Local Expositions.

—Everything is lovely.
—Wool season has commenced.
—Subscribe for the EXPOSITOR.
—Potatoes at $1.40 are luxuries.
—School exhibition to-morrow evening.
—The Pt. Huron Times has been enlarged.

—School closes four weeks from Friday.
—Call and leave a dollar for the EXPOSITOR.

—The post-office store is receiving a coat of paint.

—Why would not a street sprinkler be a good idea.

—Read the market report in another place in this issue.

—Three weeks from next Tuesday will be the Fourth of July.

—Rev. W. J. Eastlake, of Sandusky, called on us one day last week.

—The cold weather has been a sore disappointment to the potato bug.

—Read the new adv. this week of Mrs. J. A. Smith, Capac, Mich.

—Bartlett & Vanderlip have the frame up for their marble works.

—Robt Lewis brought the first clip of wool to town and was bought by Palmer & Brown.

—There was no service at the M. E. church Sunday evening on account of the absence of the pastor.

—C. F. Michels has moved into his new store and added to his now large stock another invoice of goods.

—Rev. S. Riley, of Grant Centre, chairman of the Port Huron District, paid us a pleasant call Tuesday.

—The late rains have put new life into vegetation, and the fields look beautiful in their dress of green.

—Don't fail to examine those five-cent prints at Holden Bros, spoken of in their change of adv. this week.

—Rev. C. W. Harrisman's text for next Sunday morning is "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy."

—Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Hancock will be present at the reunion at Detroit, June 14 and 15.

—It will pay our readers to visit the stores and business places of our advertisers, and examine their stock and work.

—Alexander Donaldson sent us in twelve subscribers to the EXPOSITOR. Who will be the next man that will do as well.

—A pair of boxing gloves have been introduced into town and it is fine sport to see them knock each other "out of time."

—Mrs. Horace Baker, of Pt. Huron, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Holden and Mrs. W. N. McKenna, the past week.

—Little Charlie, son of Jas. Brown, while playing at the mill fell from a truck and broke the bone of his arm. He is now doing well.

—A case of assault and battery, Murray vs. Willoughby, was brought before Justice Duffie on Monday and was decided no cause of action.

—The Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. church was held at Brockway, Saturday and Sunday. Elder T. G. Potter, of Pt. Huron, was present.

—John Saunders & Sons are having good luck in moulding their brick and Mr. Saunders informs us they will burn the first kiln before the first of July.

—C. F. Michels will give an opening ball at his new hall on Tuesday evening, June 20th. All are invited to attend. Bill 75 cts including supper.

—The Dr.'s famous nag "Highlyer" is being trained at LA RAREY and will be ready for the 4th of July to enter as a competitor to climb the greased pole.

—Herdic coach come to town, and can be seen any moonlight night perambulating the common west of the old Advent church. Exhibition free.

—A large barn was raised on the farm of Joseph Collins 2 miles north and 1 1/2 miles west of here. The dimensions are 26 x 48 feet with 16 ft posts.

—Under the new statute, any person setting out shade trees along the highway adjacent to his property, is entitled to a reduction of 25 cents on his highway tax, for every tree.

—It is now time to begin to make preparations for a Fourth of July celebration. Will not someone start the subscription paper and there is no doubt but that everybody will help.

—Mrs. Ann Murphy whose trial was held last Saturday for accusing Mr. Carr, her neighbor, of murder plead guilty and was fined $10 and costs with a promise to keep her tongue still.

—W. H. Palmer has a new arrival of clothing this week also a new line of tea. He invites inspection of his $1 cashmere. An examination of his large stock cannot but repay you.

—The frame of the addition to Thos. Rapley's Hotel is up and the building is being rapidly pushed to completion. Wm. Cooper, of Strathroy, who has the contract of building it, is a capable workman, and a good fellow withal.

—The masons have completed the foundation to the Duffie Block and the carpenters are busy framing. Robert Lake the contractor, is a man who will do justice to the work assigned to him.

—Rev. F. A. Smith, of Richmond, a Free Methodist minister preached on the street to large audiences two evenings lately. He is holding protracted meetings in the Jones school house 1 1/2 miles northwest of here.

—The New York Sun and Detroit Evening News, assuming the role of lighted religious journals, is the latest sensation in paperdom. Both papers in recent issues claiming their orthodoxy is the real simon pure. Well, well, what next?

—An interesting feature of a local newspaper, is its personal mention department. We shall be pleased if our readers will notify us when they have friends to visit them, or when they are about to leave home themselves. Don't be too modest about it now; give us the items.

—The scholars with help from outside parties have been, for some time, practicing for a school exhibition and now are prepared to give the citizens of this village a few hours of social enjoyment at the school house to-morrow (Friday) evening. The parents and friends of the scholars should all attend and encourage them in their good work. The admission will be free. Everybody is invited to attend.

—Tuesday we were shown Rev. S. G. Bettis' Camp Meeting outfit. It will be, without doubt, when completed the finest outfit of the kind in the United States. He has it all grained and painted in a neat and tasty manner and "S. G. Bettis Gospel Meetings" neatly lettered on the front of the stand. Mr. Bettis left on Wednesday for Roseburg where he will hold meetings for the rest of the week thence to Elk Corners and returning will hold meetings here for one week.

—Geo. V. Gilliam, who murdered his mother at Baker's Corners, township of Berlin, in this county, sometime ago, was tried in the circuit court on Monday. The jury after being absent some seven hours reported that they were unable to agree on a verdict, three for acquittal and nine for conviction. The prisoner was advised to plead guilty of murder in the second degree, and he did. Judge Stevens sentenced him to ten years in the State prison at Jackson, at hard labor.

—A Temperance Lecture was given in the M. E. church last evening by Mr. Charles P. Russell, of Detroit, Presiding Officer for Michigan in the Independent Order of Good Templars. A very large and appreciative audience greeted him. A Good Templars Lodge was organized and the following are the officers: W. C. I. J. S. Duffie; W. V. T. Mrs. Allan Brown; W. L. James McArthur; W. F. S. A. G. Brown; W. T. C. Cooper; W. M. A. Gaus; W. I. G. Miss Aggie Duffie; W. O. G. McKinnon.

—The street preaching last Monday evening seems to have taken some of our church goers by surprise. Of course the prophet Isaiah some 2,300 years ago did say, about the wicked Jews, some very hard things, which, no doubt they deserved, but with three churches in the village surely it was a trifle too much for a stranger to make such an application of some of those old sayings, which practically declared the vengeance of Heaven was ready to be poured out upon the heads of preachers and people alike, of course the favored few who surrounded the speaker alone excepted. Glad there is some salt left.

What the Newspapers Say.

We have received the initial number of the EXPOSITOR, a 6-column folio published at Brockway Centre, by Del T. Sutton of the Richmond Review. It starts out well and we wish it success.—Rochester Era.

We have received Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Brockway Centre EXPOSITOR, Del T. Sutton's new paper. It is a six column folio, under the editorial management of Jas. A. Menzies, and starts out with a liberal advertising patronage which, if it continues, cannot fail to make a paying investment of it.—Armada Telegraph.

The initial number of the Brockway Centre EXPOSITOR has been received. It is as lively as a cricket and starts off with a good list of advertisers. May it live to report the next centennial celebration.—Pt. Sanilac Reporter.

We are in receipt of the first issue of Brockway Centre's new paper, the EXPOSITOR, published by Del T. Sutton, proprietor of the Richmond Review, and managed by Jas. A. Menzies. It is a neat printed folio, well patronized by the business men of that burg and withal has an appearance of prosperity. Long life to it.—Cass City Enterprise.

We are in receipt of the initial number of the EXPOSITOR, published at Brockway Centre, James A. Menzies, editor and manager and Del T. Sutton proprietor, of the Richmond Review, and managed by Jas. A. Menzies. We do not mention this for the purpose of blasting his prospects at the very outset, but rather to assure his patrons that we have had an opportunity to know him, and knowing him, can take pleasure in commending him to the people of Brockway, for his many desirable attributes.—Romio Observer.

The first number of the Brockway Centre EXPOSITOR is received. D. T. Sutton is the proprietor and J. A. Menzies editor. From a personal acquaintance with both parties we are led to believe the paper will be one worthy the support of Brockway people.—St. Clair Republican.

The EXPOSITOR, Brockway Centre has the co-operation of business men of the place. Mr. Sutton the proprietor, is an experienced newspaper man and proposes to help the town by giving them a wide awake local paper.—Detroit Christian Herald.

The EXPOSITOR, is the name of a paper started at Brockway Centre, by Del T. Sutton, who also publishes the Richmond Review. The EXPOSITOR comes to us well filled with advertisements, and an abundance of local news. May the EXPOSITOR thrive until the publisher is able to live without having Sutton on his fingers.—Port Huron Mail.

The initial number of the Brockway Centre EXPOSITOR has reached us. It is a neat six-column folio, well filled with advertising and local news. Judging from its appearance we would say it hailed from a live town.—Fort Gratiot Sun.
