

CORRESPONDENCE.

Speaker.

The people of South Speaker have organized a Sunday School with Mr. Alfred Goheen as Superintendent.

Geo Hallend raised a new barn last week.

Mr E. Stout is building a fine residence opposite the South Speaker school house.

Melvin.

May 20th, 1882.

Beautiful summer weather at last. Messrs Mosier & Clark are preparing to build an elevator to be completed in time for the fall market.

Mr Nye has the mill machinery on the ground.

Tickets are sold here for all stations on the road which will be a great convenience.

Mr McLeod has dug a cellar and is preparing to build an addition to his store.

Mr Ball has built a fence around his lot.

The Donaldson House is being painted which will add materially to the appearance of front street.

Mr Donaldson and wife started for Canada on the 22nd, and intend to be gone a week. We hope their strength will be renewed like the eagle's, while visiting the homes of their children.

Con.

Spring Hill.

Show day has past and cool weather prevails.

A. E. Annis died Friday morning May 19, with consumption. The remains were taken to Minden, for burial on Saturday.

It is reported Porf Chute is dead. Prof. is it so or not.

Thos Allen of Kenoskee caused the arrest of Silas Boddy for spitting in singing school—so say the boys. Boddy beat Allen in the suit before Justice Martin. Tommy be careful you are not in Kansas sleeping with a revolver under your head.

Lucas & Gough are getting ready to build a grist mill at Fargo. We wish them success.

G. Hunt raised a barn Saturday. E. Smith is getting ready to put up a large barn.

The farmers are nearly through planting.

Fall wheat looks well in this township.

Modoc.

Express wagons at A. G. Brown's. Woven wire mattrasser at A. G. Brown's.

Perfection in Corsets. The Coronet Corset, for sale by Holden Bros, is the most easy and perfect fitting corset in the market. Try it.

—Two of the carpenters have arrived and work will be commenced immediately on the new addition to the Ferguson House.

—A temperance lecture will be delivered next Sunday evening by Chas P. Russell, of Detroit, presiding officer for Michigan of the Independent Order of Good Templars.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, May 24th, by Rev F. Coates, of Marlett, Mr. Archibald Wright, of Port Huron, to Miss Rebecca A. Stanley, of this place. They started for Port Huron the same evening where they will take up their residence. We join with their many friends in wishing them a happy wedded life.

—We understand that an effort will be made at the next regular business meeting of the Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company of Macomb and St. Clair counties to locate the secretary at Memphis. For some time the office has located almost on the extreme edge of the territory, and many seem to desire a change in this respect. We do not believe that any member of the company can say anything against the present secretary, W. W. Lyons, but it is felt that some other party should be given a chance, as Mr. Lyons has held the office for several years. The candidate at Memphis is Geo. W. Carman, postmaster at that place. He is a thorough business man and possessed of more than ordinary clerical ability. He is a man in whom the utmost confidence can be placed, and so far as we are concerned, should be glad to see him succeed in getting it—Tyro.

M. P. Sunday School Institute.

We are not prepared to give full particulars of the proceedings in this issue but will endeavor to do so in our next. The meeting was opened Tuesday with prayer by Rev. D. H. Miller, after which Rev. C. B. Clark delivered an able address of welcome and was responded to by Rev. W. Bradley, of Goodland circuit. Both addresses were listened to with interest. Rev. D. H. Miller then read an essay on Sabbath School Organization, which was very creditable to the author, and was followed by a few remarks by J. S. Duffie and Rev. W. Bradley. The choir rendered quite a number of very fine selections. The chairman passed some remarks and the meeting was closed for the evening of the first day.

STILL ALIVE!

I wish to announce to the citizens of Brockway Centre and vicinity, that after a grand consult of all the barber's in Wolverine state, I do proclaim and make known to all that I, S B Hughes, have fitted up a Barber Shop in the neatest manner available, where I will be at all times, ready to give them a complete cutting reception and completely divest their physiognomy of nature's unseemly production. Now witness my razor and the great seal of my razors and scissors in the year of Blue Beard 1882.

My shop is neat,

My towels are clean,

My scissors are sharp,

My razors are keen.
