. 21.

We gave in the Herald the fact that one of the clerks in the Banking Association in Wall street, charged with $70,000 and $80,000 defalcation. Yesterday morning information was made public that a heavy defalcation had taken place in the Bank of the Mechanics' Banking Association, Wall street, and that Mr. Andrew Van Blarcom, for six years the teller, was strongly suspected of being the defaulter. Acting upon this clue, the officers Editor and McCard, attached to his office, took immediate steps to effect Van Blarcom's arrest and accomplished the following evening. The officers in charge of the Deputy Sheriff, Mr. Mount, who had been in the employ of the defaulter, but it is supposed at the time of the arrest, to be about $72,000. A private investigation of the matter was made yesterday, at the Bank, by the President and other officers of the institution, for the purpose of enabling the President, stockholders, Directors, and all parties interested, to ascertain the nature of the offence committed, and the amount of money taken. The presence of Van Blarcom at the Bank was regarded as highly necessary to assist in overhauling the books to get at the desired object. He takes the matter with perfect indifference, and judging from his manner, expects to acquit himself from all guilt in the alleged defalcation. He lives in good style at No. 1 13 Bleecker street, where he has a family. It is due time, the matter will no doubt be brought before Justice Welsh, at the Lower Police Court for examination, should the facts elicited by the Bank officers place the defalcation at the door of the defendant.

Mr. Van Blarcom has been the first Teller of the Bank for six years. He has been connected with the Bank nearly thirteen years, having been first employed in the capacity of porter. He says he has sureties that will nearly cover the alleged defalcation.

The Bank did no business yesterday beyond receiving notes sent to be discounted. These were placed under envelopes, subject to the call of the parties depositing them. Its surplus is owing to the fact that it has been shaky for some time; and, after being assisted by loans from other banks, it was found that a very large sum would be required to place it upon a stable basis. It was, therefore, expelled from the Clearing-house.

The defalcation imputed to the Teller is said to have been the result of high-living and a desire for display. The action decided upon by the Directors in regard to him has not yet been made public; but it was discharged from custody last night, as District Attorney Hall gave it as his opinion that nothing but a breach of trust had been committed. It is said that no part of the embezzled funds have been appropriated to his own use. Their loss could be well borne by the Bank, for he holds their notes as security.

The suspended bank of the Tel[illegible]ation of the Bank and the arrest of the Teller caused a crowd to collect and report gossip in the vicinity during the greater part of yesterday. It is stated that bankholders and depositors will lose nothing by the failure, the securities being amply sufficient to liquidate all claims.

DIED.

At Memphis, September 6th, EDWIN FRANCIS PERKINS son of Dr. D. and Elizabeth Rogers, aged 19 months and 20 days.

I cannot make my heart believe—
This heart is so stricken sore—
That I can never see my boy
In my embrace once more.

O, can I never kiss again
Those darling lips of thine
And feel the beating on my breast,
Thy little hand in mine.

Far sweeter than the roses breath
Was thy young breath to me;
The velvet cheek and brow did seem
As fair as lilies be.

The fresh flower for autumn winds,
Or, rude contagious breath;
Our angel boy has gone to meet
And closed his eyes in death.

He died at morn, just as the stars
Were fading into light;
So went his pure and sinless soul
Where there is no night.

Just as a flower that climbs far up,
And blooms toward the sky,
Till Jesus stooped and took him home
To brighter bowers on high.

We laid his hands across his breast,
Some pure white snow drop them;
He looked as sweet as, under death
Did every one so fair.

Sleep on dear babe, when Spring time comes
And flowers begin to bloom,
I'll bring a flower and beauteous flower
To blossom o'er thy tomb.

I always thought those large blue orbs
Had opied some far off land,
And looked to have the pearly there,
And join the cherub band.

I know, dear babe, there thou will win
Some kind good angel's love,
Who'll bear thee gently in their arms
Till I arrive ab.ve.

Yes, I shall clasp thee soon again,
O, priceless treasure given,
How sweet to think thoughts thou will be
My cherub babe in Heaven.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 7 1857. E. D. R.

OBITUARY

DIED.—In Jackson, Tenn., on the morning of Saturday, after a lingering illness of two years, Mrs. MARIA T. Consort of Mr. Wm. R. Butler, of Jackson, in the 66 h year of her age.

The family of Mrs. Butler were among the pioneers of West Tennessee, having settled in Madison county at an early period when the country was a wilderness. She was a member of the Methodist church, daughter of the Presbyterian Church, and died, as she lived, in the faith of a Christian. In all those graces and qualities which go to make up a woman, she was a model of excellence in character; she was abundantly blessed, winning the love and affection of all who surrounded her in the relations of husband, child, friend and neighbor. To her life-long companion her loss is an irreparable bereavement, and her friends will long mourn her as one who has gone before them to the land of the Blessed, and to whom they trust to be re-united in indissoluble bonds.

SELECT SCHOOL.—Mr. J. P. HARLOW, for some years teacher in the City Schools, desires to inform the citizens of Memphis that to-morrow, 7th inst., he will open a select school for boys, in the basement of the First Baptist Church. Terms of tuition $4 per month. School hours from 8 to 12 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M. dtf.

The Traveling Community.

A remedy such as BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS cannot be too highly recommended. To the traveling community, especially, it is certainly an invaluable remedy; having little or no exercise, constantly exposed, and subject to the effects of a change of climate and water, they require some pleasant medicine of this kind to regulate the bowels.

Messrs. Editors, as this is a subject worth the attention of every citizen, my object now is merely to direct your attention, as well as the attention and consideration of the public, to the movement. Respectfully, D.

LaGrange Synodical College.

LAGRANGE, TENN.

THIS Institution, located at LaGrange, Tennessee, established by the Synod of Mississippi, and conducted under the care of that body, will be opened for the reception of Students on the first WEDNESDAY in October next. The following constitute the Faculty, all of whom have accepted and are expected to enter upon the discharge of their duties at the beginning of the session.

JOHN H. GRAY, D.D., President and Professor of Ethics, Metaphysics and Literature.
JOHN N. WADDELL, D.D., Professor of Greek and Roman Literature.
JOHN R. BLAKE, M.A., Professor of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry &c.
JAMES L. MAIGS, M.A., Professor of Mathematics, Astronomy and Civil Engineering.
GEORGE R. GRANT, M.D., Lecturer on Physiology.
JOHN W. C WATSON, Esq., Lecturer on International Law.

The Tuition and College Fees are as follows:

Tuition (one-half due 1st October, the other due 1st February)..... $50 00
Contingent Fee, for Book, Service Bills, &c..... 5 00

Students will board in private families, making such arrangements as may be agreed upon between the parties and the College. Price of board, from $10 to $12 50 per month, exclusive of lights and washing.

The advantages offered for a finished Southern education at this Institution are believed to be rare, and shall be address themselves to the interests of Southern parents and guardians. Every member of this Faculty is a Southern man by birth and choice.

The location is healthy, romantic and healthful, and accessible by Railroad in every direction.

The moral and religious influence which will be brought to bear upon Students are of the most salutary kind. The Code of Laws adopted by the Board of Trustees is designed to place the youth under the influence of immorality, or to separate incorrigible Students from the body.

Measures are in successful progress for procuring a Library and Philosophical Apparatus. A member of the Faculty is now under commission of the Board of Trustees, engaged in an agency in the Eastern Cities to purchase an apparatus for the benefit of the school.

With these advantages offered to the public, the Trustees respectfully solicit and anticipate a share of patronage for the College.

CHAS. R. ABBOT,
Secy of the Board.

BIDS AND LEATHER MARKET, reported and corrected weekly by A. H. Ring.

Hides are steady at former quotations. Dry Flint 16@17c. Dry Salted 14@15c. Green Salted 8¾c. Demand better than supply. In New York and Boston a large number of Hides have accumulated and a still further decline in prices is confidently looked for. Sales of Dry Southern have been made in New York within the past week at 16c on six month's time, a decline. At St. Louis the market is very active from the fact that the receipts are light and the anxiety some tanners have shown to lay in their stock early.

There has been no material change in the Leather Market since last report. We continue to quote Oak Sole 28@40c. Hem Sole 24@33c. Skirting 41@42c. Calf Skins $75@40 ⅌ ⅌ doz.
