WHY POSTPONED.—The case of W. R. HUNT, charged with shooting Mr. MELL, was postponed in the Criminal Court on the application of the prosecution by affidavit of the Attorney General.

LETTER LIST.—Owing to the late hour in which the list was furnished us on Monday night, and the early hour we were obliged to go to press, we were unable to publish the whole list yesterday morning. The entire list, however, will be found in this morning's paper.

MILITARY BALL.—One of the most agreeable affairs of the season, so far, was the Ball of the Washington Rifles on Monday night. It was a pleasant occasion of joyous mirth and agreeable relaxation. Success to the Rifles, for they deserve prosperity.

DISCHARGED.—JEFF DAVIS, who was taken from a steamboat on which he was working, and who has been detained in the calaboose six months on suspicion of being a fugitive, was yesterday set free by Judge MCKIERNAN on a writ of habeas corpus, there being nothing against him.

THE GAIETY.—The engagement of the DREWS is drawing to a close, and all who wish to enjoy their fine delineations should lose no time. To-night the pieces are Anne, or The Rose of Killarney, and the farce of Betsy Baker. Mr. and Mrs. DREW appear in both pieces. The accomplished sisters dance a "Highland Fling."

DEATH OF GEO. R. GLIDDON, ESQ.—We are pained to hear of the death of G. R. GLIDDON, Esq., formerly Consul of the United States for Cairo, Egypt, but better known as the author of a very learned work entitled, "Types of Mankind and Indigenous Races." He died at Panama, where he had been residing for some months past. His brother, Mr. W. A. GLIDDON, of this city, left yesterday for New York to settle up his affairs.

CRIMINAL COURT.—At this court yesterday WM. CASSON and WM. DYKE were charged with larceny; CASSON pleaded guilty and was sent to the penitentiary for three years. Against DYKE a nolle pros. was entered and he was discharged.

At the court of Common Law, in the case of WRIGHTWOOD against the city, the jury could not agree and were discharged.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The business before Esquire EAST, yesterday, was not large. JOHN MCMAHON, for "flirting down" whisky, and for "cutting up" shines, was fined $5. HUGH ELLIS was the second and last candidate for "Court honors," and he deserved them. Hugh was a Phenix! and had whipped a woman, and that woman his wife! Courageous Hugh! The city's hospitality for fifty-six days was unhesitatingly offered him by Esquire EAST, and HUGH was compelled to accept.

MRS. DREW.—Salvo in Paris was presented at the Gaiety, on Monday night, and Mrs. JOHN DREW added much to the already high opinion of her graceful and versatile acting, by appearing in six characters, in each of which she received warm applause. Mr. DREW also went through his role to the delight of the audience, as "Count Vanille." One of the largest houses of the season was in attendance. We would admonish our play-goers that this is the last week of the engagement of these graceful delineators of character, at the Gaiety.

BAD.—At a fire the other evening, the No. 4 company, though first in a position to get water in, found on trying their engine that no water could be raised. Examination showed that a brick had been so placed in the machine as to prevent its working. The reason of such a proceeding, on the part of some unknown person, is supposed to be, to prevent the company from obtaining the premium of $15 allowed to those who get on the first water. This is not in accordance with the spirit of the firemen of Memphis, and we hope they will discover and expose the man person that has endeavored to disgrace them with his base actions.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council held an open meeting last night.

Alderman Hill presented a report adverse to the petition asking the city to pay her proportion of the salary of the County Judge, Tax Collector, and the Magistrates composing the County Court. The report was adopted.

Alderman Finnie reported that Mr. JONES was willing to rent out a place for a Police Station House for $1,000 until next October; the location is Main street, opposite the Wersham House. The subject was referred back.

Alderman Irwin reported various accounts from city officers for salaries and other demands against the city.

Alderman Martin, from the Ordinance Committee, reported adverse to the proposition to allow stores near the river to be kept open on Sundays, when boats with emigrants on board land here for the purpose of supplying them with provisions. Report adopted.

Alderman Martin, from the same Committee, presented an ordinance making it a misdemeanor, finable in the sum of from $25 to $50, to carry a concealed weapon. The police to carry weapons only when permitted by their superiors; also requiring them to report any person having, to their knowledge, a concealed weapon.

No person to sell a deadly weapon on the side-walks or streets, under penalty of from $10 to $50.

Alderman Copeland seconded the motion.

Alderman Finnie wished the weapon to be forfeited and destroyed. He was recently in a company of respectable gentlemen who, on a challenge, at once presented four pistols. He had seen men with pistols bullying others in the Recorder's Court. He wanted to include the right of search for concealed weapons.

Alderman Leffand doubted the authority of the Board to forfeit and destroy weapons. He wanted those included who, upon being arrested for any offense, were found to have weapons upon them.

Alderman Hughes wished a list of interdicted weapons to be included, and, instead of "concealed weapons," to say "weapons not exposed."

Alderman Martin contended that the ordinance must be moderate in tone, or it would be ineffective; to include the right of search would destroy the ordinance.

Alderman Finnie proposed that the Captains of Police have the right to take persons before the Recorder and there search them, if suspected of having concealed weapons upon them. Lost. The ordinance was then passed as reported.

Alderman Martin reported the proposed amendments to City Charter.

Alderman Faulkner wished the Tax Collector to be appointed by the Board, instead of being elected by the people. Alderman Hughes moved that such should be the case. Such officers had too often been elected by the doggery vote. Alderman Martin said that imputation did not lie against the present Collector. He contended the people were the proper party to choose the Tax Collector. Alderman Copeland observed that the office was a responsible one, and the Board had better not assume that responsibility. Alderman Hughes said the city had never had a defaulting Tax Collector. He believed there were other officers whom it would be better to elect by the Board, not the people. The proposition for the Board to elect was carried, by six for and five against the motion.

Alderman Hughes moved that the amendments to the charter be sent to our Representatives in Nashville, (after being signed by the Mayor and Register,) and they be requested to use their influence in procuring their passage. Carried.

By permission of the Board, Col. Douglass called the attention of the Board to the subject of sales of property for taxes; he thought the purchaser of such property ought to be required to advertise his claim before he could perfect a title.

Alderman Irwin called up the Bread Ordinance; he believed there was no place where greater frauds were committed than in Memphis. Subject deferred.

Alderman Copeland reported, that between Beal and Linden, and St. Martin and Causey streets, a lot for a market house could be purchased at from $20 to $30 a foot. Further time given.

A petition of the proprietors of the Mound City ferry, asking for permission to put up a place for passengers, waiting to pass the river, to take shelter under, was granted.

Wharfmaster Avery's report was received, which report showed that during the month of November there were 163 arrivals at our landing for wharfage; $1,450 65 was received for wharfage; there were 46 arrivals of flat boats, paying $383 05 wharfage; total wharfage $1,736 60.

On permission, Mr. Cheek, proprietor of the Mound City ferry, stated that a rival boat was running—that its proprietor declared he would break him down and also the corporation of the city—he had taken people over the river for nothing, and had actually paid them to go on his boat, for the purpose of monopolizing the business. The matter had been taken to the Federal courts, but those courts decided that the question was one for the corporation. He had spent much to establish the ferry and, if this scheme was successful, all his labor and money would be lost.

Wharfmaster Avery explained that the ferry complained of, was taking up room wanted for the flat boats, and those boats were often in danger of being sunk by it. He had given the proprietors both written and verbal notice to leave the landing. The lower ferry said they would leave, but Capt. Spain swore they would not.

Alderman Street explained that the city could not refuse the ferry a landing, it had no such power.

Alderman Hughes said the complaint was that the ferry company refused to land at the place pointed out to them by the Wharfmaster. He declared himself to be "Young America" and opposed to monopoly. On a former occasion, when the Wharfmaster was knocked down with an oar, the "Blues" turned out to settle the matter. If necessary, he would say turn out the "blues" and the "reads" to sustain the officer of the city on this point.

The whole subject was referred to the River Committee and Wharfmaster.

A resolution was passed to insert a clause in the new City Charter, to the effect that the purchaser of taxed property shall advertise the same thirty days before he can take possession of it.

Several petitions were presented against what was termed the excessively high rate at which property had been valued, for the purposes of taxation. All. Finnie said the complaint was universal. The petitions were referred to a Committee.

A petition was received from F. C. Butler, a policeman, asking an investigation of his conduct in respect to the death of Puckett, who was shot on the Fair Grounds. The subject was referred to the Vigilance Committee.

Various petitions for improvement were presented, when Alderman Woodruff warned the Board that the city had but little money to spend and was at this moment crushed under the load of 3 per cent. a month interest to get money to carry on the city.

A petition from R. L. Henley, for license to keep a pistol gallery, was laid on the table.

A resolution was passed cordially approving of the sentiments expressed by the Grand Jury in the APPEAL of November 22d, and requiring copies of them to be sent to each of the Representatives of the county, and urging them to take steps to obtain the desired reform.

Alderman Irwin said he had tried a 10 cent loaf sold in this city, and found it weighed only twenty-five ounces. All bread ought to be marked with the weight. If people knew how they were defrauded they would never submit to the cheat.

A resolution was passed that the expenses of the free negro who had been kept in jail and was to-day set at liberty, be paid to take him out of the city.

Alderman Finnie read a communication from the Little Rock Railroad speaking in favorable terms of the progress of the road, and making certain statements with respect to the financial relations of the road. The subject was reserved for a special meeting, to be called by the Mayor.

Ald. Copeland moved to rescind the resolution passed at the last meeting, appropriating $1,875 towards building a bridge over Wolf river. Lost.

Adjourned.

River Matters.

The river was still slowly falling yesterday; but few boats now lying at the landing. Weather calm, sunny and pleasant.

Arrived since last report: From Cincinnati for New Orleans, the R. H. Winslow and the Cheeseman. From New Orleans for St. Louis, the City of Memphis.

The Simonds leaves for New Orleans this evening, after the arrival of the cars.

The Hickman goes clear last evening from Cincinnati. She leaves again for the same port this evening. Passengers for the Ohio will find the Hickman a comfortable boat to travel on, and Capt. Pepper, and Bond, the clerk, clever and accommodating officers.

The St. Francis left for St. Francis river last evening.

CINCINNATI, November 28.—The water in the channel is still receding, but at a very slow rate. There is in the channel between here and Louisville between eight and nine feet water, which the St. Louis boats can take out pretty full loads upon. The following is the rate of freight for Memphis: Whisky, Oil and Ale, 75c; Pound Freights, 40c; Heavy freights, 50c.

NASHVILLE.—On the 23d the river was receding slowly. There were only three feet water on the Muscle Shoals. The river above was falling rapidly.

WHEELING.—On the 25th there were seven feet four inches water in the channel, and considerable ice running for the first time this season.

THE MISSOURI.—There are at present more boats up the Missouri than ever were frozen up in that stream before. They number twenty-two, and are located at various points on the river from St. Aubert to Council Bluffs. Unless the weather changes for the warmer, and that very suddenly they will be obliged to remain where they are until the opening of navigation in the spring. The river is said to be very full of heavy ice, and very low, and no boat will dare to venture down in its present state.

LOUISVILLE, November 27.—The river was slowly falling with 5 feet water on the falls last evening. In the canal there were 7 feet water by the mark; but the R. H. Winslow, bound for New Orleans, drawing about eight feet water, worked her way through without difficulty.

ST. LOUIS.—From the Democrat of November 28th: No arrivals or departures of steamboats at this port yesterday. The river fell fast from daylight to dark yesterday, but we were informed that the gorge was still fast yesterday forenoon. The experienced in matters of the river, think that the gorge would give way last evening, or will to-day, which caused some activity among the southern bound boats. Several are preparing to leave whenever it becomes known that the gorge has broken. The ice was not running so heavily last evening as during the morning, and the ferry boats plyed as usual.

Monetary and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, WEDNESDAY, December 2, 1857.

MONETARY.—There is no special change in the money market, but more activity, in the course of the week. Exchange is reported to be plentiful, and business is now going on with much confidence and regularity.

CHICAGO.—From the Times of Nov. 28: The money market is rather close to-day, the demand for money being very active, and the banks not discounting. Eastern exchange is scarce and commands ¾@ cent. Gold is in good demand, and readily sells at 3@5 ⅝ cent. Some money in large amounts, belonging to European capitalists, was loaned to-day by their agents here, to some of our business men, on real estate security. The security is ample, and the loans stand A No. 1 in business circles. There is much money to be had there this come from, but it is only on paper that can obtain it.

ST. LOUIS.—From the Democrat of Nov. 28: There is no particular change to notice in financial matters. The resumption of navigation has closed all business of a character. The banks are doing a small amount of discounting. Exchange on New York is selling at ¼ @ ⅜ premium, and 1@ ¼ cent for Missouri paper. At Chicago, we learn by private advices, exchange is advancing, and is now held at 7 and 10 @ cent. This advance is no doubt caused by the demand for the purchase of bonds.

The Missouri Republican comes from an "authentic source" to state that the firm of Wright, Ewing, Lee & H. Lones & Co. have been reduced more than one-half by extensive adjustment and payment.

CINCINNATI.—From the Enquirer, Nov. 28: In money matters there is nothing to report to-day. The demand was good, but the market was free from pressure. Rates of interest are unchanged, and there appears to be little to a limited extent at the Discount-houses, when offered by customers, at 10@12 per cent. per annum. The Exchange market was firm and business was quite active. Sales on New York, readily, and selling exchange amounts at ¾ @ ⅞ premium. Gold was in good request at ¼ premium. Uncurrent money was unsettled, and little disposition evinced to purchase at par cents. Tennessee money was at a discount of 4 @ 5 per cent. Good banks, and solvent free banks 6@10 per cent discount.

LOUISVILLE.—From the Courier of Nov. 28: Exchange on New York is quoted at ¼ @ ⅜ premium. Exchange on Philadelphia 1; New Orleans ¼@1; Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Cincinnati, par. Currency stands as follows:

A RETIRED PHYSICIAN,

75 YEARS OF AGE,

Whose cards of life have nearly run out, discovered while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his wife child, a daughter, was given up to die. He had heard much of the wonderful properties of the native herbs, and prepared a quantity of preparations made from the East India Hemp, and the benefit conferred to him that he might make a remedy for his child. He started home and succeeded in realizing his wishes. His child was cured, and is now alive and well. He has since administered the same with equal remedy to thousands of sufferers in all parts of the world, and he has never failed in making them completely healthy and happy. Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send to each of his afflicted fellow-beings who request it this recipe, with full and explicit directions for making and successfully using it. He does not require each applicant to inclose him one shilling—these cents to be returned as postage on the recipe, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement. Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, WEDNESDAY, December 2, 1857.

COTTON.—There was some uncertainty as to prices in market yesterday and quotations were nominal. The market was inactive, yet sales to the amount of 700 bales were made. FROM STAGE: Ordinary, 11@11¾; Low Middling, 11¾@11¾; Middling, 11¾@12; Good Middling, 12¼@12½; Middling Fair 12¾@13 cents. We hear of advices from New Orleans stating that Cotton was selling in that market at 11¾@12¼ cents, with large receipts.

☞ We copy the following from the St. Louis Republican of Tuesday:

It would seem about time for those who have been "holding out for higher prices" to let go their hold. There or four years ago, when the currency was in good supply, times good and prospects of rapid cheering, the thing may was thought, by its owners, to be pretty well and thoroughbreds at the other interior markets only 63 38. Now, with everything the complete reverse of those times, the owners refuse to sell at $1 00 and even $5. It is difficult to see what they expect to gain by keeping out of the market, when tempted by such offers. The holders of cotton must make up their minds sooner or later to some improvement in the prices of their stuff. There is nothing in the aspect of the markets, either in this country or Europe, and being in the continuous trade and manufacturing industry, in either hemisphere, to warrant a rise or any appreciable in price of any staple product of the United States, for at least a year to come. As regards provisions, it is believed, by not a few, that the pork packer can now pay even $4 37½ per cwt. thinly by the operation.
