THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1857.

☞ The attentive Mr. Miles Temple, clerk of the fine steamer Ben Franklin, will accept our thanks for files of late New Orleans dates.

Ashe's Theatre.—Mr. Cordock will appear in the thrilling domestic drama of the Willow Corpse. He possesses true genius and a most true and telling pathos.

In Advance.—Geo. Pattison & Co., the indefatigable booksellers have already Harper's Monthly Magazine for November on hand. It is a fine number.

Improving.—Mr. Puckett, who was badly wounded in the side at the Fair grounds on Wednesday by a pistol shot, was much easier yesterday. His physician pronounced him to be in an improving state.

Crisp's Theatre.—The Bohemian Girl was well represented at this Theatre last evening with the exception of a dragging in some of the first scenes. The audience was quite large in honor of the fair beneficiary, Miss Hobson. The same favorite opera will be repeated tonight. It is truly one of the most beautiful operas in the range of the English Opera. Some of the most favorite ballads are introduced and sung with great effect.

Grace Church, Rev. G. F. Scheyen, D. D. Rector.—The congregation of this Parish will meet as heretofore at the room of the Young Men's Christian Association, Main street, below Monroe. Services at 10½ o'clock A. M., and 7½ P. M., Sunday School 9 o'clock A. M. The Rector will deliver a discourse in the morning on "Parental Training," and at night on "Sunday School Instruction."

The Spanish Mexican Difficulty.—It is now definitely determined that the final negotiations of arbitration between the Spanish and Mexican Governments will take place at London. By whom the latter will be represented we are not informed, though by Gen. Lafragua, we presume, as he was at last accounts on his way thither. This decision is very fortunate for our Republican neighbors, as at London they will have the benefit of all the popularity, influence and good sense of Gen. Almonte.

Nothing to Eat—Illustrated. Not by the Author of "Nothing to Wear." New York: Dick & Fitzgerald, 18 Ann Street. 1857.

"Nothing to wear" was one of the most decided hits ever made by modern poetaster at the fashionable follies of the age. Its literary merits were by no means despicable, while its point was telling, striking and direct. It has produced a brood of "nothings," which, in most instances, are mere parodies upon the original. We now have "nothing to pay," and "nothing to do," and a host of big and little nothings. "Nothing to Eat" is readable enough, and well gotten up by Messrs. Dick & Fitzgerald. Its typography is indeed elegant, but we fail to perceive the delicate, yet keen irony, the originality and the point of "Nothing to Wear." It is a faint and coarse copy of its prototype. For sale by Geo. Pattison & Co.

"The Reason Why."—New York: Dick & Fitzgerald, publishers, No. 18 Ann street.

This is a book of scientific explanations of many hundreds of familiar facts, written in plain and intelligible language. These facts are the most important and useful in our every day life, and the knowledge of the "reason why" they are so, is one of the indispensables to an intelligent comprehension of some of the most interesting phenomena in nature and science. They are very useful to the educated, as a means of refreshing their memory with philosophical causes which they had forgotten or dimly remember. And to the man, whose early education has been neglected, they serve all the purpose of a pocket cyclopedia, imparting knowledge which will enlarge his thoughts and better prepare him for moving creditably in society. Added to this they are put in such a form as to render them captivating and interesting.

For sale by Lane, Young & Co., and by Geo. Pattison & Co.

The State Fair.—The Nashville Union speaking of the close of the State Fair, says:

"On the whole, the Fair this year was a decided success. The receipts were double those of last year, and the exhibition of stock of all classes was the finest by far which has ever been witnessed at our State Fair. But for the inclement weather of three days of the fair, the receipts would no doubt have amounted to $5,000—a sum ample to pay all expenses, and to have finished the desired improvements. These improvements, the want of which is greatly felt, contemplate a substantial building for the exhibition of Agricultural implements and useful machines, and another building for the exhibition of specimens of the fine arts, articles of ladies' work, and agricultural productions. When these improvements shall be made, and the grounds adorned with trees and shrubbery, they will be a favorite resort for the citizens of the State, and the exhibitions can be varied to please all tastes and encourage every department of industry."

The Agricultural Bureau, under whose direction the fair was held, was fully attended by representatives from every portion of the State.]

The Rights of Widows to Pre-emption, The Acting Commissioner of the General Land Office having been asked the question, whether if an adjudicated claim of a deceased person shall establish the right of deceased to pre-empt a lot of land, the widow will be entitled to one-third in fee, that officer has decided that under the provisions of the law of 1853, the entry must be made in favor of the heirs of the deceased pre-emptor, and the patent must cause the title to inure to them as if their names had been specially mentioned. The interest of the widow in an entry thus made will be determined by the law regulating the distribution of real estate of the State or Territory in which the land lies.—Washington Union, Oct. 15.

Some of the Beauties of Banking.—The following rich revelations are furnished by a correspondent of the St. Louis Republican:

"In conclusion, I will depict for you an Illinois bank. A frame house, a counter so high that you can barely lay your wrists on the sharp edges of it, and so narrow that but one man can approach it at a time. The speech scoop hangs high up, like the laws of Naro, but, unlike them, covered with cobwebs. Your check is cancelled in deadly silence. You hear some fumbling behind the green screen. A dozen slip-slappers, as thick as a bee-hive, a bell-horn, and twenty-five cents in silver, is handed you for your inconsiderable check. The bundle is tightly laced, the notes are inside, so that, with the other inconveniences, you can hardly count them. You count the bundle and strike for the Tinkhams, Almon trees, and Wisconsins, and you are peremptorily told, 'No use in assorting; that is all that you can get.' You say: 'Please, then, return me my check.' 'Can't do that—already cancelled.' 'Well, This is the return made you by the best of them for gold advanced on grain. Had the grain gone down, you would have had it, but, having gone up, they return you such shinplasters for your advances in gold, or stand suit."

The Legalized Suspension in Pennsylvania.—It appears the bill which passed the Pennsylvania Legislature, legalizing the suspension of the banks of that State, provides for their resuming specie payments on the second Monday of April next, and not in July, as was supposed. The bill is substantially the same as reported in the Senate, and which originally passed that body. We gave an abstract of it at the time. Several sections were added, the substance of which we subjoin:

Section 4 authorizes the collectors of taxes and tolls, &c., and the county treasurers, to receive for State purposes the notes of solvent banks, though not specie paying.

Section 6 reserves the right of the Legislature to alter, revoke or amend the charter of any bank accepting the provisions of this act, whenever, in their opinion, the same may prove injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth.

Section 10 prohibits banks and savings institutions from purchasing the notes of other incorporated banks at less than par.

Section 11 prohibits the sale of stocks, bonds, promissory notes and other securities, that have been hypothecated from being sold for a period of six months without the consent of the debtor being first had.

The time fixed for the resumption is the 2d Monday of April, the same as it passed the Senate originally.

The time is not as long as the friends of suspension desired, but it is the best that they could secure under the circumstances.

An Extensive Iron Government Building.—The owners of the Trenton Locomotive Works have been awarded the contract for building a Marine Hospital for the U. S. government at New Orleans, the material to be of iron. Its length is to be three hundred and forty-eight feet, with wings each of two hundred and four feet. The main building will be three stories high, and the wings two stories; both the main building and the wings will be surmounted with domes. A verandah, two stories high, will extend around the entire structure. The exterior walls, roof and verandahs, are to be entirely of iron. That the walls may be rendered non-conductors of heat, unburnt prepared clay will be used for filling. The work is done at Trenton.

The Proposition.—Out of the one hundred and thirteen commercial failures in all sections of the Union, recorded by the New York Independent of last week, but six occurred south of Mason and Dixon's line. We mentioned some days ago that the proportion of those announced the previous week was equally as striking. Yet the New York Tribune, and journals in sympathy with that precious sheet, continue to harp now and then upon the greater soundness and prosperity of "trade at the North." If there be truth in the adage that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating," such facts as these would long since have put to silence all those resorting to misrepresentation, from repeating to misled their readers.—Wash-

Broker Arrested for Fraud.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22.—A bench warrant has been issued against O'Conner & Co., Brokers, at the instance of the merchants and manufacturers. Bank charging them by complicity with their book-keeper, of fraudulently obtaining $245,000. O'Conner in defending himself, claimed to be acting as the agent of the banks to draw specie from other banks, and also set up other defenses, and denied his indebtedness, &c. Further investigations were waived, O'Conner having assigned.

Acidity of the Stomach and Indigestion.

"I can eat any thing after taking your Holland Bitters," is a remark frequently made to us.

To persons troubled with acidity of the stomach, indigestion, or any disorder of the stomach, we would only say, try it. Its world-wide reputation, has been established alone by the many wonderful cures it has effected. When used for Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, weakness of any kind, Costiveness and Piles, it should be taken in small doses—say, half a teaspoonful, regularly three times a day, before meals.

MONEY MATTERS IN NEW ORLEANS

The N. O. Picayune of 19th says:

Thus city, as our daily records of events have shown, happens in a most unfavorable position touching monetary and commercial matters, during the week. The stress of the financial panic which began at the North and West has thrown up a few of its turbulent waves on our shore, but, as compared with other cities, we may be said to have been almost favored with an exemption from the storm that has so fearfully raged elsewhere. Our banks are, in the main, sound and solvent, and though yielding to a temporary necessity some of them have suspended their operations, it has been under circumstances fully to warrant the confident expectation that the suspension will be soon terminated. The rest have stood, still stand, and still stand firm; and a few days will doubtless find us all right again.

Our commercial houses under circumstances has suffered a check, but we were happy to learn yesterday that things were looking brighter, and that the commercial transactions of the day had been such as to give us warrant that the worst is over, and that the "hard times" past are on the eve of being succeeded by "the good time coming."

Meanwhile, our numerous sojourners have almost all of them returned home to our street, our hotels, our places of public amusement, are putting on the aspect of life and movement; our fashionable dresses are turned out in all their bravery of attraction, with new goods of all kinds—inviting, and not in vain, the visits of the ladies, to make selections for the approaching season.

And, withal, our city continues to be blessed, as throughout the year it has been signally blessed, with good health—that boon, without which all others are but as nothing worth.

"Combination Patent."
UPRIGHT STEAM SAW MILL.
This mill commends the universal admiration of saw-mill men everywhere. As its merits become known, the demand for it increases. Orders are coming from every section of this country, Canada, Cuba, and South America. It is suited for every section of the world, wherever there is timber to be sawed, as a means of what character, low hard, how large, or how small. Two extensive manufactories are now engaged in building this Mills, yet it is almost impossible to turn them out as fast as they are wanted. They embrace several valuable patents and improvements, and combine all of the following advantages:
SIMPLICITY—Both the Mill and Power are so simple in their construction, than any one of ordinary mechanical ability can comprehend them, put them up and run them without danger or difficulty.
PORTABILITY—The whole establishment can be very quickly taken apart and put together, thus enabling persons to be moved from place to place, as desired, saving the necessity of drawing the logs a long distance to the mill.
DURABILITY—It is constructed in the most solid and substantial manner, runs perfectly still, is not liable to get out of order, and will last for years without repair.
RAPIDITY—It will saw faster than any other "Upright" Mill. The speed of the saw is about three hundred strokes per minute, and the feed from one-eighth to three quarters of an inch per stroke. Thus, at a medium speed, the saw will cut through a log twenty-four feet long in about three minutes. From this data, any one knowing the character of the timber, can calculate how much it will do.
EFFICIENCY—It does its work well, cuts smoother and straighter than the ordinary mills, and the arrangement of the saw is such as to render it utterly impossible for it to run out of line.
CHEAPNESS—The entire cost of the Mill, with fifteen horse power, and everything all complete and ready for running, boxed and delivered for shipment in the city of New York is only $1,650, or the same in St. Louis, with the addition of freight and cartage, $1,700 to $1,800.
This Mill requires less power to drive it than any other Mill and the power furnished is sufficient to drive ever machinery.
Parties desiring to see one at their Mills in operation before purchasing, can do so at any time, by calling at our office, corner Third and Market streets, in Cincinnati, giving full particulars will be sent to any one desiring it—post paid. All orders should be addressed to
