Re-Immersion.—Rev. Matthew W. Werner will speak in Odd Fellows' Hall to-day at 2 o'clock P. M., precisely. Subject "Re-Immersion."

Methodist Church.—The Rev. J. T. C. Collins having arrived, will deliver his first sermon for the following Conference year at Wesley Chapel, this morning at 11 o'clock.

☞ Rev. Dr. Barker will preach at the Christian Church this morning at 11 o'clock.

☞ For late papers we thank R. H. Willett and H. H. Walker, of the Republic.

☞ We are again indebted to the agent of the Adams Express Company for late papers.

Letter List.—The Appeal having the largest circulation within the delivery of the Memphis Post Office, the list of uncalled for letters appear regularly in it. See the list in another column.

☞ Our friend Maj. Redman, of the Cairo and New Orleans mail line, has again placed us under obligation for the latest dates from New Orleans brought by the Pennsylvania. There are up to Tuesday evening last.

Recorder's Court.—Nothing of importance came before the Recorder yesterday. The amount of fines inflicted during the last week was over $300. The Recorder informs us that careful inquiry has shown that of the parties who come before him charged with drunkenness, disorderly conduct and other misdemeanors contrary to the city ordinances, about nine out of every ten are strangers in the city, coming from a distance and indulging in reckless conduct while in the city.

The Gaunt Case.—The Criminal Court was engaged yesterday in selecting a jury in the Gaunt case and going through the initiatory steps of the trial. The jury, as completed, is composed of the following gentlemen: Maxwell Davis, Thomas James, Sr., E. D. Duncan, O. G. Gurley, W. F. Hughes, H. Chase, Jacob Miller, H. G. Dent, Alfred Moore, J. M. Saint, A. H. Bowen, W. Shenfield, J. H. Henry.

Ash's Theatre.—Night after night Mr. Collins' audiences continue to be limited only by the capacity of the theatre in which he performs. On Monday night he performs his extensively popular characters of "Sir Patrick O'Plenipo," in the Irish Ambassador, and "Morgan Rattler" in How to Pay the Rent. He will sing in these pieces—the fourth version of "Widow Machree," "Bould Sojer Boys" "Drink Deep my Boys," and "What Night so Long." My Husband's Mirror will be the concluding piece.

Hawks, Smith & Co.—This firm is in the Hard ware business, which is better sustained than any other department of trade in Memphis. There are three large jobbing houses engaged in this trade, all of whom keep a full stock of every thing in their line. The planter and country merchant can, therefore, purchase articles of hardware with as much advantage in Memphis as elsewhere. We have here competition, variety, capital, enterprise and experience in trade equal to any city in the Union. We say this confidently from an intimate knowledge of the gentlemen engaged in the trade and from an actual inspection of their complete stocks.

Messrs. Hawks, Smith & Co. are doing business in the largest and most convenient hardware warehouse to be found in our city, which is situated on the east side of Main street, midway between Monroe and Union. Their principal salesroom is on the first floor and is 50 feet broad by 150 deep. In this room they have arranged samples of all the principal articles of Hardware, Cutlery, Building Materials, Mechanics' Tools, Agricultural Implements, &c., &c., which are in general use, and from which the purchaser may make his selections without the labor of opening packages. In the cellar are stored the cooking utensils, nails, bar iron, &c., &c., all arranged and assorted, so that the porters of the house can fill an order easily.

On the second floor we find agricultural machines, and implements in great variety. And the third floor is devoted to ploughs, a very large and various stock of which, Messrs. H. S. & Co., keep constantly on hand. We should have mentioned that the first floor is filled with the articles of which the samples are to be seen on the counters and in the drawers. The prevailing features in the establishment of this enterprising firm, are the admirable order and system which prevails throughout, and the superior articles of goods which everywhere greet the eye. No planter, country merchant or mechanic, should visit our city without giving them a call. A marked characteristic of the establishment is the mammoth tongs, shovel and poker in their show window, which were manufactured to be exhibited at the Crystal Palace in London, and which cost them in England twenty pounds sterling. The gentlemen of this firm, both principals and subordinates, make it their motto to preserve a uniform and invariable courtesy towards their customers, whether they deal largely or sparingly, which is a true test of genuine merit.

River Matters.

Silence and solitude took our levee under their patronage yesterday, and, in company with peace and quietness, held possession as undisputed as that they have enjoyed for generations in the halls of the Pharoahs and in the temples of "Tadmor in the desert." In the evening was to be seen—the wharf-boat, looking tired of having lasted so long; the Winchester, rusty for having done nothing for a similar period. The Nebraska had half a dozen barrels of flour waiting to be taken on board; a little freight was leisurly passing on board the Return; the St. Francis was "waiting for something to turn up" by Tuesday evening next, when she leaves. This is a faithful sketch of Memphis below the bluffs on Saturday evening, Nov. 14, 1857.

Since our last report the river had continued slowly to rise. The Pennsylvania and Republic, from New Orleans, had passed up on their way to St. Louis.

Steamer Virginia.—This splendid passenger and United States Mail packet, in charge of the accomplished Charles F. Reynolds, Master, will be at the landing at 4 o'clock Monday evening, bound for New Orleans. The Virginia goes through with dispatch, and passengers bound South cannot do better than be ready for her, as all their wants will be attended to by the kind and attentive officers on board. R. T. Redman, No. 5½, Front Row, is her agent.

Vicksburg.—From the Whig, November 10: The river here commenced receding on Sunday evening; it had fallen up to last evening about six inches. Business on the levee moderate. A white man was drowned by tapping off of the guard of the steamer R. F. Sass, at the wharf, on Sunday night. Name unknown. We understand that an affray occurred on the same boat here, in which two or three men were stabbed, but not dangerously.

Pine Bluff, Arkansas.—From the Democrat: The river is navigable for respectably sized packets to Little Rock, and rising at this place.

City Council.—The City Council held a special meeting last night. Alderman Woodruff in the chair.

The subject of the Ordinances, as prepared by the committee for printing, was taken up.

Alderman Hughes desired that certain alterations and amendments should be made. He read various portions which he believed ought to be improved.

Alderman Martin explained that the City Charter required the Ordinances to be modified and printed at certain prescribed intervals. This was the first attempt to print, and the committee had before them an almost hopeless chaos, which it could not be hoped would in the first instance be reduced to perfect order; all that could be expected, was to prepare a basis for a more complete arrangement at a future time.

Alderman Hughes suggested certain amendments which he desired should be placed in an appendix.

On motion of Alderman Hughes, two sections of the Dray Ordinances, which define what should constitute a load, and how much should be paid for it, were stricken from the Ordinance, leaving draymen to load and charge as may be agreed upon.

Alderman Faulkner moved that the section forbiding the running at large in the streets of cattle, hogs, &c., be stricken out. Adopted.

The Mayor stated that the cows in the streets cat more than $1000 worth of cotton in the city every year.

Alderman Hughes moved that a fine of from twenty to fifty dollars should be imposed on persons selling any article by false weight or measure; or varying in quantity or quality from the brand, or the representations of the seller. Adopted.

Mr. Hughes moved that the section giving the city Marshal the powers of jailor be abolished. Alderman Finnie thought that when the Marshal was a man of taste and discrimination he ought to have power to visit the jail. At the present time the Calabooze was in a dirty and objectionable condition and wanted looking to. The Mayor said that objection would no longer exist, as he had procured a room in the Navy Yard, for the confinement of the chain-gang. Mr. Hughes' motion was adopted.

Mr. Irwin moved that it be made a fineable offence to cast bricks, rubbish, filth, or any other substance into any public well or cistern. Adopted.

Mr. Hughes moved that no person be allowed to sink any privy-vault nearer than four feet of any adjoining lot, without the owner's permission to do so; nor shall the depth of such vault be less than fifteen feet.

Alderman Finnie said the Cart Inspector was compelling cartmen to have their carts weighed every week and to pay 25 cents every time.

The Inspector explained that in wet and muddy weather the carts were heavier than in dry, and the frequent weighing was necessary.

The section allowing the Cart Inspector to charge 25 cents for weighing carts, &c., was repealed on motion of Mr. Finnie.

Mr. Hughes moved that the Ordinance Committee be instructed to prepare an ordinance for the inspection of flour, and making it indentable to sell any flour without brand, or of short weight, &c. Adopted.

Aldermen Finnie moved that the city have an inspection of whisky, to measure it and test its strength, and to brand the barrels. Mr. Hamilton and Alderman Hughes testified that the whisky sent to Memphis was the weakest sent anywhere. Alderman Martin thought the weaker the better. He wished ten ounces of strychnine and thirty gallons of water to be put into every barrel, then nobody would drink it, and crime would be diminished. Alderman Street declared that the weaker the whisky was made, the more drunkards there would be. Alderman Finnie would prefer getting the pure article and putting the water in for himself. The motion was passed, Mr. Hamilton being added to the Committee upon the Flour and Whisky Ordinances.

Alderman Irwin moved that an inspector should visit each baker's store once a month, to examine whether the Ordinance as to the weight of bread was observed; to be allowed fifty cents for each visit, to be paid by the baker. Adopted. The baker will thus have an additional tax to pay of six dollars a year.

Mr. Hamilton stated that it frequently happened that boats passed up the river with hundreds of emigrants on board; as, this was the only place between New Orleans and St. Louis, at which they could fully supply themselves with such provisions as they needed—it was important that every facility should be afforded them to obtain what they wanted; on Sundays the wharfboat was the only place where they could purchase, and, it being impossible to supply the whole the short time the boats usually stayed on their way up, they were put to much inconvenience and privation. He therefore offered an Ordinance, allowing provision stores near the landing to open on Sundays, for the sale of necessaries to emigrants. The subject was referred to the Ordinance committee, and the Board went into secret session, after passing an Ordinance ratifying the printed Ordinances and amendments, and repealing conflicting Ordinances.

A Run.—There has been quite a rush at Wells' Dry Goods establishment, during the last few days, and upon inquiry for the cause, we learn that this house is selling out their large and splendid stock of goods at cost. The run continued until a late hour Saturday without any appearance of a suspension.

Jail.—The jailor, Mr. Mallory, informs us that yesterday there was one accession to the jail—a man named Solomon Simmons, charged with stealing cattle from Mr. Jno. Houston at the Hospital. Five new men were added to the chain-gang, where they are expected to do the State some service. Three new tenants were placed in the calabooze.

The Gaiety.—Mr. Coulbock's impersonations are exciting great attention. The lovers of the legitimate drama, who see in its higher walks the poetry of human nature, give him their warm admiration. By especial request he appears to-morrow evening in the character of "Luke Fielding" in the Willow Copse. The Misses Herzade will dance the fascinating Spanish Pas de Deux of La Bolanera. The operatic farce of the Voice Season, will also be performed.

☞ The Holly Springs Herald has the following notice of Col. Payne, late editor of the Eagle and Enquirer:

John P. Payne, Esq.—We had the pleasure of a grip of the hand from our old friend Pryor, on Wednesday last. We are pleased to see him enjoying such good health. Pryor is one of the men, like ourself, who will always be young, let fortune frown or smile as she will. He is one of nature's noblemen, and as he has laid aside politics he is now one of the cleverest men living. We hope that the wheel of fortune may turn in his favor, and that he may have mints of money at his command yet.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

THE friends and acquaintances of Geo. W. Gray, are invited to attend the funeral of his late brother, William F., from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, P. M. Services by Rev. A. M. Bryan. Hacks will be in readiness.

Boerhave's Holland Bitters.

It is a well known fact that we do not puff patent medicines, and that we but seldom advertise them, but Boerhave's Holland Bitters comes to us endorsed in such a manner, as a specific for the diseases it professes to cure, that we not only advertise it, but give it this favorable notice unasked by the proprietor.—Handel Zeitung, N. Y.

The Philadelphia Argus, in speaking of the late exhibition held in that city by the Franklin Institute, says:

"In noticing medicines, we are always extremely cautious unless satisfied of the merits of the article. Among those exhibited is the celebrated Holland Bitters. This medicine has been extensively introduced into every State in the Union, and into the Canadian Provinces, principally within the last two years. The exhibition shows testimonials in every language known in America, among which we notice one from the late Hon. John M. Clayton, of Delaware."

Monetary and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, SUNDAY, November 15, 1857.

Monetary.—Quotations remain almost in statu quo. The money market is easier, and the sales of sterling for the week are for the money in a degree that did not exist three weeks ago.

Advices.—From the Dispatch of November 11: The Mechanics' Bank of New Orleans has failed in advance of its time, and has stated that it will pay its creditors at the rate of 60 cents on the dollar, with a certainty of at least 75 cents.

New Orleans.—From the Picayune of November 10: The bank statements of Saturday have given a fresh impetus to the movement of trade by showing the increased strength of the banks and the perfect confidence in them which has been received in the community. The resumption in favor of the Citizens' Bank has been announced from the receipts of more than a million of dollars, and has served by an increase of deposits to nearly seven hundred thousand dollars, with a corresponding increase of about $270,000.

In the money mart, there was an increase of demand for all the banks, some rising to over $1,500,000, a decrease to the extent of $112,000 and a corresponding increase of $670,000. This, with an increase of deposits of more than a million, into the Exchange of the merchants and the banks of this city. A like exhibit could not be made in any other city.

The aspect of the general view to be taken of the wholesome effect of these curtailments is to compare the positions of the banks now with that which they reported last previous to the panic week in October—the statements of November 7 is with those of October 10th.

This comparison shows that they are now stronger than they were then, by a decrease of circulation of $3,237,445; decreased deposits, $1,561,033; and an increase of specie of $1,637,578—and of $3,800,000 of decrease in their cash liabilities. Both with a curtailment of loans amounting to $3,800,000.

A CARD.
