SUNDAY APPEAL.—Copies of this morning's issue may be purchased, as usual, at our business desk on Madison street, until 10 o'clock, A. M.

LOST.—A man ill able to bear the misfortune, lost a serious sum of money for which he advertises in another column. We hope it has fallen into the hands of an honest person.

COURT SQUARE.—A small portion of the railing that is to surround Court Square, has been put on the west side of the Square; it is of a tasteful and elegant pattern.

ITEMS.—The city was very quiet yesterday; close sern ing returned but a barren result. Items, like cotton buyers, though much wanted, were scarce.

DIVINE SERVICE.—Bishop ANDREWS, of the Methodist Church, South, arrived on the steamboat Lucas, and is stopping at the Commercial Hotel. His health is feeble; should his strength justify it, he will join in the services at the Wesley Chapel this morning.

PREPARING.—Workmen have been busy during the past week preparing the Exchange Buildings for the sitting of the Criminal Court, the fall term of which commences to-morrow. Stoves have been put up, the woodwork painted and varnished, and the exterior of the tower is in process of being covered with glittering tin.

REMOVAL.—We understand our friend THOS. J. HARRIS, has leased the large brick store, 277 Main street, and opens with a large and splendid stock of watches, jewelry, &c., &c. Mr. H. is well known to the citizens of Memphis, and needs no remarks from us. But we will say to our country friends, give him a call. We wish him success in his new store.

A DUEL.—The N. O. True Delta says that on Monday morning a duel took place at Bay St. Louis. The principals were Col. ROGERS and Major HENRY, both of the Nicaragua army. Rifles were used, at fifty paces. At the first fire, Major HENRY was slightly wounded, the ball grazing the side of his head. The friends of the parties succeeded, then, in settling the affair, Major HENRY withdrawing his challenge.

TRIAL OF W. J. MACLIN.—The state of the State vs. WM. J. MACLIN, charged with the murder of Judge PRICE, who was killed in Ripley, Miss., on the 3d of April, 1854, at the Tishomingo Court, now in session before his Honor, Wm. L. HARRIS, Gen. REUBEN DAVIS, Mr. J. W. C. WATSON and J. R. CHALMERS appeared for the defendant, and Col. R. A. HILL for the State. The verdict of the Jury, was manslaughter in the fourth degree, and the sentence of the Court three months imprisonment in the County Jail and a fine of one thousand dollars.

CRISP'S THEATRE.—This place of amusement opens for the first time to-morrow night, and an opportunity will be afforded of judging the merits of the new company which has been selected by the able and experienced manager. The attraction will draw a large crowd and it will be well to make an early application for seats. MRS CRISP will deliver the opening address. "Married Life" and the "Limerick Boys" will be performed. Miss Bishop will dance La Manola, and the orchestra perform some fine music. Mr Cartlitch is the Stage Manager, and Mr. Lemoyne, the Treasurer.

SALE OF SUBURBAN PROPERTY.—We would invite the attention of the public to the sale of suburban property to take place on Wednesday next, 14th inst., by M. C. CAYCE & SON. The sale will take place on Court Square, and we are authorized to state that "currency" will be taken on the cash payment, or the purchaser can—if he prefers—make a well endorsed note, payable in bank, at ninety days. This property is situated three miles southeast from the city limits, and is all woodland. Many of the lots are beautifully situated for residence property. See advertisement.

EDUCATION.—J. B. HARLOW, Esq., Principal of the Mathematical and Classical High School, has made arrangements for embracing in that institution every department of instruction necessary to qualify students for commercial, scientific, or professional pursuits. The classical department will be under the immediate supervision of Prof. J. H. STINSON, A. M., graduate of Princeton, and an experienced teacher. Prof. NATHAN TEALE will preside in the mathematical and scientific departments. The high qualifications of Mr. HARLOW are well known to the citizens of Memphis. The two gentlemen named as his assistants are, we learn, eminently fitted for their important duties, as well by their thorough qualifications as by their personal excellencies. We are assured that the Principal will spare neither expense nor labor to make the school worthy of public support.

PLENTIFUL.—Although exchange and specie are as scarce as goodness, real estate in this city was yesterday very plentiful; as accessible, indeed, to the poor as to the rich; the misfortunes was—it was all in a powdery state, taking the shine off the best polished boots and penetrating the very lungs. Uncle Sam's soil is much sought after, except when fitting about in the form of dust, then even a Kansas squatter would not give a collar and a quarter an acre for it, greedy as he is of ground. Where are the sprinklers? Two large tubs and a half dozen water-carts stand on the bluff; a pipe from the tubs runs clear into the river; a steam pump stands ready to force the water up; the beautiful Mississippi has "a little more of the same sort left," notwithstanding the numerous and heavy draughts drawn on her banks; why then cannot we have the dust laid in the city?

A VALUABLE TREE.—An Illinois correspondent, writing from Calhoun county, says that there had been cut there a mammoth tree, which made 5,000 staves, that were sold for $11 per thousand—real $55; and the top six cords and a half of wood, and sold at $3 per cord—total $19,50. Total product of the tree $74 50.

This may do very well for Illinois, but it is "small potatoes" for Arkansas. Our friend J. E. H. WARD, of Crittenden county, assures us that last fall he procured from a single tree ten thousand staves, which he sold at $7 50 per thousand, amounting to $75. Besides this he preserved eight feet of the trunk of the tree, from which he manufactured several hundred clab-boards, while the top of the tree was left on the ground to rot. It would have yielded at least ten cords of wood, which at $5 per cord, Memphis price, would have brought $50, making the whole tree worth at least $130. Who can beat this?

☞ The Troy (N Y) Budget, of Tuesday evening, says, "for the first time in a period of years a figure below $5 is used to-day in the flour quotations."

☞ Ohio is the greatest wool-growing State in the Union. Six millions of dollars' worth has been raised there this year.

☞ The amount of specie in the United States is estimated at $330,000,000, or equal to $12 in coin for every man, woman and child in the country.

CRUELTY.—Five hundred and ninety-nine free colonists from China, were recently set ashore from two vessels, one of which lost sixty coolies by death on the passage. On some of the sugar estates these unfortunates were cruelly leashed, and suicides were so frequent among them that a government investigation of the causes which led to it took place when a revolting state of management was exposed.

Port of Memphis.

River Matters.

The perusal of the first chapter of Volney's Ruins of Empires, or of a description of an Arabian desert in any book of Eastern travel, will give a better idea of the desolation and emptiness of our landing yesterday than any words of ours can do. The weather continues delicious.

The Return is delayed at the levee to repair damages, the Atlantic having smashed her wheel as it came in on Friday night. She will leave for White river at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

The J. E. Woodruff, with the cheerful face of Geo. Ford, clerk, on board, reached our landing from New Orleans yesterday afternoon. She took on board a considerable number of passengers, who had been waiting here for an up river boat, and went on for St. Louis.

Capt. Smith, of the big steamer Florida, has sold his interest in said boat to Capt. S. W. Lee, at the rate of $18,000 for the whole boat.

The James Montgomery from Cairo for New Orleans, will be here at two or three o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and will leave at eight o'clock.

The T. C. Twitchell is expected on Monday to arrive and depart at the same hours.

On Tuesday the Ohio was unchanged at Cincinnati, and at Louisville it was falling.

The Hurricane, with 125 Napoleon wharfboat in tow, got hard aground at Blue river, fifty yards from the channel.

The St. Louis Leader, of Wednesday, reports:

"Accounts from all quarters in relation to the late rains are of that character that lead us to infer, that before a week passes, many of the rivers will again be in good navigable order. Six feet is the stage of water in the channel between here and Cairo; three feet on the bars up the Illinois river; five and a half feet in the channel at Dubuque, and thirty-six inches on the lower Rapids in the upper Mississippi."

The J. H. Lucas, which left here a week ago, met on her trip up to St. Louis the Flying Cloud at Brandywine; City of Memphis aground at Island 36; passed Morrison coming at same place; met Northerner at Island 30; Rodolph at Island 15; Early at Island 14; Rapides at Island 8; Editor at Island 6; Fersia at Island 5; Swon at same place; McGill at Devil's Island; met Lacy at Keeley's; passed Belvidere at Tower Island; met Henry Lewis at Liberty.

MONTHLY REPORT.—The following is the list of interments for the week ending Saturday, October 10, 1857:

October 4th—Elisha Hankins, aged 25 years, typhoid fever.....7th—G. Skains, drowned—found in Mississippi river. Child of Mrs Crompton, aged 3 years, croup.....8th—Negro man—death from drowning in Mississippi river.....9th—Stranger—almost naked man—death from drowning in Mississippi river.

W. R. SMITH, Sexton.

October 8th—John Signofoil, aged 38 years, bilious fever.....3 children of Thos. Y. Scruggs, aged 4 months, teething. Fanny Reinach, aged 3 years, scarlet fever. Daughter of R. A. Frankland, aged 2 days, dissa a. Born, given. C. K. HOLST & SON Sextons.

Of the eleven deaths reported for the week there are supposed to have been from accidental drowning in the Mississippi river, leaving only eight deaths occurring in the city—two adults and six children.

W. J. TUCK,
Secretary Board of Health.

Rheumatism.

A CASE OF THREE MONTHS STANDING CURED. George W. Henderson, of Pittsburgh, says:

"After suffering for three months with Rheumatism, a part of the time so severely as to confine me to my bed, I have been entirely cured by using BURNHAM'S HOLLAND BITTERS. I have had one attack since, but found almost instantaneous relief in this same medicine. It is, in my opinion, a sure remedy for Rheumatism."

MONETARY.

But few transactions of note took place yesterday, indeed, "the medium," which is the life of commerce, was two faint to allow of vigorous action. Exchange and good commercial paper ran through the day without low, which is corrected up to last evening, will show how the money rates stand. There are several varieties from yesterday. It will be well for the reader to bear in mind that the quotations for bank notes do not represent the absolute value they possess as representatives of the par of their issue, but are simply what sums of what bank notes are required for a specie dollar.

The New Orleans Picayune's report of Monday's proceedings says:

"In the way of exchange negotiations this was the most difficult day we have seen for a long time. The moment we thought we had a market for sterling, the price of the Texas money fell below, but we don't care why they fell, we only know that they fell, and we know that we have to make the best of it. We don't care why the price of gold rose, but we know it did, by the fact that we have no coin that could be got out of it.

The rise in gold was the result of a strange freak. We did not know it until we saw the sale of Sterling. There was plenty offering, but buyers would not make a bid. Specie was in demand, and we found it was the only thing that would move. The rise for gold was not quotable, but whenever it changed hands it moved up full. Texas money was offered at 4½, discount, but equally good names were offered at 4¾. A sale of outside paper was made at 4¾. In prospect, Texas money will be sent to supply our customers, moderate rates at 1½. The citizens' Bank drew freely this morning against their credit balances in New York.

The business men of Pittsburgh held a meeting last week and passed resolutions expressing confidence that their banks are solvent; that their suspension was solely the result of fear for the business interests of the city; that the legislature should refuse to them more penalties and that a committee be appointed to wait on the legislature recommending legislative action limiting bank dividends to not over 8 per cent., and the remainder fund to not over 20 per cent of the capital stock, all surplus earnings to go to the State.

The following is a list of the Virginia independent banks, which have suspended specie payment: Merchants' Bank, Charlottesville; Bank of Commerce, Fredericksburg; Valley Bank, Charlestown; all in Winchester, Staunton and Alexandria; Merchants and Mechanics' Bank of Wheeling, and Mechanics and Mechanics' Bank in Wheeling; Bank of Berkeley, Martinsburg; the Bank at Howardsville, Bank of Rockingham, Harrisburg, and Northwestern Bank at Parkersburg.

The Richmond Enquirer says: "Among the Pennsylvania banks here are a few that have not suspended specie payment, which deserve mention. Those that we have heard of are the Bank of Pittsburgh, the Harrisburg Bank, the Wyoming Bank, and the new Bank of Catasauqua."

The St. Louis papers say that the banking house of Lucas & Co. continued for thirty days a regular, creditable, fair business. The Democrat says: "We have no desire to doubt the controlling desire of the firm to meet the embarrassment of the branch house in New York, which has been in operation for a few months, and has suffered much from Western failures."

The following are the independent banks in Illinois, the St. Louis Democrat says still in state are good as gold in the State: Belleville Bank, Bank of Chester, State Security Bank, Corn Exchange Bank, Bank of Pike County, and Bank of Elgin.

The Cincinnati Gazette in its Monday's report, states:

The only event of the street Monday, was the suspension of the long respected banking house of Messrs. Comstock, Drake & Co. This firm was regarded considerably, if not quite, as safe as any in the city. Failure of Messrs. Atwood & Co., N. York, some weeks ago, with which the Cincinnati house kept their Eastern account, did not, it is said, shake the credit of the firm, but it probably had embarrassed them to the country banks and bankers. Their deposit accounts and funds from our specie exports have been so high—$200,000, but recently it probably stood the trifling of Atwood & Co., I. Atwood, Jun. been greatly reduced, and we understand that such a great loss had accrued as not exceed $100. The surplus is stated to be large, and that they will pay dollar for dollar as soon as they can realize upon the assets. They do not seem to be doubted by their non-specie paying neighbors.

Money on change, of course, very stringent, and no transactions are reported. The demand for money is greater than the supply, and the rate is high. The rate for paper is not quotable, but wherever it changes hands it goes high. New York exchange is very scarce, and the demand great, selling rate, not good in still 5 prem., and both in good demand.

In St. Louis, the merchants have been holding meetings to deliberate as to the steps to be taken in the present crisis. A Illinois money forms an imp rtant part of their currency, their first attention was given to the subject of its acceptance as a circulating medium. It was long been very generally rejected since the recent troubles. The following resolution was then passed, which continues the use of Illinois money at par:

That the business men of St. Louis will continue to receive, for the present, the good currency afloat in the country, in all transactions, at par.

The Baltimore Sun, of Monday, reports an almost entire suspension in stock operations in Saturday's market. The announcement of the failure of CLARK, DODGE & Co., of New York, produced much excitement and increased the stringency. The correspondents of the firm in Baltimore escaped loss. The banks were discounting only to a limited extent. The Sun continues:

First class paper was offering at 1½@2 per cent. On good collateral, 1½@2 per cent. Prime paper was accepted. So far as paper
